PREFATORY NOTE.

THE "Freedom" of a city is the right of enjoying all the privileges and immunities belonging to it, to the exclusion of all who are not "Freemen." In cities, municipal corporations, and boroughs, it was obtained, either by serving an apprenticeship for a certain time, or by the payment of money in such amounts as were fixed by the corporate authorities under their charters; and it was also conferred, in their discretion, by a vote, as a municipal compliment or honor.

In Holland, and in England, or rather in Great Britain, in former days, the "Freedom of a city," or other corporation was a most valuable and important privilege and monopoly. For none but its possessors could practice trades, or do any mercantile business in the place, possess the right of suffrage, or be eligible to election to public office, or other civic honors.

In Holland it was termed "Burgher Recht," or Burgher Right, and was of two classes, "Great Burgher Right" and "Small Burgher Right," according to the amounts of money paid and privileges granted. The Great Burgher Right was also conferred, ex-officio, upon the magistrates, the Dutch clergy, and the high civil, and military, officers of the city or state. As such it was established and existed under the Dutch government in New Amsterdam in New Netherland.

When the English succeeded the Dutch in that province, the English form was established therein, by the English charters of the city of New York, under the clauses granting the privilege of conferring the "Freedom of the City" upon such terms and conditions as its corporate authorities might fix.

This volume contains for the first time all the official Dutch and English Records now remaining relating to this subject, arranged under four heads:—

- I. THE BURGHER RIGHT.
- II. THE ROLL OF FREEMAN.
- III. APPENDIX TO THE ROLL OF FREEMEN.
- IV. INDENTURES OF APPRENTICESHIP, 1694 TO 1708.

Together with a very full Index, of the names of all the Burghers Great and Small, the Freemen of all classes, the officers and magistrates conferring the Rights and Freedoms, and of the documents relating to the same.

Under the first head will be found the documents and official papers of the Director General and Council of New Amsterdam, and of the Burgomasters and Schepens, establishing the Great and Small Burgher Rights in that city, with their respective privileges powers and duties. These are translated from the originals preserved in the City Records in the City Hall in New York, and in the Archives of the State in Albany; the former translated, but not printed, by the late eminent archivist Edmund B. O'Callaghan, M.D., and the latter by his successor Mr. B. F. Fernow. Every paper, document, and name, that has been preserved to this time relating to this subject, from the first movement for Burgher Rights in 1648 to the end of the Dutch dominion, will, it is believed, be here found.

The second head contains the "Roll of Freemen" of the City of New York under its English charters, from 1675 to 1776, when that of 1730 was suspended, and the city ruled by the "Military Courts of Police" established by the British Commanders-in-Chief; and the continuation of the same from and after the revival of that charter in 1784 and civic action under it. This "Roll of Freemen" gives the names, occupations, and employments, of the free inhabitants of New York during the century preceding the Revolution, with the dates, and the Mayoralties, when, and under which, they were for the first time respectively made such "Freemen." It is printed from the official Roll preserved in the City Records, and is in fact an authentic, official, directory of New York and New Yorkers during that period; and throws a strong clear light upon the persons, and social, and business, standing of those "Freemen," many of whose descendants are among the citizens of New York at this day.

In the "Appendix to the Roll of Freemen," forming the third head above mentioned, are printed in full the names of all persons, officials, and others, who for any reason, during the period between 1675 and 1776, were "voted the Freedom of the City," either as an acknowledgment of special services to the City, or as a municipal compliment and honor, with all the official proceedings in each instance. They are printed in full as recorded officially at their respective dates, and are of very great interest, and of importance to the correct understanding of New York history under the English Colonial rule. In consequence of their fulness and length it was deemed best to print them separately, rather than to break the continuity of the "Roll of Freemen" by inserting them at their respective dates, as they appear in the volumes of the City Records.

From 1784 to 1816 when the creation of Freemen under the charter ceased, without any formal action, the Roll is continued of names occupations and dates as before. This has been a matter of difficulty owing to the fact that the official roll between those dates has disappeared, and the information had to be collected from the official records of the Mayor's Court, the Court of Common Pleas, and the proceedings of the Common Council; a fact which has caused much delay in the issuing of this volume. In this portion of the Roll, however, all the special, and complimentary, elections of Freemen are inserted at their respective dates in full with all the proceedings in each case. The printing at their dates of these papers in the complimentary elections last referred to was adopted, as from 1816 down, the only elections of Freemen that have been made are purely of that character, the last being that of President Andrew Johnson in 1866, and it seemed best that they should appear chronologically.

In 1804, after a fierce contest beginning in 1802, was passed an act of the Legislature which conferred the right of suffrage upon freeholders in the City, who were not freemen under the charter, thus interfering with the charter's privileges. The contest grew out of the Federal and Antifederal politics of the time and was bitter. The letters and communications on both sides in the papers of the day, and the formal proceedings of the Legislature, and the act itself, have been reprinted under this head, as of great historic interest. The last Freemen were chosen in 1815, since which date none have been admitted.

To be admitted as a "Burgher" "Great" or "Small," or as a "Freeman," the applicant had to be chosen by the city authorities, take an oath of fidelity to the city, pay the prescribed fees, and be duly registered. The only exception was in the case of Apprentices who had served seven years. Hence, closely connected with the Freemen under the charter, were their Apprentices, and the system of binding them out then in vogue. For every apprentice upon duly attaining the end of his apprenticeship was entitled to, and did become a "Freeman" without the payment of any fees, and able to practise his trade or occupation in the city, and vote, and be eligible to office therein. Registers of their indentures were required by law to be kept, in which these were recorded at length. In 1740, on the death of William Sharpas, the Clerk of the Common Council, among the volumes of records received by his successor from his widow, were four volumes of these Apprenticeship Registers. They have never been mentioned by writers on the City's history. And now only one of them is to be found among the Records at the City

Hall. This covers from February 1694 to January 1708. It is here printed under the fourth head. These indentures varied a little, and one of each kind is printed in full for comparison. In all the other instances an abstract of each only is given, but with the names and occupations of the parties, and the dates in full. They are of great interest, showing who and what the masters and mistresses were, and who were the City officials who passed upon each case; and cast a bright light on the business and trade methods of New York under William and Mary and Queen Anne.

This volume will be of rare value to historical students and writers, as well as searchers in New York genealogies.

For courteous facilities in its preparation the thanks of the Committee on Publications are due to the Clerk of the Common Council, Captain Francis J. Twomey, who for thirty-five years past has been in charge of the ancient records of the City of New York, and their careful, intelligent, and ever-watchful guardian.

1648.

Whereas the Honorable Director General and Council have seen, and by experience remarked, that several of the Scotch Merchants and Petty Traders who from time to time come over in the ships from Fatherland, do and aim at nothing else than solely to spoil trade and business by their underselling; they dispose of their goods with the utmost speed; give 11 and 12 guilders in loose Wampum for one Beaver, and when sold out go back again in the ships of the same year in which they come, without bestowing or conferring any benefit on the Country, all the burdens whereof, on the contrary, the inhabitants who own property must bear.

Therefore, to prevent such destroyers of trade, it is judged proper and profitable for New Netherland and the inhabitants thereof, and it is Ordained, that henceforth those Merchants, Scots and Petty Traders who come over in any ships from Patria with intention to trade here, either with Christians or Heathens, by the large and small measure, ell and weight, shall not be permitted to carry on any business in the least on shore here unless they take up their abode here in New Netherland three consecutive years, and in addition build in this city, New Amsterdam, a decent citizen dwelling, each according to his circumstances and means; all Merchants and others who oblige themselves to transact business in a citizen house and to remain three years in the country shall be admitted, and none else, the Skipper or Merchant of his own or of his master's ship alone excepted, but these shall not be at liberty to keep any shop on shore.

Thus done in the presence of the Honorable Director General, Mr. Dincklagen, Mr. La Montague, Briant Nuton and Paulus Leendersten, this 18th. of September, Anno 1648, New Amsterdam.

Directors of the West India Company to Director General and Council, dated Amsterdam, 12th. March, 1654.

With regard to the Edict drawn up by you, that no Traders shall sell their merchandises by the small measure, weight and ell, or convey them into the interior, unless they settle in the country with a decent house or bouwery, and reside there three consecutive years, we can well consider that such transient Traders are bringing by their extortion little profit to the inhabitants there; but the remedy your Honors propose to prevent it, we judge to be impracticable, especially in the very beginning of a first-budding State, whose growth must be sought for in, and founded rather on, fostered and unlimited Freedoms, than on compulsory restrictions. For to desire to constrain people by obligation to possess houses or lands, who often have thereunto neither opportunity nor inclination, is too disgusting, and to force them to reside, too servile and slavish; yet, in order to benefit the inhabitants as much as possible, we have judged that it would be proper, and also less dangerous to the advancement of the State, to enact and resolve as follows, viz.:

That henceforth no Traders coming over there shall be allowed to sell their goods as aforesaid, or to carry them inland, unless they keep an open store there. By this means, then, not only will extortions be in a great degree prevented there, but such Traders will also be obliged to bear the ordinary and extraordinary taxes and contributions, the same as the rest of our inhabitants. Your Honors will therefore regulate yourselves accordingly. We will also warn you, before quitting this subject, not to enact, in future, any more such or similar Ordinances or regulations, much less to publish them, before you shall have first received our instructions thereon, as we find such to be for the greatest advantage of the Company and this State in particular.

At a meeting of the Burgomasters and Schepens, held 22d. January, 1657.

The Honorable President submits a certain draft of a petition to be presented to the Director and Council, which being looked into, examined and considered, it was resolved to deliver the same to the Director General and Council, as follows :

To the Honorable Lords, the Honorable Director General and Supreme Council of New Netherland.

The undersigned Petitioners, in their quality as Burgomasters and Schepens of this City, remonstrate with due respect that they find daily increasing the multitude of Scotsmen [Peddlers] who repair over and hither here every year in the ships from Fatherland, who, on arriving here, unwilling for the most part to sell their goods, proceed immediately to Fort Orange or to some other place, and having finished their trade go away back again on the first opportunity, so that this place not only does not derive any profit from such persons, but this good Commonalty suffers, on the contrary, great injury thereby, as even the provisions which come last summer from Patria must be received from Fort Orange, because the trade there was much better than in this place. Which commerce is in direct violation of the 12th. Article of the Freedoms which the Honorable Lords Patroons granted to this place, by which article the said Lords decide that the Staple of the whole of New Netherland shall be on the Island of Manhattans, in as much as the said Lords Majors have reserved this Island for their own Colony. It being also taken in consideration the Burdens which their Commonalty have to bear in this City and the Services which they have rendered as well in the time of the English troubles as in those which happened in other occasions, in which they always evinced their willingness. So that for this reason and in order to animate them the more, it would be very proper, in their opinions, to favor them with some privileges. And whereas Burgher Right is one of the most important privileges in a well governed city, the Petitioners therefore humbly request Your Honors to be pleased to grant the privilege that no man shall be able to prosecute public trading here unless such as are known as City Burghers; also that persons who are not settled residents here shall not be allowed to trade to any quarter here about without this place, together with what your Honors may be pleased kindly to grant in addition to Your Honors Subjects; also to be pleased to order how much those shall give to this City, who come from Patria or any other places to reside and carry on trade here, to purchase their citizenship. Awaiting hereupon Your Honors favorable disposition we remain

Your Honors Subjects

The Burgomasters and Schepens of the City
Amsterdam in New Netherland.

By order of the same,
Jacob Kip, Sec'y.

Done this 22nd. Jan'y 1657. at the Court in the City Hall at Amsterdam in N. Nd.

In Council at Fort Amsterdam the 23d. of January, 1657.

Considerations and advice of the Honorable Director General concerning the Memorial of the Burgomasters and Schepens, submitted to this Board January 23d, 1657.

The petition in its prologue, arguments and conclusions contains the following points, which require consideration :

I. The damage suffered by permanent and established inhabitants in the interior trade through peddlers [Schots] travelling up and down, implies by supposition a request for redress, and a remedy against it, as signified by the petitioners in the conclusion :

(1) By establishing the Burgher Right in this City.

(2) By allowing only such well known burghers to keep shop.

(3) By a further explanation of the restriction, that only burghers or permanent inhabitants and owners of real estate may trade at or go to other places in this government.

II. The arguments and motives hereto are drawn by petitioners

(1) From the troubles, labors and expenses, already borne by the citizens or inhabitants of this City during the English troubles and the last recontre with the natives, and to which they are subject on future occasions.

(2) From the benefits of the Stapleright, already granted to this place by their Honors.

The reasons adduced cannot be denied, much less controverted, and therefore it seems proper that this community and the inhabitants of this City should be favored with some privileges and encouraged to continue, considering what they have done in the English and Indian troubles and what they may have to do at some future time, as this place, being the principal capital and frontier place, will always have to bear the brunt of the first and most frequent attacks, and is therefore liable to be subjected to a great deal of labor, troubles and expenses ; but whether the request of the petitioners can be granted in this way or whether it agrees with the advice and decision of their Honors and with the population of the country, which requires special attention, is duly considered, only the one point more than the other.

As to the first point, to wit, the Burgher Right, and that only men, known as burghers, may keep open shops or trade elsewhere in the province, it is apparently opposing the order and letter from the Lords Directors of the 12th. of March, 1654 ; only the latter more than the former, which says that the engagement of house and lands is repugnant, while to compel them to remain, is slavery. It is therefore my opinion, that we keep as close as possible to the advice and letter of their Honors, to wit, that we consider and resolve, that henceforth no newly arriving traders, let them be skippers, sailors or peddlers [Schotsen], or whatever they may be called, shall be allowed to sell, transport or export into the country their merchandise, unless they have first kept shop in this City, either in their own or a leased house or room, as the trader may find most convenient, without engaging himself to buy real estate or remain longer than he likes. As to the last point, only in extreme necessity and for the preservation of the country and then not longer, as it is done at home.

Whereas it is required for the keeping of an open shop that the trader have the Burgher Right, conform to the customs of the Fatherland, where in all well governed cities the right to keep an open shop is granted only to men who have the burgher or poorter [freeman's] right and thus are, by an oath of fealty, bound to the place, keep fire and light there either in their own or in a rented house or room, take their turns of watching and bear all usual expenses of citizens.

Therefore all arriving traders shall henceforth, before they are allowed to keep open shop, request from the Burgomasters and Schepens the Burgher Right, on condition of duly paying for it, taking the oath of fidelity to the supreme government of Director General and Council of New Netherland as burghers and freemen [poorters]; this done, they shall be allowed to open shop either in a purchased or a rented house, there keep fire and light, and they shall not be prevented or forbidden to trade and traffic, like other burghers, freemen and inhabitants of this province, within and without the boundaries of the same, in barks, yachts or other vessels, owned or hired by them; but by virtue of the Stapleright, as observed in the Fatherland, no goods or merchandise, coming either from the Fatherland or from neighboring places, shall be carried into the country in the ships, yachts or barks by which they were brought, except upon payment of Stapleright and freight.

Because no Burgher or Freeman right binds a man to his oath of fidelity for longer time than his convenience requires, because often, in fact usually, the traders, coming here, make or try to make it their convenience to depart with the ships, when the oath taken by them, guard duty and other burgher's burdens cease, and because, by virtue of the above order and letter of the Lords Directors, they cannot and ought not be compelled to remain, a too tyrannical proceeding, it is therefore my advice, that even though they may have acquired the Burgher or Freeman [poorter] right for the time of their sojourn here, they shall lose upon returning to the Fatherland, and upon coming back here they shall be held again to ask for and acquire it, first paying for it the dues as fixed, or keeping according to the common rule of our Fatherland fire and light at his domicil as burgher here during his absence.

P. Stuyvesant.

State Archives, Albany.

Advice given by Mr. Nicasius de Sille.

I say in regard to the request of the Honorable Burgomasters and Schepens, submitted to the Director General and Council yesterday, the 23d. of January, 1657, as follows :

First, said gentlemen speaking of the Stapleright of the whole New Netherland say, it should be only on the Island of Manhattans, which is a colony of the Lord Directors, and the peddling [Schotse] traders should not be allowed to pass this place, without having first paid Stapleright, for Article 9 of the City of Dort says :

“All goods and merchandisè, subject to Stapleright and coming from above Dort, shall there be sold, either at wholesale or in parcels, as well those from without as from within the said City of Dort.”

The petitioners understand it this way, and it is to be considered whether the Stapleright belongs to the Company or to the City, as long as the Lord Directors hold the Island as their Colony.

I further say, subject to correction, that such peddling or small traders should not be preferred to our land-holding inhabitants and allowed to go to the South River or Fort Orange before they, these peddlers, have offered for sale with open doors or shops their goods here during one month, so that our inhabitants may not be passed over on account of such sneaks and cheats, who until now have benefited this country very little, but have overlooked and passed our merchants without paying anything, while our inhabitants on the other side, subject to all taxes and burdens, are injured in their trade by these fellows. I say also, that no stranger should keep a burgher's shop or transport merchandise, unless these peddlers have done their guard duty for a month and paid the Stapleright on goods which they have brought from Holland.

Signed : N. de Sille.

In Council at Fort Amsterdam the 29th. of January, 1657.

Present at the meeting the Honorable Director General Petrus Stuyvesant, the Honorable Nicasius de Sille, first Councillor and Fiscal, the Honorable Councillor Pieter Tonneman.

The foregoing opinions of the Director General and Council having been read, debated and considered, Councillors Nicasius de Sille and Pieter Tonneman unanimously agreed with the opinion of his Honor Director General Petrus Stuyvesant, recorded above, and it was resolved, to draw up an ordinance in form of a proclamation, which is to be published to-morrow or affixed as usual.

At a meeting of the Burgomasters and Schepens
Wednesday, the 31st. January, 1657, in the City Hall.

Present the W. Heeren, N. de Sille, Allard Anthony, Oloff Stevensen, Joh. Verbrugge, Jan Vinge, Will. Beeckman, and Hendrick Kip.

The following Apostille and Privilege is this day from the Honorable Director General and Council of N. Netherland, on the petition of the Burgomasters and Schepens presented to their Honors on the 22d. January of this Year, which according to Custom is published at, and affixed to, the City Hall of this City.

The Representation of the Burgomasters and Schepens of this City, New Amsterdam, in New Netherland, being received at the Meeting of the Director General and Council of N. Netherland, wherein they exhibit, on the one hand, the trouble, labor, expenses, expeditions and watchings which they sustained, endured and suffered in the last national quarrels with the Neighbors, as well as in the sad and unexpected ren-counters with the Natives, and what they are subject to as the principal frontier and capital, more than others; On the other hand, the frequent complaints of Burghery and other Inhabitants of this Province against the inland trading and trafficking of the Scotsmen sailing hither and thither even to the best trading places, taking the bread, as it were, out of the mouths of good Burghery and resident Inhabitants, without such being subject, in time of peace or war, to any trouble, expense, labor, expeditions or watching like the Burghery and settled Inhabitants; that, on the contrary, they carry away the profits in time of peace, and in time of war abandon the country and the Inhabitants thereof, against which Burgomasters and Schepens request, for their Burghery, some additional benefits, privilege and freedom. Which We, the Director General and Council of New Netherland, having taken into serious consideration, being sufficiently informed, by personal experience, of the truth and justice of the matter, have provisionally, on the approval and ratification of the Lords Patroons, and by their advice and instructions, dated the 12th. March, 1654, at request of Burgomasters and Schepens, condescended, apostilled, privileged and granted that, henceforward, the arriving Scotsmen and traders shall, before selling or conveying their goods and merchandise, be holden, by virtue of Stapleright, and pursuant to order and instructions of the Lords Patroons, to set up and keep an open store within the gates and walls of this City, in a hired or owned house or room, and to ask from the aforesaid Burgomasters and Schepens, before hand, the common or small Burgher Right or Citizenship to enable them to do the same, for which they shall once pay for the behoof of this City and support thereof twenty guilders, which, also, in virtue hereof, is granted to Burgomasters and Schepens; that from now henceforward no arriving passengers, Scotsmen, shop-keeper or artisans shall exercise within this City any public-store business or handicraft trade, except such as have sought and obtained the Small or Burgher Right from the Burgomasters and Schepens, and subjected themselves, by subscription or promise of oath, to the Supreme Government of the Director General and Council during their stay in this City, to bear like other Burghers and Citizens their burdens, expenses, expeditions and watches. Further, in conformity to the laudable Custom of the City of Amsterdam in Europe, the Director General and Council of New Netherland, on the approval and ratification as before, allow and concede to the Burgomasters and Schepens the establishment of a Great Burgher Right, for which those who may request to be therein shall pay fifty guilders; and all such, and such only, shall hereafter be qualified to fill all the city offices and dignities within this City, and consequently be nominated thereto; secondly, be exempt for one year and six weeks from watches and expeditions; thirdly, be free in their proper persons from arrest by any Subaltern Court or judicial benches of this Province. The Director General and Council reserve to themselves the further amplification and interpretation of obscurities and misconceptions.

Thus done in the Meeting in Fort Amsterdam in New Netherland, the 30th. January, 1657, was subscribed Resolved to present the following Petition to the Honorable Director General and Council, for explanation of the conceded privilege.

To the Honorable Lords the Lord Director General and Lords Councillors of N. Netherland.

Honorable Lords,

Whereas, Your Honors have been pleased to favor this City, Amsterdam in N. Netherland, with the privilege of Small and Great Burger Right : Therefore, we, the Burgomasters and Schepens of said City, thankfully acknowledging such for the public good and welfare, request Your Honors explanation as to whom belong for the present the Small, and whom the Great Burgher Right ; and request that Your Honors would be pleased to confer on the Schout, Burgomasters and Schepens who have formerly been in the government of this City, and are now in office, and who shall be elected to this office from those nominated for the present year, and their descendants, the privilege of the Great Burgher Right. Burgomasters and Schepens of the City Amsterdam in New Netherland with due respect represent :

That they find by daily experience that it is necessary as well at present as hereafter to appoint and select some persons within this city, as is done in our

Fatherland, to fill all offices appertaining thereto. Your Petitioners, therefore, request your Honors that such may be conferred on the Burgomasters and Schepens at the time in office to grant the said offices and appointments to those who, in their estimation, shall be best and fittest therefor, always with the approbation of Your Honors the Director General and Council of N. Netherland. Awaiting hereupon Your Honors favorable disposition, we remain

To all those who see these presents or hear them read, Greeting, make known.

That they, out of consideration of the good and voluntary services, expeditions, watches, and other burdens which the Burghers have hitherto done and borne, and in the hope and confidence which the Director General and Council still indulge of their continuance and perseverance therein, have, on the humble petition of the Burgomasters and Schepens, privileged and favored the Burghers and good Inhabitants of this City with a Great and Small Burgher Right, as can be more fully seen by the grant of privilege made to the Burgomasters and Schepens, in amplification of that already bestowed ;

And, whereas, in all beginnings, something or somebody must be the first, so that thereafter a distinction and difference may be made : therefore, also, the necessity of such distinction being founded on reason, in the establishment of the Great and Small Burgher Right, whereof the Burgomasters and Schepens have, by petition to the Director General and Council, requested further explanation, specification, and distinction as to who and what class are, for the present, to be included in the Great as well as in the Small Burgher Right, the Director General and Council of New Netherland invest, qualify, and favor with the Great Burgher Right :

First, those who have been, and at present are, in the High or Supreme government of the Country, them and their descendants in the male line.

Secondly, all former and actual Burgomasters and Schepens of this City, their descendants in the male line.

Thirdly, the Ministers of the Gospel formerly and at present in office, them and their descendants in the male line.

Fourthly, the Commissioned Officers to the Ensign inclusive, of the City regiment, them and their descendants in the male line. All with this understanding, that the above mentioned gentlemen and persons, for themselves or their descendants in the male line, have not lost or forfeited Burgher Right by absence from the City, and by not keeping fire and light ; agreeably to the laudable custom of the City of Amsterdam in Europe.

Further, all others who desire and are inclined, or hereafter may be desirous and inclined, to be enrolled in the Great Burgher Right, and to enjoy the privileges and benefits thereof, shall, according to the foregoing grant, apply for the same to the Burgomasters, and receive it on paying therefor the sum of Fifty guilders, Dutch money, or the equivalent thereof.

With the Small Burgher right are invested and favored :

First, all those who have resided and kept fire and light within the City one year and six weeks.

Secondly, all born within this City.

Thirdly, all who have married, or may hereafter marry, native born daughters of Burghers, provided that all Burgher Right be not lost or forfeited by absence from this City, or by not keeping fire and light in conformity as aforesaid.

Further, all others who either now or hereafter will keep any shop, however it may be called, and carry on business within this City or the jurisdiction thereof, shall be bound to apply to the Burgomasters for the Small Burgher Right, and pay therefor Twenty guilders, Dutch money, or the equivalent thereof.

All servants of the Honorable Company under wages, also Passengers and New-comers who will settle elsewhere, provided they do so within six weeks, remain alone exempt from applying for Burgher Right, for the exercise of all sorts of handicraft, and the practice thereof.

The moneys arising from the receipt of the Burgher Right shall be received by the Burgomasters, and by them expended principally in the strengthening and circumvallation of this City.

In order that all this may be the better and more regularly practised, observed and obeyed, the Burgomasters are ordered and authorized to make out, or cause to be made out, on the first and all following occasions, correct Lists of those who, according to the tenor hereof, are invested, qualified and favored either with the Great or Small Burgher Right, and of those hereafter who obtain and receive the same, and have a true Register thereof made, and when done deliver a copy thereof into the Office of the Secretary of the Director General and Council.

Thus done, resolved, resumed and enacted in the Assembly of the Director General and Council of New Netherland, holden in Fort Amsterdam, in New Netherland, the 2d. February, 1657.

In Council at Fort Amsterdam the 6th. of February,

At the meeting of the Director General and Council of New Netherland appeared their Honors the Burgomasters of this City of Amsterdam in New Netherland, to ask, as there were some people demanding certificates of Burghership, in which form the certificates for Great and for Small Burghers should be given.

It was resolved, that the Burgomasters should give certificates to persons demanding it and having paid the fees in the following form, mutatis mutandis :

For the Great Burgher Right :

We, Burgomasters of the City of Amsterdam in New Netherland, hereby certify and declare, that N. N. has asked for and received from us the Great Burgher Right and the benefits thereof, has taken the Burghers oath and paid the fees to the Treasurer.

Done . . .

The certificates for the Great Burgher Right shall be sealed with the seal of the City, and the fees shall be 3 guilders.

For the Small Burgher Right :

Amsterdam in New Netherland.

N. N. has asked for and received the Small Burgher Right, has taken the oath as Burgher, and has paid the fees to the Treasurer.

Done . . .

The fees herefor shall be 18 stivers.

Done at the meeting of the Director General and Council, held at Fort Amsterdam in New Netherland on the 6th. of February, 1657.

State Archives, Albany.

9th. April, 1657.

The Burgomasters and Schepens of the City of Amsterdam, in New Netherland, do by these presents make known, that those who, by virtue of the act of favor of the Director General and Councillors, make pretensions to the Great or Small Burgher Right, shall give in their names within the time of eight days to the Burgomasters of the City, who during eight days, beginning on the morning of the 10th. instant, shall assemble for two hours in the morning and five hours in the afternoon to take down the names.

Warning is given, that those within the City, who within the time mentioned do not make known their names, shall be deprived of their right to such privileges.

Thus done and published 9th. April, 1657.

List of those who have the Burgher Right pursuant to Privilege and Explanation thereof granted by the Right Honorable Director General and Council to the Burghery of this City Amsterdam in N. Netherland, and are accordingly inscribed by Burgomasters, and have taken the proper oath.

The Oath taken by the Burghers; drawn up by the Right Honorable Director General and Council.

I, N. N., Promise and Swear in the Presence of Almighty God to be true and faithful to the Sovereignty of the Noble High and Mighty Lords States General of the United Netherlands and Supreme Jurisdiction of the Honorable Lords Directors of the Privileged West India Company as Lords and Patrons of this New Netherland Province, their Director General and Council already appointed or hereafter to be appointed; and to show in the first place them, the Burgomasters and Rulers of this City, present and future, all respect and reverence, and to obey them in all honest and just matters as a faithful Subject and good Burgher is bound to do, as long as I shall continue in this Province. So Truly Help me God Almighty.

At a Meeting of Burgomasters and Schepens held 25th. March, 1658.

The Honorable President states that there are several of the Inhabitants of this City who have purchased their Burgher Right for a year and a day, and do not pay ; and whenever the City Messenger goes for payment, they answer they have no money, proceeding to scoff at and Censure the Burgomasters ; and though it be a matter which concerns the Burgomasters alone, nevertheless, that it be known to the Heere Schepens, it is therefore communicated to the Court to remember.

At a Meeting of Burgomasters and Schepens held
5th. November, 1659.

Right Honorable. Lords :

The presiding Burgomaster of this City, Amsterdam, in N. Netherland, respectfully represents to your Honors that a Certain Remonstrance, hereunto annexed, has been handed him, signed by some Burghers, representing the low condition and constant complaints continually made to them from some who have fled from their houses and lands, endeavoring to assist themselves in their poverty, not being able to pay what they obtained on credit from the one and the other, as the said Remonstrance more fully sets forth ; Requesting him, the Petitioner, in his quality, to endeavor to obtain with all respect from Your Honors, that Your Honors would please to favor the Burghers with the Burgher Right in all places included in the Honorable West India Company's District of N. Netherland, and so on to four or five points set forth in said Remonstrance. But as respects the Fourth point, should be too high for the payment of the Burgher Right for the Scots, or those trading over and hither, they submit the same to your Honors wise Council and pleasure. And whereas, he, the Petitioner, is assured by Your Honors that Your Honors have nothing in view but the welfare of Your Honors Subjects and the prosperity of this place depending under Your Honors direction, especially of City Amsterdam standing and lying on the Island Manhattan, which the Honorable West India Company is reserving for their Colony, Your Petitioner therefore turns to your Honors, in the name and at the request of the Petitioners, beseeching Your Honors in all dutifulness to be pleased to consider what the Petitioners set forth in their Remonstrance and whatever should result therefrom; to favor their Petitioners in what they request in all humility, and according to their knowledge for the good of this place and its inhabitants, not doubting but all shall be brought into a better state. But I commend the Matter to Your Honors wise and fatherly care, Remaining, Meanwhile, Honorable Lords,

Your Honors Subject

The Presiding Burgomaster of the City aforesaid.

By order of the same,

Joannes Nevius, Secretary.

Done, Amsterdam in N.
Netherland, the 5th. November, 1659.

Remonstrance.

Friday, 12th. September, 1659. In the City Hall.

Present the . eern Oloff Stevensen van Cortland Martin Cregier.

To the Honorable Lords Burgomasters of this City of Amsterdam in N. Netherland.

Being assured that Your Honors are sufficiently acquainted with the low condition of this City, through the constant complaints of our fellow Burghers, some of whom have fled from their land and houses and come in poverty seeking to gain a living; others, who have endeavored to help them, reduced to the same condition, so that the debts they have contracted from year to year among this poor Commonalty we believe amounts to more than one hundred thousand Guilders more than they can pay; some of them having lost life and property in the year 1655, in the Indian troubles. And now, thirdly, some have left their lands and houses through dread of being destroyed:

Therefore, we are bound in conscience not to see any one of our Netherlands Nation perish through Poverty, but constantly to sustain and aid him, whether by disbursement of Money, Provisions or by new Advances of Goods, which they so doing cannot pay, now nor never: That their all comes on their Burghers who have still any Means; which hath so harassed us from year to year that it is impossible to benefit so many that each shall receive like Justice, being already burdened beyond any other Colony and Townspeople with excessive heavy day and night watch—yea, even every night—also with voluntary Services against Enemies at divers times for the public service, from which public burdens all surrounding places have been exempt. And especially the Scots or Traders who trade through and fro with the Ships, and take all the profit out of the Country, selling everything for Cash (for which the Old Inhabitants must wait) without having to bear any burdens; which the Inhabitants who are among us cannot surmount unless Your Honors induce the Heer Director General and the Heeren Supreme Councillors to grant to us who are here Burghers in Amsterdam in N. Netherland:

First, The Burgher Right in all places here in N. Netherland under the authority of the Honorable West India Company.

Secondly, That he who is Burgher here and departs out of or into the Country for a Year and Six Weeks may retain his Burgher Right, provided he at least keep a free room and fire and light here.

Thirdly, That no one coming first from Holland can go to Fort Orange or other places, with cargoes, to trade there with the Indians or Christians, unless he first shall have obtained his Burgher Right here.

Fourthly, That no man be a Burgher here except such as promise to remain in this country Three years, or otherwise that they pay for their Burgher Right one thousand guilders, which we think reasonable for those who come here with cargoes.

Fifthly, We also request that the privileges allowed us on the subject of Foreign Trade may be forthwith published.

We trust then everything will prosper, and that we shall do good Service not only to Your Honors but to our beloved Fatherland.

We remain,

	Your Honors Subjects,

Veen,

Answer of the Director General and Council.

In Council at Fort Amsterdam the 31st. of January, 1660.

First, The Director General and Council adjudge and decree that, by virtue of the Stapleright granted to this City by the Honorable Lords Directors in the General Exemptions; also by virtue of the Burgher Right granted to the Inhabitants in date 2d. February, 1657, the Burghers and Inhabitants shall have the right to trade and do business with all Christians, and throughout the entire District of New Netherland.

Secondly, The second request answers itself; as no man loses his freedom in any place so long as he keep fire and light.

Thirdly, Regarding the third: The Director General and Council decree and order hereby, conformably to the order and letters of the Honorable Lords Directors, dated 12th. March, 1654, that no newly arriving Scots or Traders shall sell or introduce any goods or merchandise within the District of N. Netherland, unless he keep an open store here and hath obtained his Burgher Right.

Fourthly, The fourth point is disallowed, as being contrary to the Order of the Honorable Lords Patroons above mentioned, and prejudicial to this Place.

Fifthly, What the Honorable Lords Directors have granted on the fifth request, respecting the Foreign Trade, to the Good Inhabitants of this Province, an extract thereof is communicated to the Burgomasters and Schepens, who can publish and affix that when opportunity offers, if they deem such proper.

Done, Fort Amsterdam in New Netherland, the 31st. January, 1660.

In Council at Fort Amsterdam the 25th. of May, 1660.

Present in meeting the Honorable Director General Petrus Stuyvesant and Mr. Nicasius de Sille.

The Director General and Council of New Netherland are certainly informed, by the Burgomasters and Schepens of this City, and also indeed find, that some newly arrived Traders, Scotch factors and Merchants do, without having applied for and obtained their Burgher Right here, undertake not only to sell and barter their goods, but also to transport and send them to Fort Orange and elsewhere, which is directly contrary to, and in violation of, the privilege of Burgher Right, and the prerogative thereof granted to the good Inhabitants of this City; the Director General and Council desiring, on the Remonstrance and petition of said Burgomasters and Schepens, to provide herein, do Ordain that no newly arrived Traders, Scotch factors or Merchants shall be at liberty to transport or to send their goods from here to Fort Orange, or elsewhere within the district of New Netherland, unless they have previously obtained Burgher Right here, and, in conformity with the Order and Instructions of the Honorable Directors, have kept an open store here for some time, at least six weeks. And all this provisionally, until otherwise Ordained by the Honorable Directors, or the Director General and Council.

Schout, Burgomaster and Schepens of the City of Amsterdam, in N. Netherland, hereby make known to all and every, that pursuant to the order dated 31st. January last, received on their presented Petition to the Right Honorable Director General and Council of N. Netherland, whoever have absented themselves from here for four consecutive months, without holding fire and light here, lose their Burgher Right. Wherefore, they must purchase the same anew on their return. Further, no person shall transport himself with his goods and merchandise to Fort Orange or elsewhere to trade, without as before, pursuant to the order of said Director General and Council, dated 25th. May, 1660, having resided and kept an open store here in this City six consecutive weeks, but may do the same, according to the above mentioned Order, on payment to this City of twenty guilders in Beavers, or the real value thereof, over and above their Burgher Right.

Done, Amsterdam in N.

Netherland, the 25th. February,

City Records.

In Council at Fort Amsterdam, 31st. January, 1661, Monday.

Present in meeting the Honorable Director General Petrus Stuyvesant, and Councillors Nicasius de Sille and Johannes de Decker.

To the Noble, Very Honorable Director General and Council of New Netherland.

Honorable Gentlemen :

Your petitioners have observed that the privileges of Stapleright and Burgher Right, granted to this City by your Honors, are seriously damaged by peddlers yearly continuing to travel about during the period of the tobacco and beaver trade, which is the most important in this country, while they make not a penny here, and attend to their business in the Fatherland in winter time, without bearing any of the burdens or troubles which fall to the lot of our good inhabitants and burghers. Great complaints have frequently been made to us, and to prevent it in the future, we, your petitioners, humbly request your Honors that the term of the Burgher Right, Great as well as Small, may be shortened to six weeks, according to the privileges or charter of Amsterdam, page 2, where it is said: "And of people living within the gates, each freeman [poorter] may go outside for his spring business during six weeks, and also in the fall for the harvest during six weeks." This may also be read in the Receuil of Roseboom, p. 193, chap. 40, art. 22. And whereas, the revenues of the City are so small, considering the taxes constantly laid on it, therefore, we, your petitioners, humbly request your Honors that the Burgher Right, Great and Small, may from now be enhanced [verhooght] according to the rules of the City of Amsterdam, the namesake of this place, or according to your Honors judgment, so that thereby, and by other means still to be decided upon, the old debts under which the City groans may for once be paid off, when we shall be able to pay more attention to all necessary repairs and improvements. Awaiting your Honors favorable decision, we remain,

Your Honors humble servants, the Schout, Burgomasters, and Schepens of the City of Amsterdam in New Netherland.

(Signed) Allard Anthony (below stood)

By their order.

(Signed) Johannes Nevius,
Secretary.

Dated Amsterdam, in New Netherland, 27th. January, 1661.

The foregoing petition having been received and read, the question was put and the following answer given :

For reasons given in the annexed petition, the Director General and Council of New Netherland decide, that all persons shall lose their Burgher Right and the privileges thereof who absent themselves from this City for the period of four consecutive months, and have not kept fire and light ; but this is not to apply to persons who have been burghers here for some years, and who do not make it a habit to go away and come back.

The second request is denied by the Director General and Council, with this concession and restriction, however : that the peddlers [Schotsen] moving about, who desire to go to Fort Orange or elsewhere within the six weeks, which under the order of the Director General and Council of 25th. May, 1660, they are obliged to remain here, shall pay once 20 fl. in beavers or the value thereof.

Sheweth

That this Citty hath had and enjoyed severall ancient Customes Priviledges and Immunityes which were confirmed and granted to them by Coll<sup>o</sup>. Richard Nicholls the late Governor of this Province by authority under His Royal Highness A<sup>o</sup> 1665 who incorporated the Inhabitants thereof New Harlem and all other Inhabitants on the Island Manhattans whereon this City standeth as one body Politique and Corporate under the Government of a Mayor Aldermen an Sheriff in which manner it hath continued in practice ever since and hath had, used and enjoyed the Customes, Liberties and Priviledges following, Viz :

1. That all the Inhabitants on the Island Manhattans was under the Government of the City of New York.

2. That the Governing of the said City was by seven Magistrates and a Schout formerly called Burgemasters and Schepens now one Mayor, six Aldermen and one Sheriffe.

3. These Magistrates had power to appoint all inferior Officers as Constables and Overseers, Under Sheriffes, Cryers, and Marshalls throughout the whole Island and also did make such peculiar Lawes and Orders as they judge convenient for the well governeing the Inhabitants of the said Corporation and held once in fourteen dayes or oftener on Speciall request or occasion a Court of Judicature att the City Hall where they did heare and determine all causes and Matters whatsoever brought before them by Jury or in Equity as the cause required. The Mayor or chief Magistrate had power to determine all matters that came before him under forty shillings without appeale or any other process then a verball heareing of partyes.

4. The Sheriffes served all writts, summons, and attachments within the Limmitts of the Corporation and officiated as Watterbayliff on the water.

5. They had their owne Clerke and kept the Records of the City distinctly.

6. This City was the Staple porte of the whole Province where all merchandize was Shipped and unladen.

7. None were to bee esteemed Freemen of the City but who were admitted by the Magistrates aforesaid and none before such adm.ission to sell by Retayle or Exercise any handicraft trade or occupacōn and every merchant or shopkeeper was to pay for the publique use of the Citty three pounds, twelve shillings. Every handy crafts man one pound foure shillings on being made free.

8. Noe Freeman of the Citty was to be arrested or to have their goods attached unless it was made to appeare that they were departeing or conveying away their Estates to defraude their Creditors.

9. Noe person was admitted to trade up Hudson River except hee was a Freeman and had been an actuall inhabitant in this Citty for the space of three yeares. And if any Freeman should bee absent out of the Citty the space of Twelve moneths and not keepe fire and candle and pay Scott and lott should loose his Freedom.

10. All that Inhabite up Hudson's River were forbid to trade over sea.

11. Noe Flower was to be bolted or packed or biskett made for Exportacōn butt in the Citty of New York being for the encouragment of trade and keepeing up the Reputacōn of New York flower which is in greater request in the West Indies and the only support and maintenncance of the Inhabitants of this Citty and if not confirmed to them will ruine and depopulate the same.

12. That the said Citty had a Common Seale to serve for the sealeing of all and singular their affaires, matters and businesses touching the said Corporation.

All which said ancient Customes, Priviledges and Libertyes wee the said Mayor and Aldermen in behalfe of themselves and the Cittizens of the said Citty doe humbly present and make knowne to your Honor Humbly beseeching yo<sup>r</sup> Honor in their behalfe to Interceed and procure that the same bee confirmed to them by Charter from his Royall Highnesse with these Addicōns following, viz<sup>t</sup>.

1. That the said Corporation bee divided into six wards.

2. That the Freeman in each ward doe once every yeare elect their own Officers that is to say Aldermen, Common Councilmen, Constable, Overseers of the poore, Assessors, Scavengers, Questmen, or other officers usefull and necessary for the said Corporation and Ward.

3. That there bee a Mayor and a Recorder who with the said six Aldermen and six Common Councillmen shall represent the whole body of the said City and Corporation and shall have power to make peculiar lawes for the good government and support thereof.

4. That a Mayor bee appointed every yeare by the Governor and Councill and to bee one of the Aldermen soe chosen as aforesaid.

5. That all Magistrates soe chosen shall not be admitted to the Execucōn of their offices untill sworne before the Governor and Councill.

6. That the Recorder bee appointed by the Governor and Councill who shall bee Judge of the City and Corporation and bee aydeing and assisteing to the Mayor and Aldermen & Common Councill in all matters that relate to the well beinge and supporte thereof.

7. That a Sheriffe bee annually appointed by the Governor and Councill.

8. That the Coroner & Town Clerk be appointed by the Governor & Councill.

9. That the Mayor Recorder, Aldermen and Common Councill doe appoint a Threasurer for collecting and payeing all publike debts and Revenues.

This and whatever else Your Honor or his Royall Highnesse shall think fitt, necessary & convenient for the good rule, order and welfare of this City and Corporation your petitioners humbly praye may bee graunted and confirmed to them in as full and ample manner and forme as His Majesty has been graciously pleased to graunt to other Corporations within his Realme of England for the Obteyneing of which they again humbly begg Your Honor to become their supplicant whose kyndenes and service therein shall bee most thankfully acknowledged.

day, February 9th., 1784, when James Duane took his seat at the Common Council as Mayor of the City.]

City of }
New York. }

At a Common Council, held in the said City, on Tuesday the 9th. Day of March, 1784.

Present :

James Duane ; Esquire, Mayor,
Richard Varick, Esquire, Recorder.

The following Laws and Ordinances, for the good rule and government of the inhabitants and residents within the said city, were ordained, made, established and published, and ordered to be printed in one of the public News Papers, viz. :

A Law relative to the admission of Freemen.
Passed March 9, 1784.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the city of New York, convened in Common Council, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That all and every person or persons hereafter to be made Free of this city (who were not born within this city, or served a regular apprenticeship of seven years with the same) shall pay for the freedom thereof as followeth, to wit: Every merchant, trader or shopkeeper, the sum of Five Pounds of lawful money of the state of New York, including the several fees hereinafter mentioned; And every handicraft tradesman, the sum of Twenty Shillings of like lawful money, for the use of the Corporation, with the following fees on being made free, that is to say, Eight Shillings to the Mayor, Six Shillings to the Recorder, Seven Shillings and Six Pence to the Clerk, and One Shilling to the Cryer and Bellringer of the Mayor's court; and that every person hereafter to be made free of this city, that was born or served an apprenticeship within the same, shall pay for being sworn a freeman and registered and a certificate, the sum of Eight Shillings to the Mayor, Seven Shillings and Six Pence to the Clerk, and One Shilling to the Cryer and Bellringer of the Mayor's court.

II. And be it further ordained by the authority aforesaid, That every person hereafter to be made free of this city shall take such oath of allegiance to the state of New York, as now is or hereafter shall be established by law, before the Mayor, Deputy Mayor, and any four or more of the Aldermen, and also the following oath, to wit:

"I —— do swear, That I, as a Freeman of the city of New York, will be obeisant and obedient to the Mayor, and other Ministers or Peace Officers of the said city; the franchises and customs thereof, I will maintain and keep the said city harmless as much as in me lieth. I will know of no unlawful gatherings, assemblies, or meetings, or of any conspiracies against the peace of the people of the state of New York, but I will warn the Mayor, or other Magistrate thereof, or hinder it to the utmost of my power. All these points and articles I will well and truly maintain and keep according to the laws and customs of the said city. So help me God."

Ordered that five respectful Addresses from this Corporation be presented with the Freedom of this City in Gold Boxes, one to his Excellency the Governor George Clinton, one to his Excellency General Washington, one to the Honourable John Jay Esq<sup>r</sup>., one to the Honourable the Marquis De La Fayette, and one to Major General Baron Steuben, and that Mr. Mayor and Mr. Recorder prepare and report the addresses, and that Alderman Gilbert,

Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Phoenix direct the making of the Gold Boxes* accordingly.

Mr. Mayor informed the Board that as the Marquis De La Fayette would depart this City in a day or two he had prepared the draft of an Address to him, as also of the Certificate of his Freedom of this City, which were read and approved by the Board in the Words following, viz. :

“ To the Right Honourable the MARQUIS DE LA FAYETTE, Marechal de Camp of the Armies of His Most Christian Majesty and Major General in the Service of the United States of America.

Sir: We the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York are Happy in the Opportunity which your presence affords us of giving you a public Testimony of our Esteem.

It is with peculiar Pleasure we welcome you to a Place the repossession of which was so long a principal object of those Wishes and Efforts in which you so zealously participated. The early and adventurous Part you took in the Revolution, and the essential Services which you have rendered in different Situations, will ever endear you to those to whom the Rights of America are Dear.

Altho', Sir, we are persuaded, that in the affections of a free People, you will find the most pleasing Tribute to your distinguished Merits, We beg leave, as a Token of our peculiar Regard, to present you with the Freedom of this City; and to assure you, that we feel ourselves deeply interested in your Happiness and Prosperity.

By order of the Common Council.

Jas. Duane, Mayor.

At a Common Council held the 15th. Day of September, 1784.

The Members having waited on the Right Honourable the Marquis de la Fayette with the Address of the Corporation, Mr. Mayor laid on the table the Marquis's answer, which was read, and is in the words following :

To the Honourable the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York.

While I am honoured with so flattering marks of your esteem, it is a peculiar gratification to me to receive them in this City, where with delight I see the triumphant restoration of the American flag.

Amidst hardship of war, which so heavily fell upon you, it has been your noble task to give the world an example of disinterestedness and fortitude. To unite with you, in common efforts and common wishes, became my fortunate lot ; and altho' from a powerful co-operation then in readiness, we had a right to expect the re-possession of New York, yet did I feel much happier in the far better method, by which the end of your exile was made a signal for restored peace.

In the precious testimonies of your partiality now afforded me, I most pleasingly enjoy the new tie that connects me with this City ; and while I ardently share with you in every concern for its prosperity, I beg leave to assure you that the warmth of my zeal can only be equalled by the feelings of my respect and gratitude.

William Hope was admitted and sworn as a Freeman of the City and ordered to be registered.

At a Common Council held the 20th. Day of September, 1784.

The Mayor informed the Board that his Excellency the Governor was returned to this city, and that according to order the Recorder and himself had prepared an Address to his Excellency, together with a Certificate of the Freedom of this City, which were read and unanimously approved by this Board, and are as follows, viz. :

To His Excellency
GEORGE CLINTON, Esquire,

Governor of the State of New York, &c., &c., &c.

The Respectful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York.

May it please your Excellency :

We the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York congratulate your Excellency on your return to this metropolis from the western frontier.

The uprightness of your conduct, your uniform zeal for the public good, and the important part, both in the field and in the Senate, which you have acted in vindicating the liberties of America, have justly elevated you to a high place in the confidence and esteem of your country.

Permit us then to embrace this opportunity of uniting our applause to those of other public bodies, who have already paid their tribute to your merit, and be pleased to accept of the Freedom of this City, now respectfully presented, as a testimony of our high sense of your services, of our affectionate regard to your person, and of our earnest wishes for your domestic happiness, and the tranquillity of your administration.

By Order of the Common Council.

Ordered, That Aldermen John Broome and William Neilson wait on his Excellency to know when and where he will be pleased to receive this Board with the said Address.

That they inform the Mr. Mayor of his Excellency's answer, and that Mr. Mayor convene the members to wait on his Excellency accordingly.

At a Common Council held the 24th. Day of September, 1784.

The Mayor, Recorder, and the other members of the Board having waited on his Excellency the Governor on Wednesday last [September 22d.] with their Address, the Answer which his Excellency had been pleased to make thereto was read in the words following, viz. :

Gentlemen :

Be pleased to accept of my warmest acknowledgements for your very polite and affectionate address.

If my attempts to serve my country have contributed to the happiness of my constituents, I could not meet a reward which I more highly esteem, than their confidence and approbation ; and permit me to assure you, that the pleasure I now experience in receiving this honourable testimony of your favourable opinion of my public conduct, and regard for my person, is greatly enhanced, when I reflect that it is to your wisdom we are so much indebted for the tranquillity and good order which prevails in this metropolis.

At a Common Council held the 2d. Day of October, 1784.

Mr. Mayor informed the Board that the Honourable John Jay Esq<sup>r</sup>. was returned to this city, and that according to order he and Mr. Recorder had prepared the Draft of an Address from this Corporation to Mr. Jay, and also the Certificate of his Freedom of this City, which were read and unanimously approved of by the Board and are as follows, viz. :

To the Honourable John Jay Esquire, late one of the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the United States of America for negotiating a Peace.

Sir:

Be pleased to accept the Congratulations of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York, on your safe Return to the place of your Nativity.*

The Revolution which hath secured our Liberties and Independence, will not be more celebrated for the illustrious Events which have marked its Progress, than for the Roll of Statesmen and Heroes, by whose Wisdom and Valour, under the Divine Favour, it hath been established on the most solid basis.

Among these worthy Patriots, you, Sir, are highly distinguished—in our own Convention—in our first Seat of Justice—as a member and as President of the United States in Congress assembled—and as a Minister Plenipotentiary, both in Spain and France—you have executed the important Trusts with Wisdom, Firmness, and Integrity, and have acquired universal applause.

While you thus possess the nations Confidence and Esteem for a series of eminent Services, We, your fellow Citizens, feel a singular Pleasure in embracing this Opportunity to present you with the Freedom of your native City, as a public Testimony of the respectful Sentiments we entertain towards you, and as a Pledge of our affection, and of our sincere Wishes for your Happiness.

By order of the Common Council.

James Duane, Mayor.

Ordered that Aldermen Lott, Gilbert, and Ivers wait on Mr. Jay to know when and where he will be pleased to receive this Board with the said Address. That they inform Mr. Mayor of his answer, and that Mr. Mayor convene the Members to wait on him accordingly.

Monday Noon, October 4th., 1784.

Mr. Mayor having convened the Members of this Corporation they proceeded to wait on Mr. Jay with their Address, to which he was pleased to make the following answer :

To the Worshipful the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City New York.

Gentlemen :

Accept my warmest Thanks for your affectionate Congratulations on my Return to my native Country ; and for the particular Mark of Approbation with which you have honoured my Endeavours to do my Duty in promoting its Welfare. I consider the Day on which I again landed on these Shores as one of the happiest with which an indulgent Providence has blessed me ; and that Satisfaction was increased by finding my Fellow Citizens in the Enjoyment of public Tranquillity and private Security, under the auspices of Magistrates who had given early Proofs of attention to both.

I cannot omit this Opportunity of offering to you, Gentlemen, my Congratulations on our having attained the Objects of a War, in the Course of which America in general, and this Part of it in particular, displayed exemplary magnanimity and Perseverance; and exhibited to the World the singular Spectacle of a patriot army of Citizens, peaceably retiring with their great and good Chief, crowned with Laurels and the Blessings of the People, to fill the various Stations of private Life.

If we cultivate the Virtues and observe the Policy requisite in Peace, with the attention paid to those which (with the Blessings of Heaven) gave Success to the War—If our Views be national—our Union preserved—our Faith kept—War, however improbable, provided for—knowledge diffused—and our federal Government rendered efficient, we cannot fail to become a great and happy People.

This being a Land of Light and Liberty, I bless God that it is the Land of my Nativity. Here my Forefathers from France after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes A.D. 1684, sought and found Freedom and Toleration. I am bound to it by the strongest Ties, and as its Happiness has been the first Object of my Endeavours from early Life, so the most fervent Wishes for its Prosperity shall be among those of my latest hours.

John Jay.

Mr. Mayor produced the Draft of an Address to Baron Steuben, as also a Certificate of his Freedom of this City, which were respectively read and agreed to by the Board, and are in the words following, viz. :

To the Honourable FREDERICK WILLIAM, BARON de STEUBEN, late Major General and Inspector General of the Armies of the United States of America.

The Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York.

In offering testimonials of the respect of this Corporation for individuals who have distinguished themselves in our happy revolution, we cannot be unmindful of the merits of the Baron de Steuben.

We recollect with pleasure, Sir, among other important services which you have rendered, that to your well directed efforts this country is essentially indebted for the introduction of that system into our military establishments, on which the reputation and success of our arms so much depended. The battle of Monmouth soon after the commencement of your labours, and every subsequent event of the late war, are memorable proofs of the utility of that system in the field, and the records of Congress bear testimony in how great a degree it contributed to promote the interests of national economy.

As a public mark of the sense we entertain of your services, and of our esteem for you personally, we present you with the Freedom of the city, within the limits of which you have chosen your residence. We shall only add, that the interest we take in your happiness dictates our warmest wishes, that you may experience from the citizens of the State at large every species of distinction and acknowledgment, which can contribute to render that residence agreeable.

Monday, the 11th. Day of October, 1784.

Mr. Mayor having convened the Members of the Corporation, they proceeded to wait on the Baron de Steuben with their Address, to which he was pleased to make the following answer, viz.:

To the Honourable the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York.

Gentlemen :

The flattering testimonials you have condescended to give me of your esteem, and the kind approbation with which you have been pleased to reward my well meant endeavours to render services to America in the late arduous contest, inspire me with a gratitude more easily felt than expressed.

It is not surprising, however flattering it may be to me, that my services, whatever they may have been, should be recollected by so important and respectable a part of the community, which has never ceased to remember those of their own officers by whom I have been so effectually assisted. To the abilities and merit of the officers, and the singular docility of the soldiers, with whom I had the honour to serve, America is in the highest degree indebted for that discipline, order and œconomy which finally distinguished her army. To none is she more obliged than to those of this State; and I am happy in having this opportunity of acknowledging how much I am indebted to them, for the success of the system it became my duty to propose.

I accept with the most lively sense the honour conferred on me by this mark of personal attention; if anything could add to its value, it would be enhanced by the manner of your bestowing it.

The proofs I have had of the esteem of the inhabitants of this city, have convinced me that I have made a happy choice in fixing on my place of rest from my military labours. It will be my highest ambition to deserve the honour of being enrolled among them, possessing the good opinion of my fellow citizens and their worthy magistrates, I can with more confidence anticipate the friendship of those of the State at large, for whose prosperity I shall ever most gratefully and sincerely pray.

I have the honour to be, with the greatest respect,
Gentlemen :

Your obedient Servant,

Steuben.

Mr. Mayor, according to order, presented the Draft of an Address from this Corporation to his Excellency General Washington, also the Draft of a Certificate of his Excellency being admitted to the Freedom of this City, which he read and laid upon the table, and the same being again respectively read were unanimously approved of and agreed to by the Board, and are in the words following, viz. :

To His Excellency George Washington, late General and Commander in Chief of the Armies of the United States of America.

The respectful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York in Common Council convened.

Sir :

When this City after its Restoration (25th. November, 1783) had the Honour of your Excellency's Presence, it was regretted that the Derangement of its Institutions suspended those public Testimonials of Respect, Gratitude, and Applause which every Heart, truly American, is solicitous to pay to your distinguished Merits and Services. The Corporation, since organized, resolved to embrace proper opportunity to manifest the exalted Sense which they entertain of both ; and are happy that your Approach to the vicinity of this State will put it in their Power to carry that Resolution into effect.

The Effusions of public Esteem are the most welcome Tribute to a patriot Mind, and as none can have greater Reason to cherish the most honourable and affectionate Sentiments towards you than the Citizens of the State of New York, so we have the fullest Confidence that there is no State in which they are more generally and emphatically felt. Flattering ourselves that you are convinced of this Truth, we are led to hope that it may not be displeasing to you to have your name enrolled among the Citizens of a Metropolis for the Recovery of which so much of your Care and Solitude have been employed.

On the present Occasion we would wish to convey to your Excellency a just Idea of the Admirations we feel for the Virtues you have displayed in the late Revolution : But Justice to the illustrious Part you have acted would oblige us to adopt that strong Language of Panegyrick which we fear would wound the Delicacy for which you are conspicuous. We shall therefore only indulge ourselves so far as to observe that it is your Glory, thro' all the vicissitudes and embarrassments of a Revolution, thro' alternate Scenes of prosperous and adverse Fortune, never to have known a Moment when you did not possess the full Confidence and Esteem of your Country; and after having, by the Divine Favour, most essentially contributed to establish the Liberty and Independence of thirteen Republicks, it is your peculiar Glory to have chearfully retired from the Head of a victorious Army to the modest station of a private Citizen.

Permit us to add our fervent Prayer that your Excellency, in just Reward of such eminent Services and Virtues, may be crowned with every Blessing which a grateful Country and indulgent Heaven can bestow.

City of }
New York. } ss.

By James Duane Esquire, Mayor, and the Recorder and Aldermen of the City of New York.

To all to whom these Presents shall come or may concern, Greeting.

Whereas His Excellency George Washington, late Commander in Chief of the Armies of the United States of America, by a series of the most illustrious Services is entitled to the Respect, Gratitude, and Applause of every Heart which is truly American; And as none can have greater Reason to cherish the most honourable and affectionate Sentiments towards him than the Citizens of the State of New York: So we have the fullest Confidence that there is no State in which they are more generally and emphatically felt. Flattering ourselves that, convinced of this Truth, His Excellency may be pleased to have his name enrolled among the Citizens of a Metropolis for the Recovery of which so much of his Care and Solitude have been employed: Now therefore know ye that we, considering that Effusions of public Esteem are the most welcome Tribute to a patriot mind, have admitted and received, and by these Presents Do admit and receive, his said Excellency to be a Freeman and Citizen of the said City.

To hold, exercise, and enjoy all the Rights, Privileges, and Immunities to the Freedom and Citizenship of the said City incident and appertaining as a permanent Proof of the admiration we feel for his exalted Virtues, for the Wisdom, Fortitude, and Magnanimity which he had so gloriously displayed thro' all the Vicissitudes and Embarrassments, thro' all the alternate Scenes of prosperous and adverse Fortune, produced in the Progress of an arduous and difficult War. And finally for that patriotic Heroism which, after having been an essential Instrument in giving by the Divine Blessing, Liberty and Independence to thirteen Republicks, hath led him to retire with Chearfulness from the Head of a victorious Army to the modest Station of a private Citizen.

In Testimony of these Truths and to perpetuate them to our remotest Posterity, we the said Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen have caused these Presents to be entered on our public Records, and our common Seal of the said City, enclosed in a golden Box, to be hereunto affixed. Witness James Duane Esq<sup>r</sup>., Mayor of the said City, this 2d. Day of December in the Year of our Lord 1784, and of the Independence of the State the ninth.

Ordered that the said Address and Certificate be engrossed, that Mr. Mayor subscribe the Address on behalf of this Corporation, and that the common Seal of this Corporation be affixed to the said Certificate; and that Mr. Mayor, who is going to Philadelphia on public business, be requested in the name of this Corporation to present the said Address and Certificate, with the golden Box, to his Excellency, who is expected at that place, otherwise that Mr. Mayor transmit the same to his Excellency by such conveyance as he may conceive most proper.

Mr. Mayor produced to the Board a Letter from his Excellency General Washington covering his answer to the Address of the Corporation of the 2d.
of December last, which answer is in the words following, viz. :

To the Honourable the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York.

Gentlemen :

I received your Address, and the freedom of the City with which you have been pleased to present me in a golden Box, with the sensibility and gratitude which such distinguished honours have a claim to. The flattering expression of both, stamps value on the acts ;
and call for stronger language than I am master of,
to convey my sense of the obligation in adequate terms.

To have the good fortune amidst the vicissitudes of a long and arduous contest "never to have known a moment when I did not possess the confidence and esteem of my Country"—And that my conduct should have met the approbation, and obtained the affectionate regard of the State of New York (where difficulties were numerous and complicated), may be ascribed more to the effect of divine wisdom, which had disposed the minds of the people, harassed on all sides, to make allowances for the embarrassments of my situation, whilst with fortitude and patience they sustained the loss of their Capitol, and a valuable part of their territory—and to the liberal sentiments, and great exertion of her virtuous Citizens, than to any merit of mine.

The reflection of these things now, after the many hours of anxious sollicitude which all of us have had, is as pleasing, as our embarrassments at the moments we encountered them, were distressing—and must console us for past sufferings and perplexities.

I pray that Heaven may bestow its choicest blessings on your City—That the devastations of War, in which you found it, may soon be without a trace. That a well regulated and beneficial Commerce may enrich your Citizens.—And that, your State (at present the Seat of the Empire) may set such examples of wisdom and liberality, as shall have a tendency to strengthen and give permanency to the Union at home—and credit and respectability to it abroad. The accomplishment whereof is a remaining wish, and the primary object of all my desires.

The following Resolutions were agreed to by the Board, viz. :

Whereas, Major Pierre C. L'Enfant having at the Request of the Citizens furnished a plan for altering and improving the City Hall, so as to render it suitable for the reception and accommodation of the Congress of the United States, generously undertook to superintend and direct the Work: and in the execution thereof hath displayed a highly distinguished Degree of Skill and Taste in Architecture, and hath moreover exerted uncommon Zeal and Industry in accomplishing the said Design, notwithstanding the unfavorable Season in which it was undertaken, and the said Hall from his Talents and Exertions hath become a signal Ornament of this City and a Monument of the Munificence of the Citizens.

Resolved, therefore, that the Thanks of this Board be presented to the said Major L'Enfant for his eminent Services in forming and executing the said Plan, and that the Freedom of this City be presented to him under the common Seal of the Corporation as a Proof of their Esteem.

Resolved, also, that this Corporation, as a further proof of their Sense of the Services of the said Major L'Enfant in the premises, will convey to him in fee a Lot of their common Land containing the quantity of Ten Acres in such place as shall be agreed upon by a Committee of this Board.

Ordered that Alderman Bayard and Messrs. T. Van Zandt and Janeway be the Committee to fix on the plans for locating the said Lot as aforesaid.*

City of }
New York, } ss.

By Richard Varick Esq<sup>r</sup>., Mayor, and the Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants of the City of New York in Common Council convened.

To all People to whom these Presents shall come or may concern, Greeting.

Know ye that we, being mindful of the distinguished Merit of the Honourable Horatio Gates Esq<sup>r</sup>., late Major General in the Armies of the United States of America, Have received and admitted, and by these Presents Do receive and admit, the said Horatio Gates to be a Free-Man of the said City of New York, within the limits of which he hath lately chosen his Residence, to hold, exercise, and enjoy all the Privileges, advantages, and Immunities to the Freedom of the said City incident and appertaining: As a public Mark of the Sense we entertain of his Services, of our Esteem for him personally and of the Interest we take in his Happiness.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the public Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed. Witness Richard Varick Esq<sup>r</sup>., Mayor of the said City, the 25th. day of February in the Year of our Lord 1791, and of the Independence of the United States the fifteenth.

Ordered, that the Seal of this Corporation be affixed thereto, and that Mr. Mayor be pleased to subscribe and present the same in such manner as he shall judge most respectful, and proper.

Extract from An Act relative to the election of Charter Officers, and relative to Weigh-masters in the City of New York. Passed by the Legislature of New York, April 7th., 1801.

And be it further enacted, That no person shall vote as a Freeholder at any of the said elections, unless he shall be possessed of a freehold estate, in lands or tenements in his own right, or that of his wife, to the value of fifty dollars over and above all the debts charged thereon, within the ward where he shall vote, and shall have possessed the same (except it came to him by descent or devise) at least one month before the day of such election.

And further, That no person shall vote as a Freeman of the said City, at any of the said elections, unless he shall have been admitted to the freedom of the said city at least three months, and have actually resided in the ward for which he shall so vote at least for one month, before the day of such election.

And further, That every person offering to vote as a Freeholder at any such election shall, before he be admitted to vote, take the following oath, if required so to do by the inspector of such election, that is to say; "I do solemnly and sincerely swear and declare that I am a Freeholder, and that I hold my estate by descent or devise (if such shall be the case, or if he shall not so hold, then), and that I have been so for one month next preceding this election, and possessed in my own right (or in my wife's right) (as the case may be) of a freehold of the value of fifty dollars in the ward in which I now offer to vote; that I do not hold the same in trust for any body politic or corporate, or for any pious or religious use whatsoever; that I have not before been polled at this election by virtue of the said freehold, and that I have not procured the said freehold under any obligation or promise to convey the same to any other person after this election." And in like manner every person offering to vote as a Freeman of the said City, at any such election, shall, if required so to do by the said inspector, take the following oath before he shall be admitted to vote at such election, that is to say : " I do solemnly and sincerely swear and declare in the presence of Almighty God, that I am, and have been for three months last past, a Freeman of the city of New York, and have actually resided in the ward in which I now offer to vote, for one month last past, and that I have not been before polled at this election ; and if any person offering to vote as a Freeholder or Freeman, as aforesaid, shall refuse to take the oath above prescribed to be by him taken, when thereunto required by the inspector as aforesaid, his vote shall be rejected."

A Law to regulate the admission of Freemen in the City of New York.

Be it ordained by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York in Common Council convened, That each person hereafter to be admitted and made a Freeman of the said city (other than such as were born or have served a regular apprenticeship of seven years within the same) shall pay as follows, to wit : A merchant, trader or shopkeeper, the sum of twelve dollars and fifty cents, and a mechanic the sum of two dollars and fifty cents, for the use of the corporation of the said city ; and that every person on being admitted and made free, as aforesaid, shall pay the following fees, to wit : One dollar to the clerk, and twenty-five cents to the crier of the Mayor's court.

And further, That each person hereafter to be admitted and made a Freeman of the said city shall take, before the Mayor and any four of the Aldermen, the following oath or affirmation, to wit :

I do swear, or affirm (as the case may be), That I, as a Freeman of the city of New York, will maintain the lawful franchises and customs thereof ; that I will keep the said city from harm as much as in me lieth, and that I will in all things do my duty as a good and faithful Freeman of the said city ought to do.

CITY CHARTER. We are happy to learn that the necessity of an application to the Legislature for a revision of the City Charter has been taken into consideration by the Common Council. The Charter of this City has for a long time been a source of complaint to our fellow citizens, and occasionally attracted the attention of our State Legislature. Many of the regulations and provisions it contains for the government of the City, by lapse of time, and a total change of circumstances, become useless ; others improper, and some oppressive. It has been an opinion propagated with some zeal, and more generally received than a just consideration of the subject will warrant, that legislative interference would be improper unless formally solicited by members of the corporation. This is a position which, if admitted, is calculated to involve us in endless inconveniences, and tending in its consequences to perpetuate the mischiefs under which we labour. It is, moreover, so repugnant to the nature of all our civil institutions, that, upon an impartial investigation, we trust it will be abandoned by its advocates. A doctrine tending to raise a corporate body of this nature above legislative power, and make it paramount, in effect, to the constitution under which we live, appears to us pregnant with calamity and danger. Hitherto the gentlemen who have successively composed the Common Council do not appear to have been impressed with the necessity of amendment, and have withheld their consent to an alteration of such parts of the Charter as have been found oppressive by experience, because they contend that its most objectionable provisions have not been enforced for many years. What reasons have produced this determination we are at a loss to ascertain. That it originated in interested motives, or in views inimical to the true interests of the city, we never can admit without reluctance; but a perseverance in this opposition to the wishes of a large majority of the citizens, cannot fail, in the end, to produce these unpleasant impressions. It appears to us a singular instance of attachment to the unwholesome regulations of former times. The design that the Charter should be revised has not its origin in the wild spirit of innovation, but arises from evils and inconvenience daily felt; from a conviction that, in its present form, it is incompetent to ensure to the inhabitants of this city a useful and efficient government. By a perusal of the Charter it will be perceived that, before the revolution, it experienced revisions in order to adapt it to the circumstance and the spirit of the times; and what, it may be asked, has since placed it beyond the control of the sovereign power of the State? The Legislature, it is to be hoped, will view the subject in a proper light, and we are inclined to believe that a respectful petition from our fellow citizens will meet with suitable attention, particularly if sanctioned by the approbation of the present members of the Common Council. In viewing this subject, we are far from believing that the Charter should be hastily prostrated; but we do believe that it is susceptible of salutary amendments. It is not for us to dictate, but we would suggest the propriety of the early adoption of some measures by our citizens for the accomplishment of so desirable an object, either by a general meeting of the citizens, or by meetings in the respective wards, to appoint a general committee to pursue such measures as may be thought advisable, and best calculated to produce the desired effect.

To the Editor of the Morning Chronicle.

Sir : With great pleasure I observed in the Chronicle of yesterday a paragraph suggesting the propriety of adopting measures to obtain a revision and alteration of the Charter of this City ; it is a subject which requires the attention and exertion of the citizens, and it is to be hoped will be pursued with that zeal and spirit which its importance demands ; at the same time paying a due respect to the constituted authorities, and the opinions of each of our fellow citizens, if any such there are, who may think a revision of the Charter unnecessary or inexpedient.

When, and as often as, the people experience inconvenience from the operation of laws, or any public instrument whereby their rights and privileges are affected, or the safety of the community endangered, they have an incontestable right to appeal to the Legislature for redress.

The public mind, for a long time past, has been much agitated upon the subject of the Charter. Several applications have been made to the Legislature for redress ; but the difference of political sentiments which prevailed in the Senate and House of Assembly has hitherto rendered abortive every effort to make the Charter (which was obtained while America was under the dominion of the King of Great Britain) more congenial to the principles of republicanism, and consistent with the laws and constitution of our country.

The several grievances of which the people complain are :

First. By the Charter—"On the feast of St. Michael the archangel in every year, the Freemen of the City, being inhabitants thereof, and the Freeholders of the several wards, shall and may assemble themselves and meet together at such time of the day, and at such public place in each of the said wards, as the respective Aldermen, for each respective ward, for the time being shall appoint ; and then and there, by plurality of voices or votes, to elect and choose out of the inhabitants of each respective ward, being Freeholders there, or Freemen of the said City (except for the out ward), one Alderman, etc.," for the ensuing year.

By a construction given to this clause of the Charter, none but Freemen and Freeholders have a right to interfere in the election of Charter Officers; and if one man owns a freehold of the value of fifty dollars* in every ward, his right to vote is extended to all the wards. This is unequal, for that one man, merely by the effect of chance (as it happens in many instances), has privileges far beyond what more meritorious characters enjoy; unjust, because it extends that influence which arises from wealth, over the suffrage of the poor but honest man, and which the constitution and laws of the State wisely intended to prevent. In this clause of the Charter, then, there is a great grievance, as far as relates to the right of Freeholders voting in every ward.

Secondly. As far as it relates to Freemen—By the Charter, the Mayor and four or more of the Aldermen, have the power of making free citizens, and the Charter expressly interdicts all persons except free citizens, from using any art, trade, mystery or occupation, within the City. Thus a power is vested in the Mayor and the Corporation (if capriciously disposed), to prevent all persons, let their characters and standing in society be ever so exalted, from obtaining the freedom of the City, and without which any person may be prohibited from pursuing any calling, however necessary for himself or useful to the public. In this, therefore, there is a manifest grievance, and more particularly so, when it is considered that the Charter Officers are to be chosen by the Freeholders, and Freemen of the City, of which the former are the greater number ; and those who are not Freemen or Freeholders, but men of more wealth, and who contribute to the support of the City, by having their personal estates taxed, are utterly excluded from any share in the elections.

Thirdly. By the Charter, the City is divided into seven wards, and those so to remain. At the time it was granted, in the year 1730, as appears from the bounds of the respective wards, it is evident the probable increase of population, in what now forms the sixth and seventh wards, never was truly estimated by the framers of the Charter. Since that period, from a variety of fortunate circumstances, the increase of population in those wards has nearly if not quite overbalanced that of the other five wards. This population is daily increasing in the sixth and seventh wards in the same proportion, and although either of these wards contains more than double the number of inhabitants of the largest of the other wards, still they are by the Charter entitled to no greater share in the Councils of the City than the smallest ward in it. In this, therefore, there is a manifest grievance, and more especially when we reflect that no provision is made by the Charter for a redress of it. Also that the present system is repugnant, not only to the constitution and laws of the United States, but the constitution and laws of this State, which apportion the representatives to the number of inhabitants.

The above are a few of the many causes of complaint which involve the rights and interest of the citizens of New York respecting its Charter, and those are not stated in that strong language which their effects would warrant. There are other just causes of discontent. At present I shall forbear to enumerate them, but leave the citizens to think on those I have mentioned, trusting that the meeting suggested will shortly be called, when the business will be fully discussed, and a respectful memorial to the Legislature be agreed upon, which I hope will meet the sanction of the present members of the corporation. The patriotism and good sense which now prevails in our Common Council, induce me to hope that our application to the corporation will be crowned with success; but should I be mistaken, let the application be made to the Legislature with the firmness and respect becoming Freemen, tenacious of their rights, and who wish to be relieved from real evil.

City of New York.

Thursday Evening, December 30th., 1802.

In pursuance of public notice, a large number of citizens met this evening at Adams' Hotel, William Street, to take into consideration what measures should be adopted in order to obtain an extension of the rights of suffrage in the election of Charter Officers of this City.

Several causes concurring to render an adjournment of the meeting proper, it was resolved "that a committee of three be appointed to call a general meeting of the citizens to deliberate on the above subject, at such time and place as shall to them seem fit and convenient, and that sufficient notice thereof be given in the public prints."

A Committee of three citizens was accordingly appointed.

By order of the meeting,
Philip I. Arcularius, Chairman.

Morning Chronicle, January 1st., 1803.

A writer in the Morning Chronicle, who signs himself "One of the People," evinces that the Charter of this city should be revised. The propositions are absurd and preposterous as they are base and deceitful.

After (Jefferson-like) a little fawning and cringing; after modestly appealing to the "opinion of each of his fellow citizens, if any such there are who may think a revision of the Charter unnecessary or inexpedient," he mentions three as "the several grievances of which the people complain;" and shortly after, as being a "few of the many causes of complaint which involve the rights and interest of the Citizens of New York, respecting its Charter, etc." Let us examine them as they respectively present themselves.

First, That by a Construction given to a clause of the Charter, none but Freemen and Freeholders have a right to interfere in the election of Charter Officers; and that if one man owns a freehold to the value of fifty dollars in every ward, his right to vote is extended to all the wards.

Why, truly, I can perceive no grievance in this, as the writer so loudly complains of. On the contrary, I conceive it to be just and proper. If a citizen is possessed of a freehold in each ward, he has a right to take care that no person is elected in those wards that might affect his interest. He is more interested than another who is his inferior in that particular. The more property he possesses, the more he is attached to the Government—the more he has to protect, and consequently has a greater right to interfere in those elections. Let this pass however.

Second, That none but Freemen or Freeholders have a right to vote.

Here the cloven foot appears—if this alteration which the writer so ardently sighs for, was effected, we should have an addition to our present stock of Irish Freemen,* an insult to our citizens and an injury to our Country, the whole host of Africans that now deluge our City (already too impertinent to be borne), would be placed upon an equal with the citizens. This savours too much of French Liberty and Equality! Far be it from me to imagine that the Blacks are an inferior race of beings—yet let them be kept at a proper distance, and themselves and us will experience the benefits of it.

Third, That by the Charter the City is divided into seven wards, and those so to remain.

The subtlety of this writer can hardly be concealed. 'Tis evidently a democratic manœuvre to render "the Charter more congenial to the principles of republicanism," i. e., to elect a Common Council composed of a majority of their own Sect. He wishes the Sixth and Seventh Wards to be divided, so as to constitute four.

Suppose the writer's wishes to be gratified, and these wards to be divided; it would result thus: Federal 3, Democratic 6—Democratic majority 3.

And then farewell to the rights and franchises of our Citizens—An eternal adieu to order and happiness.

A Citizen.

Messrs. Lang & Co.

I have lately seen a proposition to petition the Legislature of this State for a revision (as it is called) of the Charter of this city.

It is much to be lamented, that those demagogues who at present possess the reins of government, should be permitted thus gradually to subvert every remnant of liberty in this country, and our citizens remain silent spectators of the truly alarming and affecting scene. The proposition is another example of the destructive tendency of democratic principles, and is an additional proof of the paltry schemes to which the vicious and unprincipled will resort to support their tottering credit or sustain the falling ruins of lawless ambition. We have beheld the overthrow of our judiciary, and the subversion of our Constitution, and must yet witness the sacrifice of an additional victim. Covered, as usual, under the pleasing garb of patriotism and zeal for the country—a garb that inevitably draws forth the honest support of the virtuous; a combination has been formed to assassinate the Charter of the City, for the purpose of promoting the cause of ruin, anarchy and confusion.

A certain person, under the signature of “One of the People,” has appeared in the Morning Chronicle to advocate and recommend the contemplated measure. I have no doubt that those who have, or shall peruse the communication, will join me in declaring, that he is an insignificant and perfidious impostor—one who should be held up to the indignation and scorn of his countrymen, and branded with the merited appellation of “An enemy to the nation and a subvertor of its liberties.” Whether enjoying the smiles of fortune or experiencing the frowns of penury—courted by the wealthy and affluent, or neglected and despised, let him blush for, and bewail his wickedness and folly; and if, unhappily, his labours should prove successful, may remorse and all her concomitant train, haunt him and all those concerned in the plot, until unfeigned contrition and penitence shall have effaced their guilt. At present, it is that writer’s duty to justify himself to all, and if he thinks proper he may consider this as a defiance.

I am sorry to perceive that the Editor of the Chronicle could have permitted the production to have polluted his paper or have wanted sufficient penetration to discern its object—and if this is the manner he proposes to conduct in future, ’twere better he would desist and retire to that profession which affords more honour to himself and benefit to the public.

I shall conclude by advising this vous populi; that when he again intrudes himself before us, he adopt a more beneficial subject and to betray less ignorance or base hypocrisy.

Caius.

At a general meeting of the citizens of New York, convened agreeable to public notice, the 7th. instant, at Adams's assembly room, to take into consideration the necessity and propriety of appealing to the legislature to obtain an alteration in the Charter of the city; the following resolutions were unanimously entered into:

Resolved, As the sense of this meeting, that every citizen who is of lawful age, has a fixed residence in our city, and pays taxes, ought to be duly represented in the government of the same.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of the citizens here assembled, that the charter of the said city ought to be altered so as to extend the right of suffrage for charter officers, to all citizens having a right to vote for the most numerous branch of the state legislature, that the said election for charter officers should be by ballot, and be holden at the time and places, as the elections for members of the legislature, and that no person be permitted to vote out of the ward in which he resides.

Resolved, That a committee of five persons for the first six wards, and a committee of eight for the seventh ward, be appointed with full power from this meeting, to take every measure which they may deem expedient and proper to carry the foregoing resolutions into effect; and that the committee be composed of the following persons, viz. :

Fifth Ward. Abraham Bloodgood, Samuel Russel, Philip I. Arcularius, Benjamin Egbert, Ephraim Brasher.

Sixth Ward. Arthur Smith, Henry Verveelen, John T. Banta, William Dustan, Joseph Board.

Seventh Ward. Henry Rutgers, Marinus Willett, William Johnson, George I. Warner, Abraham Leggett, William Mollenaar, Jacob P. Myers, Jacobus Dyckman.

Published by order of the meeting.

William Keteltas, Secretary.

N. B. The respective committees from each ward, are requested to meet at Abraham B. Martling's, on Thursday evening, at 6 o'clock, to carry the foregoing resolutions into effect.

Morning Chronicle, January 11th., 1803.

A correspondent expresses his hope, that if the Legislature take up the Charter of incorporation of this City, they will make a thorough reformation, by extending the elective franchise to every man, woman and child. It is feared by some, that though the matter will be discussed, to please the sixth and seventh wards, yet that it will be so contrived as in the end to fail, and thus monarchy and slavery be entailed upon this great and populous city.

At a meeting of the Common Council held the 17th. Day of January, 1803.

John Broome, William Edgar, Henry Rutgers, Gardner Jones, Solomon Townsend, and Abraham Bloodgood, composing a Committee appointed at a meeting of the Citizens, for the purpose of petitioning the Legislature for amendment on the Charter of the City, appeared before the Board, and presented the following communication :

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Citizens of New York convened agreeably to public notice the 7th. instant, to take into consideration the propriety of applying to the Legislature for the purpose of obtaining an Alteration in the Charter of this City so as to extend the right of Suffrage, sundry resolutions relative thereto were proposed and adopted; a copy of which, with the proceedings of the meeting, we have the honor to inclose. Last evening the Committees from the several wards met, pursuant to appointment, and after discussing the subject it was agreed that a Committee of one member from each ward in the City, out of their number be appointed to apply to your honorable Body to solicit your Co-operation with them for the purpose of procuring the extension of the right of Suffrage. A measure which we have good reason to believe had long been the wish of many of our Fellow Citizens.

It having fallen to our Lot, to be appointed on that Committee, We do accordingly request your Honourable Body will please to inform us, whether it will be agreeable to unite with your Fellow Citizens in an application to the Legislature at their next Session for the accomplishment of that object, and if so, how far it will be agreeable to you, to have the right extended.

We have it in charge to report your Answer to the General Committee when obtained, shall therefore be obliged by receiving it as soon as your Honourable Body can make it convenient.

We are with great respect,
Gentlemen,

Your most obedient and very humble Servants,

John Bromme,
William Edgar,
Henry Rutgers,
G. Jones,
Solomon Townsend,
Abraham Bloodgood,
Henry Verveelen.

New York, 14th. January, 1803.

To the Honourable Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty, etc.

Ordered that the consideration thereof be postponed until the next meeting of the Board.

At a meeting of the Common Council held the 27th. Day of January, 1803.

The Board proceeded to consider the communication of John Broome Esquire, and others relative to petitioning the Legislature of this State at their present Session for certain amendments to the Charter of this City.

Alderman Joshua Barker submitted the following Resolution, to wit :

Resolved, That this Board concur in opinion with John Broome Esquire, and others in their memorial presented to the Board on the 17th. instant, in the extension of the right of Suffrage in the Election of Charter Officers in this City, and that the said Election ought to be by ballot, and that this Board will make the necessary application to the Legislature the present Session to obtain the same as far as they on mature deliberation shall deem it expedient.

Mr. Caleb S. Riggs offered the following Resolution as a substitute for that submitted by Alderman Barker, to wit :

The Common Council of the City of New York, having taken into Consideration a communication made to this Board the 17th. Day of January, 1803, by John Broome and others as a Committee appointed by some of the inhabitants of this City respecting an application to the Legislature to alter the Charter thereof, and also sundry resolutions passed at a public meeting in relation to the said application to the Legislature and the alterations contemplated to be made in the Charter, and having maturely reflected upon the same, and the Common Council having further attentively considered the question at large whether it is necessary or expedient at present to have the Charter of this City altered by the Legislature, the Board do not perceive that any reason has been, or can with propriety be offered for any alteration now taking place, founded on, or supported by considerations of public utility, or from an apprehension that the essential interests of the City will suffer from the lawful exercise of the present chartered rights, franchises of the Citizens.

It is perhaps inexpedient for the Common Council at this time to express any opinion as to the motives of those who appear solicitous to obtain alterations in the Charter, or to animadvert upon the means which have been used and are now pursuing to accomplish their views; suffice it to say, that experience sufficiently evinces not only inutility but real danger to be apprehended from frequent and important changes in Constitutions, laws and charters, and the evils will be incalculable whenever such changes are the offspring of political party differences, or dictated by the ambition of individuals.

Therefore resolved, That this Board deem it inexpedient at present to take any steps or to concur in any measures for the purpose of procuring any alterations in the Charter of this City.

Resolved, That the Mayor, or Recorder furnish a copy of the preceding to the Committee who made an application to the Common Council on the 17th. Day of January, 1803, respecting an application to the Legislature for altering the Charter of the City.

A division being taken upon the foregoing Resolutions, the same were passed, as follows:

For the affirmative, Aldermen Brasher, Van Zandt, Oothout, Bogert, Ritter, Messrs. Morris, Stevens, Bogardus, LeRoy, Riggs.

For the negative, Aldermen Minthorne, Barker, Messrs. Crolius, Brevoort.

The following petition to the Honourable the Legislature was also read and carried by the same division.

To the Honourable the Legislature of the State of New York in Senate and Assembly convened.

The Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York, in Common Council convened, most respectfully represent.

That the Common Council have, through the medium of the newspapers printed in the city of New York and otherwise, been informed, and have reason to believe that certain persons in the city of New York have had meetings in order to concert measures to prevail on the Legislature at their present session, to interpose by law and alter the Charter of this city, thereby essentially to vary the rights and privileges of the Freeholders of the said city as the same now are and of right ought to be enjoyed, used and exercised.

The Common Council cannot but flatter themselves with a hope that the Legislature will not only discern the danger but impropriety of taking away the chartered rights and privileges of the city of New York without the concurrence of the Common Council, who represent the body corporate, and are charged with the preservation of its rights and privileges.

The Common Council deem it unnecessary to go into a detail of the measures which there is reason to believe are and for some time past have been pursued to prevail on the Legislature to interfere in this business even without the sanction or concurrence of this Board; much less do the Common Council think it expedient to express any opinion as to the motives which may actuate individuals in their attempt to effect this purpose.

Whatever may be their intentions, or the measures pursued by them, the Common Council cannot persuade themselves, that a view of the past will induce a belief that any such alterations in the Charter, as they have reason to believe are now sought after by the promoters of these meetings, will be attended with beneficial consequences. Perfection in human institutions is not to be expected. And no law or charter is likely to be deemed faultless by every one who may be effected thereby. Frequent and important changes ought not to be considered as the least of the evils which may be experienced by the community.

It is more than half a century since the Charter of the City of New York was granted; and under the provisions therein contained, the city has not only increased in size and population, but, under the fostering care of the Magistrates, improvements both useful and ornamental have been made from time to time, and are still progressing. The revenues of the Corporation have been increased, and the rising commerce of the city, so interesting to the State at large, and which equals or perhaps surpasses that of any city in America, may be ascribed in some degree to the salutary regulations contained in, and authorized by the present Charter.

The Common Council beg leave further to state that as often as they shall discover important defects in the Charter they shall deem it their duty to communicate the same to the Legislature and ask their aid in providing a remedy for the same. But the Common Council are of opinion that at present Legislative interference with the Charter is at least unnecessary, and therefore hope that in the opinion of the Legislature it will be deemed altogether improper.

Alderman Barker gave notice that at the next meeting of the Board he intended to move for a reconsideration of the said petition.

At a Common Council held the 31st. Day of January, 1803.

Alderman Barker having submitted to the Board a motion that the petition agreed at the last meeting to be presented to the Legislature against altering the Charter, be reconsidered, and having called a division upon the said motion it was lost in the manner following:

For the affirmative, The Recorder, Aldermen Barker, Minthorne, Messrs. Brevoort, Crolius.

For the negative, Aldermen Bogert, Oothout, Brasher, Van Zandt, Messrs. LeRoy, Stevens, Morris, Riggs, Bogardus.

Resolved, That the Memorial to the Legislature on the subject of an application for alterations in the Charter of this City, pass the Common Seal, and that one copy thereof under the Common Seal be transmitted to the President of the Senate, and another to the Speaker of the House of Assembly, and at least one other copy to the members of the Assembly from this City.

A correspondent has read with great pleasure the memorial from the Corporation of this city to the Legislature, against the necessity and propriety of altering the Charter. It may have the intended effect; but if it should not, the Corporation have done their duty, and they will be seconded by every reflecting man, in making a stand against those wretched democratic and disorganizing principles which have brought us into disgrace and confusion, and to the very brink of ruin.

At a Common Council held the 14th. Day of February, 1803.

Alderman Barker having laid before the Board the reasons of the minority of the same for dissenting from the resolutions and petition adopted in relation to altering this Charter of the City as it respects the qualifications of the election of Charter Officers, upon the question being taken whether the Clerk shall enter the same on the Minutes, the same was lost as follows, to wit.

For the affirmative, Aldermen Minthorne, Barker, Messrs. Brevoort, Crolius.

Protest of the Minority in the Corporation.

We, the undersigned Members of the Common Council of the City of New York, in common council convened agreeable to notice heretofore given and on mature deliberation, believing that in all representative and legislative bodies the minority have, as well for themselves as for their constituents, an indubitable right, on all occasions which they may deem of sufficient importance, to express the reasons by which they have been governed on any particular decision that may take place, in proper and decent language, and to demand that the same be entered of record on the minutes of the same.

Therefore, in consequence of our just and indubitable right, and for the reasons hereinafter assigned, we have dissented from, and do most solemnly protest against the decision of a majority of the said common council, on the 27th. of January, in the year of our Lord 1803, relative to a certain memorial presented to the said common council, on the seventeenth of the same month, by John Broome Esq<sup>r</sup>., and others, as a sub-committee of the citizens of the city of New York, and properly delegated for that purpose, requesting the aid of the Common Council in an application to the legislature for an extension of the elective franchise in the election of charter officers for the said city of New York.

And also, against a certain memorial presented to the said Common Council by a member of the same, which was also adopted, and ordered to be transmitted to the President of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Assembly, and at least one copy for the use of the members of the Legislature from this city; in order, as the undersigned have good reason to believe, if possible, to counteract one of the most salutary and beneficial measures that could, in all probability, have been devised for the tranquillity and welfare of the city, and also in a considerable degree to check that right, the most sacred of all others; that is, the right of petitioning; and that the governed may thereby lay their grievances fully before that authority which possesses full power to redress the same—and demand that this our protest, with the reasons particularly set forth, and hereunto annexed, be entered of record on the minutes of this day.

First, Because, in the opinion of the undersigned, the charter of the said city is susceptible of many useful, valuable and necessary amendments; and that the same ought to be so amended and improved as to be congenial with, and not repugnant to, a republican constitution and government; that is, taxation and representation ought to be inseparable, and that no body corporate ought to be possessed of any constructive power which, in the hands of contending parties, might tend to confuse and distract the councils of the same, and thereby put the police of so populous a city in jeopardy.

Second, Because, in the opinion of the undersigned, no power ought to be lodged in any body corporate, by which a majority of part of its constituent members could either proscribe or extend the lawful franchise of the same, and thereby exclude and prevent the election of any men, or set of men, and elect such only as the mayor and any four aldermen, for the time being, shall think the most proper for any sinister or other purposes, whereby the usefulness of the institution might be converted into any engine of tyranny and oppression, and the powers and privileges of the citizens thereby arrested from them. The undersigned are therefore firmly of opinion, and fully persuaded, that bad as the said charter is, if the same was fully and strenuously now to be carried into effect, that most incalculable evils would thereby result, whereby penalties of considerable magnitude to many respectable individuals, and deprivation of gaining an honest livelihood to others, as well as a general inconvenience, would be the result. Therefore they most heartily concur in an opinion, which they have good reason to believe is in concurrence with the opinion of a large majority of the citizens of the city of New York, who contribute and are chargeable with the necessary burdens and expences of the same; that when the evils of any public institution, by carrying the powers of the same into full and compleat extension, are fully to be discovered, that the same ought to receive the correcting hand of legislative aid, and be thereby made subservient to the general good of all interested therein.

Because, in the opinion of the undersigned, the length of time since, and the government from and under whom the said charter was first granted, are sufficient to induce us to believe, and the course of events which have actually taken place since that period, have fully proved that the rights of the subject were not at that time so fully understood or sought after as in the present and more enlightened age; but it is most evidently to be discovered, that some of the most prominent features of the said charter are calculated as more congenial with a monarchial and kingly government, than with the more modern and plain republican institutions of the present day; whereby the rights and privileges of the citizens are more fully delineated and better understood.

Because, in the opinion of the undersigned, the said memorial has given full and unequivocal testimony of the unaccommodating disposition of the present majority of the common council, which appeared on very different ground prior to the organization of the present board, in which the minority thought they had good reason to expect a continuation of the same accommodating spirit, and would, on a matter of so much importance, have endeavored, by conciliatory disposition and conduct, to have met each other on some reasonable arrangement, which would have been conceded to, and was actually proposed, by the minority for the same conciliating purpose.

Because, in the opinion of the undersigned, the actual experience of the year past has fully taught us to scan the lengths contending parties can go to effect their favorite schemes with the most plausible constructions, and both be conscious of being perfectly in the right, and also be backed by the most respectable source of legal information; wherefore the undersigned, under all the circumstances which have so loudly called for redress, and the mode in which the same has and is endeavored now to be effected, meets their entire approbation, and the gentlemen who have undertaken the arduous task are entitled to their highest esteem, and doubt not of its happy and salutary effects, like every other just and equitable claim, when sought for and obtained in that proper and constitutional mode. All which is submitted by, gentlemen, your most obedient, etc., in the minority.

To the Honourable the Legislature of the State of New York in Senate and Assembly convened.

The Memorial of the subscribers, being members of a general committee appointed by the citizens of the city of New York, at a general meeting of the citizens, on the seventh day of January last, as appears from the proceedings of said meeting, a copy whereof is hereunto annexed.

Respectfully Sheweth—

That by the charter of the city of New York, the aldermen and assistants who are members of the common council of the said city, shall be elected by the freemen of the said city, being inhabitants thereof, and the freeholders of each respective ward.

That the said aldermen and assistants, together with the mayor and recorder of the said city, compose the common council thereof, and possess the power of making bye laws and ordinances for the regulation and government of the same.

That by the operation and construction of the elective franchise of the citizens under the said charter, a great proportion of the citizens who are effected by the laws and ordinances of the said common council, and who contribute to the support of the said city, have not any share in the representation in the councils of the same.

That inasmuch as on the one hand the freeholders of the said city by voting in every ward, if they have freeholds in the same, have elective rights far beyond what is consistent with the principles of a government founded upon the basis of equal liberty, so on the other the number of freemen is so very inconsiderable, that the great body of the people cannot under the charter be represented in the corporation of the same. It is too obvious to be denied, that the refusal of the freedom of the city to its regular inhabitants, is a source of great grievance, and invests the common council with full power, if so disposed, to convert the valuable objects of the charter into engines for promoting political views.

Living happily under the constitutions of a free government, and anxious for the preservation of republican' principles, your petitioners with concern lament that many of the said citizens are deprived of their most inestimable rights. The right of representation is the stronghold of every social privilege; it cannot be violated without endangering the principles of our government and the existence of our liberties.

Your petitioners do further state to your honourable body, that, in their opinion, the citizen, in exercising his privileges, ought to be wholly independent of the control of the magistrate. By the charter of making freemen is submitted entirely to the mayor and four aldermen. Thus a difference of opinion may be the means of withholding from the meritorious citizens an important right.

Your petitioners beg leave further to state to your honourable body, that the elections for charter officers in this city have hitherto been conducted not by ballot, but viva voce. The restraint which this mode of electing must produce upon the elector in exercising his privilege, is too obvious for us to use argument or shew the necessity of adopting the mode of election by ballot. Suffice it for us to say, the happy effects which this later mode has produced since the revolution, are sufficient inducements for preferring the same.

Your petitioners do further respectfully represent to your honourable body, that although by the constitution and laws of this state and the United States, the qualifications of electors for members of the house of assembly of this state, and the house of representatives of the United States, is extended to every citizen who rents a tenement of the yearly value of five dollars, and who has contributed, by a regular assessment to the exigencies of the public. And although your memorialists have reason to believe that it is the wish of many of their fellow citizens that the elective franchise of the citizens of New York may be extended thus far, (still) your petitioners with confidence submit to the wisdom of the legislature for such an extension of the elective franchise as the local situation of this city may be found to require.

Inasmuch as the economizing of time devoted to public business is as laudable as of that spent in private concerns, your memorialists further submit to the consideration of your honourable body, whether it would not be attended with beneficial consequences to the citizens of New York that the election for charter officers should be held at the time when and place where the annual elections for senators and members of assembly are held in the said city.

Your petitioners further beg leave to represent that they are persuaded it is the wish of a very great proportion of their fellow-citizens that the elective franchise of the citizens may be extended; and as a proof thereof, they humbly refer your honourable body to memorials presented to the legislature of this state at their last session, upon the same subject; which memorials were signed by several thousands of their fellow-citizens, and are now on the files of your honourable house.

Your memorialists further beg leave to state, that by the encrease of population in this city, several of the wards, in respect to the number of inhabitants, have become overgrown, and that others remain nearly stationary; and that the smallest ward in the city has a representation in the common council equal to the most populous ward. This your memorialists humbly conceive is repugnant to the system of election and representation, as contemplated by the constitution of this state. And they humbly submit to the consideration of the legislature, whether the wards of the said city should not be so equalized or increased in numbers, as that the inhabitants of each ward may be as nearly equal as the plan of the city will admit, and the representation from each ward thereby be created by the same equal means.

Your memorialists further beg leave humbly to represent, that relying on the reasonableness of the wishes of their fellow-citizens, and the constitutionality of the mode pursued for the redress sought, they had a hope that the corporation of the city of New York would have co-operated with them in an application to the legislature on a subject which involves the dearest rights of freemen. They have been induced to address that board on the subject, but, contrary to your memorialists' most sanguine wishes, they have been disappointed; as will appear from a copy of the proceedings of the general committee, which is hereunto annexed, and to which your memorialists beg leave to refer.

Nevertheless, your petitioners humbly pray that your honourable body would take the importance of the subject under consideration, and grant such relief in the premises as in your wisdom you may deem meet. And as in duty bound, we will ever pray.

The bill lately passed concerning the amendment of the city charter, extends the elective franchise to all persons possessing a freehold worth fifty dollars, or a lease of seven years, of land or tenement, which lease is worth fifty dollars, or paying a yearly rent of twenty-five dollars, having been resident in the city one year, and paid taxes, such persons are entitled to vote for charter officers. It is provided, also, in the said act, that the elections shall be by ballot, held for the space of two days; and that none shall vote out of the ward of which he is an inhabitant. A slight review of this amendment must convince us of its propriety and justice.

It is certainly no more than right, that every person who is bound by the decrees of any power, should have the privilege of choosing those who are to exercise this authority; and as the acts of the corporation bind householders as well as freeholders, it is certainly proper that the former should have an equal right with the latter of choosing that body. Hitherto, however, this privilege has been almost exclusively in the hands of the wealthy; and those also persons who possess freeholds; a class which compose but a small part of the inhabitants of this city; for as to those who have received the liberty of the city, this power of the corporation has been so sparingly exercised, that a few aged individuals compose the whole of their number.

If we consider for a moment the charter itself, it must be evident, that it was designed that persons of the description now included, were to have equally with freeholders the privilege of electing charter officers. It was intended that industrious, reputable citizens, following a lawful occupation, paying taxes, and renting a tenement, should receive the freedom of the city. The power of granting this was vested in the corporation, because, as this body would be composed of characters chosen by their fellow-citizens for their integrity and usefulness, so they would be the most proper persons to judge what individuals were qualified for receiving this privilege. And it certainly must have been intended, that where no reasonable objections could be made to claimants, that it was their duty to grant their petition. If I am invested with the power of benefiting certain individuals, if they qualify themselves for receiving such benefits, it follows clearly, that when thus qualified, it is unjust that I should refuse; by doing so, I abuse the power which is placed in me.

The provisions made for voting by ballot, instead of viva voce, is a further improvement. Experience has shown that the latter mode was by no means free from restraint, and that individuals often, owing to peculiar situations in which they were placed, could not act with independence, and freely use that right, which is one of the most valuable in the possession of the people.

The restriction also included in the amendment of the charter, requiring every person to vote only in the ward of which he is an inhabitant, is also reasonable and just. By this means the privilege will be equal ; for it is certainly strange, that an individual who has property scattered throughout the different wards, should be enabled by means of this to vote in each. According to this arrangement, the balance of power is completely thrown into the hands of the wealthy, who may monopolize a number of votes, as if property thus situated was so circumstanced as to justify so great an extension of this privilege. If an alderman and his assistant, elected in a particular ward, had a right to do certain acts affecting the property in that ward, perhaps there might be some consistency in this doctrine. But when we know that every decree and regulation, as well for one ward as another, is determined by the corporate body, in common council convened, it is strange why and for what reason, founded in equity or justice, any individual should have ever possessed several votes, according to the situation of his property. This arrangement also often militated against this favourite maxim, which appears to have been the principle in this system, "that right should be in proportion to wealth." For many inhabitants, who are possessed of considerable property, have it compacted in one ward, thus affording them but one vote ; while others, though possessed of little, have it so scattered as to afford them several in the election of charter officers. To remedy these defects, with many others which call for redress, is contemplated by the amendments of the city charter ; and which, doubtless, as they are founded in justice, will be productive of the most salutary consequences.

February 21st. The committee reported the bill to increase the Wards in the city of New York. It was passed and ordered to be engrossed.

March 1st. The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole House, on the bill, entitled "An Act for the better regulation of the election of Charter Officers in the city of New York, and designating the qualifications of electors, and after some time spent thereon, Mr. Speaker resumed the chair, and Mr. Wisner from the said committee, reported, that in proceeding on the said bill, and after the same had been read in the committee, the first enacting clause thereof was again read, and in the words following:

Be it enacted by the People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That every free male person of the age of twenty-one years, being a citizen of this State, and who shall have resided in said city six months next preceding such election, and paid taxes within the same, and shall have rented a tenement of the yearly value of        dollars for the term of one year within the same, or shall be a leaseholder of any land or tenement, of the value of        dollars, and who has been        years in possession of the same, shall be entitled to vote for charter officers in the said city of New York.

That debates were had thereon, and the question having been put, whether the committee did agree to the said clause, it was carried in the affirmative [yeas 70, nays 19].

Mr. Wisner further reported progress, and asked for and obtained leave to sit again.

Ordered, That the committee of the whole House be discharged from the further consideration of the said bill, and that it be referred to a select committee, consisting of Mr. Few, Mr. Tompkins and Mr. Gilbert, to report the same complete.

A message from the Senate was received informing the House that the "Act to increase the number of Wards in the city of New York, and equalize the same," had been passed without amendment.

March 11th. Mr. Few, from the select committee to whom was committed the bill, "An Act to extend the qualifications of electors for Charter Officers in the city of New York, and for other purposes," reported, that the committee had gone through the bill, filled up the blanks, and agreed to the same, without amendment, which he was directed to report to the House; and he read the report in his place, and delivered the same in at the table, where it was again read, and agreed to by the House. Ordered, That the bill be engrossed.

March 12th. The engrossed bill was read the third time.

Ordered, That the said bill be recommitted to a committee of the whole House.

March 15th. The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole House, on the bill, entitled "An Act to extend the qualifications of electors for Charter officers in the city of New York, and for other purposes;" and after some time spent thereon Mr. Speaker resumed the chair, and Mr. Wisner, from the said committee, reported, that in proceeding on the said bill, and after the same had been read in the committee, a motion was made, that the third blank in the first clause of the said bill should be filled up with the word "fifty."

That debates were had on the said motion, and the question having been put, whether the committee did agree to the same, it passed in the negative [nays 49, yeas 33].

That a motion was made, that the said blank should be filled up with the word "forty," and the question having been put, whether the committee did agree to the same, it passed in the negative [nays 47, yeas 33].

That a motion was made, that the said blank should be filled up with the word "twenty-five," and the question having been put, whether the committee did agree to the same, it was carried in the affirmative [yeas 53, nays 26].

That a motion was then made, that the said bill should be rejected; and the question having been put, whether the committee did agree to the same, it passed in the negative [nays 67, yeas 13].

Mr. Wisner further reported, that the committee had gone through the bill, made amendments therein, filled up the blanks, and agreed to the same, which he was directed to report to the House; and he read the report in his place; and delivered the same in at the table, where it was again read, and agreed to by the House. Ordered, That the bill be engrossed.

March 16th. The engrossed bill was read the third time.

Resolved, That the bill do pass.

In Senate.

Republican Meeting. At a meeting of several Republican Citizens from the respective Wards of this city, held at Martling's on Tuesday Evening, the 5th. of January, 1804, it was considered expedient to call a General Meeting of their Republican fellow citizens for the purpose of taking into consideration measures to promote their political and social interest. A meeting is therefore requested for the above purpose at the Union (late Adams') Hotel, No. 68 William Street, on Tuesday Evening next, at 6 o'clock.

William Boyd, Chairman,
Samuel Cowdry, Secretary.

Morning Chronicle, Monday, January 9th., 1804.

In pursurance of a notice to the Republicans in general, to meet last evening at the Union Hotel, to "take into consideration measures to promote their political and social interests," there was, we understand, a pretty numerous collection, both of Clintonians and Burrites. We are unable to state all the particulars; but such as we have received we communicate, and believe they are correct as far as they go.

From the curious manner of mentioning the object of the meeting in the papers, it is not to be wondered at, that great numbers came without understanding precisely what was intended. Some therefore cried one thing, and some another; for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. At length Mr. Osgood was chosen a chairman, and Mr. Wortman clerk. The meeting now took some little shape and a motion was made by a leading Clintonian to adopt a certain memorial to the Legislature, of which the great object was to alter the Charter, so as to extend the elective franchise to all conditions of people. This was the original Clintonian proposition and was adopted; but others were then for going a step further in the great work of reformation and making the office of Mayor elective annually by the citizens at large, and that of Clerk of the Common Council to depend on appointment by the Corporation. This we understand was introduced by the Burrrites as an amendment to the original motion, and after some eloquent speeches for it by Mr. Matthew L. Davis and other leading Burrrites, and against it by Mr. Tunis Wortman and other leading Clintonians, was finally found to be so purely democratic, and smacks so much of liberty and equality, that the majority deserted their leaders and, to their extreme chagrin, voted for its adoption.

We find that in certain particulars, our information respecting the proceedings of the Republican Meeting on Tuesday evening was incorrect. It seems that instead of Mr. Wortman, Mr. Miller was the secretary, and that the Burrrite amendment for the office of Mayor elective, was not carried; neither was it negatived; but a small committee of sixty-three was appointed to take into consideration the project of altering the Charter, and report at another meeting. But we shall attempt to give a more satisfactory view of the whole ground.

The following were in substance the Clintonian resolutions:

1st, That every person qualified to vote for the most popular branch of the Legislature should be entitled to vote for Charter officers.

2d, That the election should be by ballot.

3d, That the election for Charter officers should be held at the same time and place with the election for members of the Legislature.

4th, That no elector should vote out of the ward in which he resided.

5th, That there should be two inspectors of the election appointed, who should be sworn, whose return should be final and conclusive.

6th, That after receiving the returns of the inspectors, the Common Council should not, under any pretext whatever, interfere to set aside the election.

It was not thought advisable to make objections to either of the first five resolutions, and they were therefore permitted to pass in silence, but the last was objected to as being unnecessary, and was at length struck out. Then the Burrrites proposed as an amendment to add to these following resolutions, which caused a very animated debate and gave rise to much good speaking, at least on one side.

1st, That the office of the Mayor of the city of New York should be elective annually, in the same manner as that of Aldermen, and that he should have a fixed salary in lieu of all perquisites.

2d, That the office of Clerk of the Common Council and Clerk of the city and county of New York, should be separate and distinct offices, and that the Common Council should have the power of appointing their own Clerk.

3d, That the licensing of Carmen, Grocers, etc., should be appointed by the Common Council, and not by the Mayor alone.

On this Wortman rose and said, really he had not made up his mind whether it was best that the office of Mayor should be elective or not, and he thought it most advisable, on the whole, to take time to deliberate.—He therefore moved that all this business should be referred to a committee to consist of sixty-three citizens, and who should be nominated and appointed by Mr. Osgood, the chairman, and that their opinion should be conclusive. This was at first objected to on account of the mode of appointment, but the objection was withdrawn. However, the last part of it, equally indicative of cunning and of impudence, was successfully opposed, and instead of it the committee are to make a report to a meeting of the citizens at large. In the debate that followed, Mr. Swartwout spoke at great length. Having said that the sixth resolution was the production of an enthusiast, Mr. Wortman jumped up with "I, Mr. Chairman, I, sir, am that enthusiast; I am the author of it; I am the enthusiast, and hope I ever shall be in the sacred cause of liberty."—"I am sorry to hear it," Mr. S. went on, "an enthusiast, Sir, is but another name for madman;" and he followed up the blow so closely that Wortman retreated from the field without any attempt to support himself. In answer to what fell from Mr. Van Wyck, that the making of the office of the Mayor elective was repugnant to our State constitution, and that, in short, he considered the propositions of the Burrrites as only introduced to embarrass and defeat them, Mr. Swartwout said, "he pitied the temerity of this young gentleman on account of his extreme youth," and called on him to know where he was in the year '98; a call which Mr. Van Wyck did not seem disposed to comply with, for he rose no more. As to the objection of Mr. S. Miller to making the office of Mayor elective, which was that elections were already so frequent that it took people away from their business and caused them great inconvenience, in proof of which he had mentioned the various bank elections, sugar-refiner elections, &c., he, Mr. S., said, surely this young man had forgot the principles on which republicanism, as understood by himself and his friends, was bottomed, the frequency and freedom of elections; and if Mr. M. thought that they were now to abandon all they had ever advocated, because it might be averse to the pleasure of a single individual in power, he trusted he would find himself woefully mistaken.

Col. Willett said, he had always been accustomed to consider the Charter of this city in too sacred a light to be meddled with by the Legislature, but the Legislature it seems had thought otherwise; and since they had begun with it, he confessed he was for going further, and amending it thoroughly; on this principle alone he was in favour of making the office of Mayor elective.

The last Clintonian speaker, Mr. Judah, as soon as Dr. Smith had finished his oration, with a full measure of the ore rotundo rose, and with a view to show his wit and his shrewdness at the same time, moved that no man should be permitted to speak longer than five minutes; to which the Doctor smartly rejoined, that he moved as an amendment to the motion, that no man in that meeting should be permitted to have more than a thimbleful of brains. Down sunk poor Judah into his seat, and "word spake never more."

We are informed by some of those present, that it was the most diverting scene imaginable. The speakers on the Burr side were, Mr. J. Swartwout, Col. Willett, Mr. M. L. Davis, Mr. S. Smith, and Dr. Smith; opposed to these were, Mr. Van Wyck, Mr. Wortman, Mr. S. Miller and Mr. Naptali Judah—a very unequal contest, as every one must see, on the part of the latter. Taking the more popular side of the question too, it is no wonder that defeat pervaded the ranks of the Clintonians, and victory sat perched on the banners of the Little Band.

Further particulars are omitted for want of time and room and inclination.

At a late meeting of those calling themselves Republicans, William Boyd was turned out, and Samuel Osgood chosen Chairman. The Evening Post is incorrect in saying that Mr. Wortman was the new Secretary, and that he was one of the speakers. Mr. Wortman had prepared the business, and left it to be advocated by his tools or underlings. The great subject of consideration, and which drew forth some eloquent speeches, was to alter the character [Charter] of this city, so as to extend the right of voting to all conditions of people. An amendment was introduced by the Burrrites; but there has not been time to obtain the most exact information.

A meeting of the republican citizens, was held on Tuesday evening, agreeable to public notice, for the purpose of considering the propriety of making certain alterations in the city charter.

At this meeting, a set of resolutions drafted by Mr. Tunis Wortman, clerk of the county and corporation, were handed to the chair.

Certain of those resolutions, the purport of which was the extension of the elective franchise, having been adopted without opposition, a gentleman rose and observed to the meeting, that the alterations now contemplated, did not go to a sufficient length, for the removal of those evils which the republican citizens had long felt, and of which they had frequently complained: that now was the period to strike at the root of those evils, and remove at once, other grievances, no less important than those for which they were providing remedies. He then went into a consideration of the office of Mayor of the City, showing the variety of trusts, privileges and perquisites attached to that office, explaining the manner in which he had it in his power to tyrannize over the whole body of Carmen in particular, as well as other very numerous classes of Citizens, and deducing from these observations, the propriety that a magistrate invested with such extensive powers, and to whom such important trusts were confided, should be responsible to the people, over whom he was to preside: that he should be elected by the inhabitants of this city, in the same manner as the rest of the corporation, instead of being appointed to his office by the council of appointment of the state. He further advocated the propriety of fixing his salary at a limited sum proportioned to his services, instead of his being paid by perquisites which opened a door for oppressive exactions, and the amount of which could not be ascertained. He also stated his opinion, that the clerkships of the county and corporation, both of which are at present united in one person, should be separated, and that the clerk of the corporation should be appointed by that body, not by the council of appointment of the state as at present.

He was followed and supported by several other republican citizens, who have been designated by the appellation of the little band. They were strenuously opposed, by Mr. Tunis Wortman and several other of the followers of Mr. DeWitt Clinton; but these latter, finding the sense of the meeting decidedly against them, grew rather less obstreperous in their opposition, and resolutions to the effect just mentioned were referred to a committee; which committee, the Clintonians moved, should be appointed by the chair (Mr. Samuel Osgood, the father-in-law of DeWitt Clinton, being the chairman). This was opposed by the little band, who contended that the committee should be nominated and appointed by the meeting. They, however, were induced to withdraw the motion, from an inclination to see how far certain of the Clintonians were prepared to go with their cut and dry proceedings, being also conscious, that the people would have an opportunity of deciding on the report of this committee; accordingly on their opposition being withdrawn, another paper was handed to Mr. Osgood, containing 63 names; the committee consisting of 7 from each ward. Mr. Osgood thereupon read over these names to the meeting, as their committee. DeWitt Clinton's men had then the effrontery to move that the decision of this committee, whose names they had thus written beforehand, should be definite. The republicans rejected their proposition with suitable contempt, and they were given to understand, that the citizens would decide on the report of this committee at a subsequent meeting, which they were to convene as soon as they were ready.

It has long been a circumstance ardently desired by the republicans, that the elective franchise with respect to charter officers should be extended, and also, that the mayor of the city should hold an elective office. The latter is a point for which our most active and upright republicans have long and anxiously struggled; it is one supported by every principle of real republicanism, and it doubtless will only be opposed by the devoted friends of DeWitt Clinton.

As the members of the Legislature from this city soon depart to occupy their seats at Albany, there is no surprise at a meeting of the Republicans (as they call themselves) having been advertised by William Boyd and Samuel Cowdry; the one officiating as chairman, and the other as secretary. The members of Legislature have to receive their instructions, and matters to be so planned as that there may be a perfect concert between the hither and nether end of the State.

There will be another meeting of the democrats in which Samuel Osgood, and not William Boyd, will be Chairman, before the members of Legislature, from this city, depart for Albany. Positive instructions will be given them, as to the grand question debated, and some ones of a secret nature, which they are to obey under pain of the displeasure of the great Mogul.

From the opposition made to the resolutions proposed by the Burrrites, at the late meeting of the Republicans, it is easy to see the designs of the Clintonians. By the popular measure of extending the right of voting, they hoped to carry the next election; but when a resolution was offered to make the Mayor elective (the most essential thing of all) they were confounded, and made violent opposition. This touched the dagon of the party. On this they had no instructions, and they dare not appear without them. It may be expected now that the leaders of the Clintonians will order private meetings, and take their measures without consulting the Burrrites.

Republican Notice. At a meeting of the Committee from the different Wards held at Martling's Tavern, William Boyd in the chair. On motion, resolved that a general meeting of our Republican Fellow-Citizens be requested on Tuesday evening the 31st. instant at the Union Hotel (late Adams'), No. 68 William Street, precisely at 8 o'clock, to hear the report of the said Committee.

Democratic Mob. The democrats, we understand, had another meeting last evening, on the old business of amending, or rather destroying, the Charter of the City. The meeting, we are told, exhibited the discord, the tumult, the zeal and the fury of a Parisian mob. To an uninterested observer, the scene, if not perfactly disgusting, must have been highly diverting. Such noise and confusion—such shouting and hissing, and clapping and clamoring—such quarrelling and breaking of windows, have rarely been witnessed. If the leaders are not already ashamed of their proceedings, they must surely, in a cooler moment, blush at the recollection of such disgraceful conduct.

At a former meeting, if we rightly understand the proceedings, a committee of sixty-three members was appointed to consider the expediency of petitioning the General Assembly, and (if the measure accorded with the views of the committee) to draft a memorial. This memorial was to be reported to a general meeting of Democratic Citizens. When the grand Committee met, it appeared that some of the members were for incorporating into the memorial, the propositions of the Burrites. This suited not the designs of the leaders. In their wisdom therefore, but without the consent or knowledge of the people, they formed, out of their number, a select committee of nine—"all chosen men," who are thoroughly initiated into the mysteries of the party. The select committee drafted a memorial, from which everything savouring of Burrism was excluded; and instead of reporting it to the general meeting, for the approbation of their fellow-citizens, such was their love for the people! they sent it forward to the seat of government. Last evening they reported that a memorial of some description or other had been drafted and sent to Albany; and moved that this report be adopted. What was meant by the motion to adopt this extraordinary Report, is not precisely understood. Thus, however, these humble servants of the sovereign people manage their own affairs, in their own way. And thus the deluded multitude are hoodwinked and wheedled into the adoption of a memorial which they have never seen, and of which they are totally ignorant. Surely they who appointed the committee had a right to see and examine the memorial; and had they the dignity and the spirit of freemen, instead of sanctioning the spurious instrument, they would have spurned the unwarrantable proceeding.

About six o'clock the company began to assemble, and at seven the business began. To attempt a delineation of the various motions or speeches that were made on the occasion would be impossible, for the continual hue and cry, raised when any of the Little Band attempted to speak, precluded the possibility of hearing the arguments of all the gentlemen on that side of the question. Whenever any favorite object of the Clintonians was brought upon the carpet, the ablest among their party were permitted to discuss the subject, peaceably and undisturbed; but no sooner did a Burrite presume to answer him, than "the question—the question," was reiterated from one end of the room to the other.

It was requested by Mr. David A. Dunham, in case of a division, that no Federalist would vote on either the one side or the other. He was followed by Citizen Warner, who insinuated that he had seen Federal gentlemen, then in the room, actively employed in opposition to the direct sense of the meeting. "We did not request the company of Federalists, Tories, &c.," said the same citizen, "we want none but Republicans." This gained him great applause. All this time Cheetham stuck in one corner of the room, as snug as a flea in a blanket, and ever and anon he "grinned horribly a ghastly smile."

While all this was going on in the upper end of the room, those at the lower end, who, by the by, could not repeat much of what their masters said, were bawling for the question, or an adjournment. About this time, Mr. M. L. Davis, a young man of some talents, and considerable vanity, mounted the rostrum, and was beginning a speech, previous to the questions being taken, when the hisses of the multitude brought him to a level with his fellow-citizens; and it was insisted that no person be permitted to say anything more on the subject. A second time he rose, and he was again cried down. Now who would have thought that a foreigner would have attempted to palm his opinions upon the public, after the voice of an American had been rejected. Yet so it was—no sooner had Mr. Davis sat down, than behold!

“A Cheetham rises in the Senate brave!”

With confidence he mounted the senatorial car; but his stay was of short continuance; for no sooner did those lips of his prepare to utter the dictates of his heart, than he was hurled by the surrounding rabble from his lofty summit. And Wortman, too; yes, he was there.

After voting a petition to the Legislature, to regulate the factor of the State Prison, in his disposal of shoes by wholesale, instead of retail, an adjournment took place.

Never did I witness a more motley crew; and the universal disorder and irregularity which prevailed were sufficient to create disgust in the respectable men of their own party.

The conclusion was indeed laughable. After an adjournment had been carried, the Republicans were called upon to deposit with the committee one shilling each to defray the expenses of the room. No sooner was this request made, than the great body pushed for the door; and from 6 to 700 persons, I am informed, that about forty shillings were collected.

Republican Meeting. On Wednesday evening, agreeably to notice in the papers, an extremely large meeting of republican citizens was held at the Union Hotel. William W. Gilbert, Chairman, Samuel Courd-ney, Secretary. This meeting was an adjourned one from that held on Tuesday, the 10th. ult.

To the utter astonishment of every rational man, the committee, whose names had on that former evening been previously prepared, and were read off from a piece of paper by the chairman, reported that they had taken the liberty of deciding finally on the subject—that they had transmitted a memorial to the legislature entirely omitting those resolutions respecting the office of Mayor; and that now the business was done, the citizens were at liberty to decide.

Considerable debate took place, in which the subject of the following resolutions was discussed.

1. "Resolved, That the office of Mayor of this city ought to be elective, and that he ought to have a fixed salary in lieu of all perquisites."

2. "Resolved, That the appointments of cartmen, retailers of liquor, &c., ought to be made by the council of appointment; and not as at present, discretionary with the Mayor: and that each applicant should pay for license the sum of       cents."

3. "Resolved, That the office of city and county clerk should be held by different persons, and that the common council should have the appointment of their own clerk."

In the course of the ensuing debate, those who opposed these resolutions were heard by their adversaries with silence and attention; but when any person rose to advocate the principles contained in these resolutions, there was a constant noise and tumultuous opposition made by their opponents. Attempts had been employed to pack the room with a number of noisy and riotous characters; men destitute even of citizenship, who were brought in squads to excite disturbance. To these were added all the petty officeholders of the city, who had been taught that they must support the dignity and influence of the mayor, their patron, at all hazards; these men, without regard to decency, made every effort, by hooting and stamping, to prevent any arguments being offered by the citizens friendly to the resolutions; as also to frighten timid minded men from expressing the same opinions.

A question at last came up which tried the strength of the two parties—that is, the republicans or little band, as they have been termed, but who are now a numerous and powerful host, on the one side, and the partizans of DeWitt Clinton, or banditti, as they are termed, with their associates, on the other. The question was predicated on the amendments proposed for the charter, and was as follows:

“Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, the office of mayor of the city of New York ought to be elective.”

On this question the junto, headed by Mr. Cheetam, Mr. Wortman and Mr. Edward Ferris, the flour inspector, supported by the whole tribe of petty office-holders, and the crowd of riotous people whom they had introduced, were in the negative. Yet, notwithstanding the measures they had taken to pack the room with their creatures, and to frighten people from voting by their noise, a majority was decidedly in favor of making the Mayor elective, when the question was taken by Ayes and Noes. The chairman, however, chose to take it again by holding up of hands. This last question was neither heard nor understood by half of the meeting, and on this division the question was lost.

At all events, admitting that it was fairly lost, on this last mode of taking the question, it follows that the partizans of Mr. DeWitt Clinton have been brought from behind the mask, and made at last to show their real views, and wishes. They have pronounced a public and unqualified opinion “That the office of Mayor of this city ought not to be elective.” They have thus abandoned the true republican principle for which we have ever fought. And for what? To aggrandize an ambitious individual. To deprive the people of their dearest rights, as Aaron did the Israelites of their most precious jewels of old, for the purpose of decorating a golden calf, which they expect the citizens of New York to fall down and worship.

Charter of the City. It is said that the bill altering the qualifications of electors for charter officers has passed the Senate with an amendment, making the renting of a tenement of the yearly value of twenty-five dollars, instead of five fixed by the lower House, the qualification, in point of property, of a voter. This alteration renders it necessary to return the bill to the Assembly, by whom it must be agreed to before it is sent to the Council of Revision. There can be little doubt of its finally becoming a law, and our Charter being thus at an end.

Charter Bill. The bill altering the mode of election prescribed by the Charter of this City, has become a law of this State notwithstanding the objections made by the Council of Revision. It was carried in both houses by more than the requisite numbers, 71 voting in favor of it in the Assembly and 16 against it; and in the Senate 21 in favor of it and 5 against it. The whole strength of the prevailing party appears to have been brought to bear on this question in obsequious obedience to the commands of His High Mightiness who presides over our City. The pretended republicans of the day bow with submission to the arbitrary dictates of this pride-swollen chieftain; in this consists the essence of that independence of sentiment of which they make such an everlasting prattling. Blessed republicanism, where the orders of one man are to be implicitly obeyed, without ever stopping to enquire whether they are right or wrong! It is enough for these subtle patriots, that D[eWitt] C[linton] has proclaimed his sovereign will and pleasure, and all opinion of their own vanishes; all exercise of intellectual powers is at an end. Accordingly we find men voting for this bill, who a year ago reprobated it as the greatest evil that party violence could produce. What is the inference? Why, that his Honor the Mayor wants a more pliant council, and one who will bend to his nod, and become the instruments of his vengeance. Hence it is that the Charter is destroyed, and one of the most "salutary principles of our Government" prostrated.

We are informed that Chief Justice Lewis and Judge Spencer were the only two members of the Council who voted for the bill; from Governor Clinton it met with his decided disapprobation. He yet retains too sacred a regard for chartered rights to offer them up a wanton sacrifice to his party; not even the powerful consideration of aiding the views of his hopeful nephew, could prevail on him to assent to a measure pregnant with mischiefs to this city, which every day's experience will unfold.

Proceedings of the Legislature on the revision of the Charter, 1804.

In Assembly.

February 6th. The Memorial of the general committee, in behalf of the citizens of the city of New York, praying for the extension of the elective franchise, in relation to the choice of Charter officers, and for other improvements in the Charter of the said city, was read and referred to a select committee, consisting of the members attending this house from the city and county of New York. [Henry Rutgers, Solomon

Townsend, George Clinton, Jr., James Warner, William Few, Peter H. Wendover, Peter A. Schenck, Samuel Bradhurst and Peter Curtenius.]

February 8th. Mr. Few, from the committee to whom was referred the memorial of the general committee of the republican citizens of New York, praying for the amendment of the charter of the said city, reported as follows:—

That they had taken the said memorial into mature consideration, and are unanimously of opinion, that the grievances therein complained of call for legislative redress; and have therefore directed their chairman to ask for leave to bring in a bill for that purpose. Ordered, That leave be given accordingly.

Mr. Few, pursuant to leave, brought in the said bill, entitled “An Act relative to the election of Charter officers in the city of New York,” which was read the first time, and ordered a second reading.

February 9th. The bill was read a second time and committed to a committee of the whole.

February 13th. The remonstrance of the Corporation of the city of New York, against the contemplated amendments to the Charter of the said city, was read, and referred to the committee of the whole, when on the bill.*

February 21st. Ordered, That the bill, entitled “An Act relative to the election of Charter officers in the city of New York,” be made the order of the day for Tuesday next.

February 28th. The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the bill relative to the election of Charter officers in the city of New York, and after some time spent thereon, Mr. Speaker resumed the chair, and Mr. Looker, from the said committee, reported progress and asked for and obtained leave to sit again.

February 29th. The House again resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the bill, and after some time spent thereon, Mr. Speaker resumed the chair, and Mr. Looker, from the said committee, reported, that in further proceedings on the said bill a motion was made, that the same should be rejected.

That debates were had on the said motion, and the question having been put thereon, it passed in the negative [nays 71, yeas 10].

Mr. Looker further reported progress and asked for and obtained leave to sit again. Ordered, That the said bill be made the order of the day for to-morrow.

March 1st. The house again resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the bill for the election of Charter officers, and after some time spent thereon, Mr. Speaker resumed the chair, and Mr. Looker, from the said committee, reported that in further proceedings on the said bill, Mr. Wisner made a motion, that the committee should agree to a clause in the words following, to wit :

And be it further enacted, That the Mayor of the said city shall receive, as a compensation for his services, in lieu of his fees and perquisites he now receives, the sum of        to be paid quarterly by the Chamberlain of the said city ; and that the Clerk of the city and county of New York shall receive, as a compensation for his services, in lieu of the fees and perquisites he now receives, the sum of        to be paid quarterly by the Chamberlain of the said city ; and that the said Mayor and Clerk of the said city shall continue to receive all such fees and perquisites as they have heretofore been accustomed to receive, and shall keep an account thereof, and shall exhibit such account quarterly to the Common Council of the said city ; who, having examined and filed the same in the office of the Chamberlain of the said city, the said Mayor and Clerk shall respectively pay the amount thereof to the said Chamberlain, all which monies shall be applied to the public use of the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the said city of New York.

Then Mr. Wendover moved the previous question on the said clause, viz.—Shall the main question be now put?

That debates were had thereon, and the question having been put on the said motion, it was carried in the affirmative. [Yeas 64, nays 13.]

The question having been put, whether the committee would agree to the said clause, it passed in the negative. [Nays 60, yeas 18.]

That a motion was made to fill up the blank in the fifth section of the said bill, with the words twenty-five. That the question having been put thereon, it passed in the negative. [Nays 58, yeas 22.]

That a motion was made, that the said blank should be filled up with the word twenty. That the question having been put thereon, it passed in the negative. [Nays 56, yeas 22.]

That a motion was made, that the said blank should be filled up with the word five. That the question having been put thereon, it was carried in the affirmative. [Yeas 60, nays 13.]

Mr. Looker further reported progress, and asked for and obtained leave to sit again.

March 2d. The House again resolved itself into a committee of the whole, on the bill, entitled "An Act relative to the election of Charter officers in the city of New York," and after some time spent thereon, Mr. Speaker resumed the chair, and Mr. Looker, from the said committee, reported, that the committee had gone through the bill, made amendments, added clauses, filled up the blanks, and agreed to the same; which he was directed to report to the house: And he read the report in his place, and delivered the same in at the table, where it was again read and agreed to by the House. Ordered, That the bill be engrossed.

March 5th. The engrossed bill was read the third time. Resolved, That the bill do pass. Ordered, That Mr. Hunter and Mr. Kennedy, deliver the bill to the honorable the Senate, and request their concurrence.

March 29th. A message from the honorable the Senate, delivered by Mr. Van Bergen and Mr. Van Schoonhoven was read, informing this House, that the Senate have passed the bill, with amendments therewith delivered.

The bill and amendments having been read, and the amendments having been again read, were severally concurred in by the House, and the bill amended accordingly.

Ordered, That Mr. Rutgers and Mr. Sanford, deliver the bill and amendments to the honorable the Senate, and inform them that this House have concurred in their amendments to the said bill, and have amended the same accordingly.

March 30th. The honorable the Senate returned by Mr. Van Schoonhoven and Mr. Van Vechten, the bill entitled "An Act relative to the election of Charter officers in the city of New York." Ordered, That Mr. Schermerhorn and Mr. Schuyler, deliver the bill to the honorable the Council of Revision.

April 4th. A message from the honorable the Council of Revision, delivered by his honor Mr. Justice Kent, was read, and is in the words following, to wit :

The Council object to the bill, entitled "An Act relative to the election of Charter officers in the city of New York," because the bill contains important alterations in the Charter of the said city, and it not appearing in the bill by recital, or otherwise, that the same were made upon the application, or with the consent of the parties interested, it is to be intended that they are made without such application or consent: And although it be granted, that such an interference would be justified by some strong public necessity, it is not to be presumed by the Council, that any such necessity exists in the present case, as none are recited in the bill, or appear from the provisions in it; and it has been considered as a settled and salutary principle in our government, that in all cases where the ordinary process of law affords a competent remedy, Charters of incorporation, containing grants of personal and municipal privileges, were not to be essentially effected without the consent of the parties concerned.

Geo. Clinton.

April 5th. The House proceeded to the consideration of the objections of the honorable the Council of Revision to the bill, as entered on the journals of this House of yesterday.

The said objections having been again read, and considered, and the said bill having been read and re-considered, Mr. Speaker put the question, whether the said bill, notwithstanding the objections of the honorable the Council of Revision to the same, shall be a law of this State, and it was carried in the affirmative. [Yeas 71, nays 16.]

Thereupon-Resolved, That the said bill, notwithstanding the objections of the honorable the Council of Revision to the same, be a law of this State.

Ordered, That Mr. B. Thompson and Mr. J. Thompson deliver the said bill, objections, and a copy of the preceding resolution, to the honorable the Senate.

In the Senate.

March 5th. A message from the honorable the Assembly, delivered by Mr. Hunter and Mr. Kennedy, was received, with the following bill for concurrence, viz., the bill entitled "An Act relative to the election of Charter officers, in the city of New York," which was read the first time, and ordered a second reading.

March 6th. The bill was read a second time and committed to a committee of the whole.

March 27th. Mr. Taylor, from the committee of the whole on the bill, reported progress, and obtained leave to sit again.

March 28th. Mr. Taylor, from the committee of the whole, reported, that in proceeding in the said bill, and after the same had been read in the committee, Mr. Van Vechten made a motion that the same should be rejected, and the question having been put thereon, it passed in the negative. [Nays 20, yeas 6.]

That in proceeding further in the bill, a clause thereof was again read in the words following, viz. :

“And be it further enacted, That all persons who are qualified by the Charter of the said city, to vote for Charter officers, and every male citizen of this State, or of any of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the said city for the space of six months preceding said election, and shall during that time have rented a tenement of the yearly value of       dollars, and have paid any taxes within the said city, and is not disqualified by law, shall vote at such election for Charter officers, and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of a Freeman of the said city.”

Then Mr. L’Hommedieu made a motion, that the committee should agree to a substitute to the said clause, in the words following, viz. :

Whereas, By the Charter of the said city it is ordained, That no person whatever not being a free citizen of the said city, shall at any time use any art, trade, mystery, or occupation within the said city, liberties and precincts thereof, or shall by himself or others, sell or expose to sale any manner of goods, wares, merchandises, or commodities in any house, shop, place, or standing within the said city, or the liberties or precincts thereof, (save in the time of public fairs :)

And Whereas, It is evidently the intention and spirit of the said Charter, that no person who is not a Freeman of the said city, should be permitted to carry on any art, trade, or merchandise within the same :—

And Whereas, Notwithstanding such prohibition and obvious intention, many wholesome inhabitants have moved into the said city, and have been permitted to carry on their arts, trades, mysteries, merchandise and occupations, and have contributed to the public expenses and performed the duties exacted of citizens, without having been made Freemen of the said city, whereby its population and wealth have been greatly increased, and its arts and commerce promoted:—

And Whereas, Doubts do exist whether such citizens are entitled to vote for Charter officers, until they first have been made Freemen of the said city, according to the particular mode prescribed by the said Charter: Therefore,

Be it further enacted, That all persons qualified by the Charter of the said city to vote for Charter officers, and all persons who have resided for the space of one year before the passing of this act, or who for the space of six months thereafter shall reside in the city of New York, and who have used any art, trade, mystery, or occupation within the same, or have exposed to sale any manner of goods, wares, merchandises or commodities in any house, place, shop or standing thereof, for the term aforesaid (save in the times of public fairs) without any penalty or forfeiture having been exacted of him or them therefor, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the said city, shall be considered and taken as a free citizen of the said city, as by the the tacit consent of the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, and shall be entitled to vote for the Charter officers, and enjoy all other rights, privileges and immunities belonging to Freemen of said city:—

Provided nevertheless, That no person shall vote at any such election except in the ward in which he shall actually reside, and that no person shall be deemed and taken to be a Freeman of the said city aforesaid, who has not for six months next, and immediately preceding the election, rented a tenement of the yearly value of       dollars within the said city, and who shall not have taken and subscribed an oath before the Mayor, Recorder or an Alderman of the said city, and caused the same to be filed in the office of the Clerk of the said city, in the words following, to wit.

I, _____ of the _____ ward of the city of New York, do solemnly and sincerely swear and declare, that I have resided in the said city for the space of one year immediately previous to the first day of April, 1804, and now am a resident in the said city (or if the residence commenced after the said 1st. of April, 1804,) then for the space of six months immediately preceding the date hereof, and that I have for the aforesaid space of one year (or six months, as the case may be) actually and openly carried on in the said city, the art, trade, mystery or occupation (as the case may be, naming the particular art, trade, mystery or occupation of such person) without any fine or penalty having been exacted of me for the same, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the said city.

That the question having been put, whether the committee did agree to the said substitute, it passed in the negative. [Nays 16, yeas 7.]

Mr. Taylor further reported, that the committee had gone through the bill, made amendments, and agreed to the same; which he was directed to report to the Senate: And he read the report in his place, and delivered the same in at the table, where it was again read, and agreed to by the Senate.

Ordered, That the amendments be engrossed.

March 29th. The bill with the engrossed amendments was read the third time.

The President put the question whether the bill should pass, and it was carried in the affirmative. [Yeas 17, nays 6.]

Thereupon, Resolved, That the bill do pass.

Ordered, That Mr. Van Bergen and Mr. Van Schoonhoven, deliver the bill with the amendments to the honorable the Assembly, and inform them that the Senate have passed the bill with the amendments therewith delivered.

The honorable the Assembly returned by Mr. Rutgers and Mr. Sanford the bill, informing that they had concurred in the amendments of the Senate to the said bill, and had amended the bill accordingly. The amended bill having been examined, Ordered, That Mr. Van Vechten and Mr. Veeder, return the bill to the honorable the Assembly.

April 5th, A message from the honorable the Assembly, delivered by Mr. B. Thompson and Mr. J. Thompson, was received, with the bill, together with the objections*of the Council of Revision.

The Senate having considered the said objections, and also re-considered the said bill, Mr. President put the question whether the said bill (notwithstanding the objection of the honorable the Council of Revision to the same) should become a law of this State, it was carried in the affirmative by more than two-thirds of the members present. [Ayes 21, nays 5.]

Thereupon—Resolved, That the said bill, notwithstanding the objections of the honorable the Council of Revision to the same, become a law of this State.

An Act relative to the election of Charter Officers in the city of New York.

Passed April 5th., 1804.

Be it enacted by the people of the State of New York, represented in senate and assembly, That the anniversary election for charter officers to be chosen in and for the city of New York, shall commence on the third Tuesday of November in every year, and that all such elections shall be by ballot, and may be continued by adjournment from day to day, for two days successively including the first: and that all officers so chosen, shall be sworn into and commence the duties of their respective offices, on the first Monday of December thereafter.

And be it further enacted, That the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the said city, shall, on such day in the month of November in every year, as to them shall seem meet, at least eight days before the annual election above established, fix upon a proper place in each of the wards of the said city, where such election shall be held, and shall nominate and appoint three fit and discreet persons, residents and electors thereof, inspectors of the said election; and further, that in case any one or more of the said inspectors shall die, remove out of the said city, refuse to serve, or be rendered incapable of attending any of the said elections before, or on the day on which the same is to be held, that it shall be lawful for the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty in every such case, and they are hereby required, to appoint another such person or persons in the room of the person or persons before appointed. And in case the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, shall neglect or refuse to make such appointment, it shall be lawful for the Mayor of the said city, and he is hereby enjoined, to appoint such other inspector or inspectors.

And be it further enacted, That the inspectors of each ward, whenever an election is to be held therein, shall by writing under their hands, to be fixed up in at least five of the most public places in such ward, give six days notice of the time and place, when and where, the said election is to be held, and at the time and place of opening such election. The said inspectors shall publicly administer to each other, and severally take the following oath or affirmative: "I, ———, do solemnly and sincerely declare and swear (or affirm), in the presence of Almighty God, that I will in all things, honestly, faithfully and impartially, and according to the best of my knowledge and abilities, execute the office of Inspector of this election; and that I will faithfully and impartially canvass and estimate the ballots taken at the said election, and certify a true and just statement of the same according to my best understanding; and if I shall discover any other person or persons who shall attend with me for the purpose aforesaid, conduct himself or themselves partially, unduly, or corruptly in the premises, that I will divulge or discover the same, to the end that the persons so offending may be brought to justice."

And further, That in each ward the inspectors shall appoint one competent clerk of such election, who shall keep a poll list of the same under the direction of the inspectors, and shall take the following oath, to be administered by the said inspectors. "I, ———, do solemnly and sincerely declare and swear, that I will faithfully, truly, honestly and impartially keep the poll list of this election, and in all things, according to the best of my knowledge and abilities, will do and perform my duty as a clerk thereof." And the said clerk shall be allowed for his services at the rate of two dollars per day. And the said inspectors shall preside at said election, and conduct and direct the same according to the regulations of this act, and be the returning officers thereof, in manner hereinafter directed. And the inspectors and clerk being sworn as aforesaid, the said inspectors shall cause proclamation to be made three times as follows, viz: "Hear ye! hear ye! hear ye! the poll of this election is opened, and all manner of persons attending the same, are strictly charged and commanded, by the authority and in the name of the people of this state, to keep the peace thereof during their attendance at this election, upon pain of imprisonment," which proclamation shall be repeated at every opening of the poll, after an adjournment thereof; and proclamation of every such adjournment and closing thereof shall also in like manner be made. Provided always, that the proclamation by which the same shall be closed, shall be preceded three hours before, by a proclamation notifying the same will be closed. And the poll of every such election shall be open in the day time only, between the rising and setting of the sun, and shall be opened at or before ten o'clock in the morning of every day on which the said election shall be held.

And be it further enacted, That all persons who are qualified by the Charter of the said City to vote for Charter officers; and every male citizen of this State, or of any of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have resided in the said city for the space of six months preceding said election, and shall, during that time, have rented a tenement of the yearly value of twenty-five dollars, and have paid any taxes within the said City, and is not disqualified by law, shall vote at such election for Charter officers, and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of a Freeman of the said City. Provided always—

And it is hereby further enacted, That no person shall vote at any election, except in the ward in which he shall actually reside.

And be it further enacted, That every mortgagor or mortgagee when in possession of the mortgaged premises (and not otherwise) shall be deemed a freeholder within the meaning of this act. And that no person holding lands, tenements, or hereditaments in trust for any body politic or corporation, or for any pious use or purpose, shall thereby acquire or possess a right to vote.

And be it further enacted, That the mode of conducting every such election shall be as follows:—Every person who shall be qualified to vote at such election for Charter officers by virtue of this act, and shall offer himself to vote, shall at such election openly deliver his ballot to one of the inspectors; which ballot shall be a paper ticket, containing the name of a person for Alderman, and the name of a person for Assistant of the said ward, and the name of such other officer or officers as shall be to be chosen in the ward in which the elector shall reside, or such and so many of them respectively as he shall think proper to vote for, severally written on the same paper ticket, designating who is voted for as Alderman, and who for Assistant, and the like for all the officers to be chosen at such election, and for whom the said elector shall think proper to vote; and the said paper ticket shall be so folded or closed as to conceal the writing thereon; and on receipt of every such ballot, the inspector shall cause the name of the elector to be entered in the poll list by the clerk, and shall cause the ballot, without suffering the same to be inspected, to be put into a box to be provided for the purpose, with a sufficient lock thereto, which box shall be locked, and the key thereof kept during the election by any one of the inspectors, selected by the majority of them; and a small hole shall be made in the lid or cover of the box, sufficient only to receive such ballot, and through which all ballots shall be put into the box, and which box shall be opened at the times hereinafter mentioned. And further, that on every adjournment of the poll, the poll list shall be examined by the inspectors, and every mistake shall be corrected according to their judgement; whereupon the box shall be opened, and the poll list put into it and locked up therein, and the key delivered to such one of the inspectors as the majority shall appoint, and the seal of one of them shall be put on the said box, so as to cover the hole in the lid thereof, and the box shall then be delivered to such other of the inspectors attending such election as a majority of them shall direct, who shall carefully keep the same, and shall, without suffering the same to be opened, or the said seal broken or removed, deliver the same box in at the election table at the next opening of the poll, in presence of all the spectators attending such election, when and where the seal shall be broken, and the box opened, and the poll list taken out, and the box again locked in order to proceed in the said election, which course shall be observed and pursued until the poll be finally closed.

any such election, as qualified by the Charter of the said city and this law, to vote for Charter officers; and either of the inspectors shall inspect, or any other elector in such ward shall challenge him to be unqualified for the purpose, the inspectors shall tender and administer to him the following oath or affirmation. "I, — —, do solemnly and sincerely swear (or affirm) that I am a freeholder, and that I hold my estate by descent or devise (if such shall be the case, and if he shall not so hold, then), and that I have been so for one month next, preceding this election, and possessed in my own right, or in my wife's right (as the case may be), of a freehold in the city of New-York, and that I do not hold the same in trust for any body, politic or corporate, or for any pious or religious use whatsoever; and that I have not procured the said freehold under any obligation or promise to convey the same to any other person after this election, or (as the case may be) that I am, and have been for three months last past, a freeman of the said city, and do actually reside in the said ward in which I now offer to vote (or as the case may be), and that I have for six months next, and immediately preceding this election, rented a tenement of the yearly value of twenty-five dollars within the said city, and have been rated, and actually have paid taxes within the same, and that I am now an actual resident in the ward in which I now offer to vote, and that I have not been polled before at this election." And that in case any elector shall refuse to take the oath so tendered to him, he shall lose his vote at such election. And if at any such election, an inspector shall receive the vote of any elector, who being tendered the said oath, shall refuse to take the same, such inspector shall, for each offence, forfeit the sum of twenty-five dollars to any person who will sue for the same, to be recovered with costs. And further, the said inspectors are hereby required to administer the said oath to any person who shall voluntarily offer to take the same.

And be it further enacted, That after finally closing the poll of any such election, the inspectors of the wards in which such election shall be held, shall proceed without delay, publicly to open the boxes containing the said ballots, and shall first count the said ballots unopened, and if the number of the ballots in the said box shall exceed the number of electors contained in the poll list, the said inspectors shall draw out and destroy, unopened, so many of the said ballots as shall amount to the excess, and the said inspectors shall then proceed to canvass and estimate the said ballots, and if two or more ballots are found folded or rolled up together they shall not be estimated: and the said inspectors shall complete the said canvass on the day subsequent to the closing of the poll, or sooner, and thereupon shall set down in writing the names of the several candidates for the respective offices, with the number of votes for each, and shall thereupon certify and declare who have the majority of votes for each respective office, and shall subscribe their names thereto, and by one of them, to be appointed for that purpose by a majority of them, shall immediately deliver the said certificate (the said inspectors keeping a duplicate thereof) to the clerk of the city, or his deputy, who shall record the same in a book to be kept for that purpose.

And be it further enacted, That if any person shall be guilty of any disorderly conduct at any such election, or during the time of the canvass and estimate aforesaid, the major part of the inspectors at such election are hereby authorized and required to commit the offender to the gaol of the said city, there to remain during the pleasure of the said inspectors, provided, that such imprisonment shall in no case exceed six hours after the canvass of such election shall be finished. And all Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, Constables and Gaolers, are hereby strictly charged and required to aid and obey the inspectors herein.

And be it further enacted, That if any of the Aldermen, or other officers of the said city, chosen as aforesaid, shall refuse to serve, die, or remove out of the said city, before the expiration of the time for which he was chosen to serve in any such office; or shall not be legally qualified to serve in such office; then and in every such case, such office shall be deemed to be vacant, and the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty; in Common Council convened, shall order an election to be held to fill up every such vacancy, which shall be held, regulated and conducted in the same manner as is prescribed in this act for the anniversary election of Charter officers.

And be it further enacted, That if any of the said inspectors shall be guilty of any wilful neglect of the duties required of them by this act, or of any partial or corrupt conduct in the execution of the same, and be thereof convicted; every of them so offending and convicted shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of five hundred dollars, to be recovered by action of debt, or by information in any court of record, the one moiety thereof to the use of any person who shall prosecute for the same, and the other moiety thereof to the use of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the said city; and if the prosecutor in any such suit shall prevail, he shall likewise recover his costs of suit against the person convicted; but if the person so proceeded against shall be acquitted, he shall recover double costs against the prosecutor, and no process shall issue to bring in the party accused, until bond be filed in the office of the clerk of the Court, out of which the process shall issue, in the penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars, with two sufficient freeholders as sureties, such as the court shall approve, to secure the defendant double costs, to become due on a discontinuance, withdrawing of the suit, or an acquittal, or neglect to bring the same to trial within five terms after the appearance of the defendant to answer the same. And further, that every person so convicted shall also suffer the same pains and penalties, as in cases of wilful and corrupt perjury, and shall from and after such conviction be utterly disqualified to hold or enjoy any place of office in this state.

And be it further enacted, That whoever shall by bribery, menace, or other corrupt means or device whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, attempt to influence any elector of this city in giving his vote or ballot, or deter him from giving the same at any election within said city by virtue of this act, and shall thereof be convicted, such person so offending and convicted shall forfeit and pay for every such offence five hundred dollars, to be sued for and recovered by any person, and in the manner and under restrictions above prescribed, in actions to be brought for neglect of duty or corrupt conduct; one moiety of which penalty shall be recovered to the use of the person prosecuting for the same, and the other moiety thereof to the use of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the said city; and on such conviction, the person convicted shall forever thereafter be utterly disqualified to hold, exercise, or enjoy any office, or place of trust or profit, within this state.

And be it further enacted, That no officer, or other person, shall call out, or order any of the militia of the said city to appear, or exercise on any day during any election to be held by virtue of this act, except in cases of invasion or insurrection, on pain of forfeiting the sum of one hundred dollars for every such offence, to be recovered by any person who will sue for the same with costs; the one moiety of such penalty to his own use, and the other moiety thereof to the use of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the said city.

And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any officer or minister of justice to serve any civil process in the said city on any person entitled to vote at any election to be held by virtue of this act, on any day during such election.

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every person hereafter to be appointed Mayor of the said city at any time within twenty days after such appointment, to take the oaths prescribed by the Charter of the said city, to be taken by such Mayor, before such person or persons as may be appointed by commission, under the great seal of this state, in the nature of a Dedimus Potestatum, to administer the oaths required to be taken by persons holding offices under this state in the said city, instead of taking the oaths in the presence of three or more Aldermen of the said city.

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the person administering the government of this state by and with the advice and consent of the Council of Appointment yearly, hereafter, to appoint the several Charter officers who are to be annually appointed at any time during the session of the legislature in every year, and every officer so appointed shall hold his office for one year from the time of his appointment, and until another shall be appointed and sworn in his stead.

And be it further enacted, That the collector of each ward shall, before he enters upon the execution of the duties of his office, give bond to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the said city, with such surety or sureties, and in such penalty as the Chamberlain or Treasurer of the said city shall deem sufficient, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of the office of Collector, and in case of his neglect or refusal so to do, his office shall be considered as vacant, and the Common Council order a new election.

And be it further enacted, That the act entitled, "An Act relative to the election of Charter officers, and relative to Weigh-masters in the city of New-York," passed the 7th. day of April, 1801, except the last section thereof, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

State of New-York, }
 Secretary's Office. }

I certify the preceding to be a true copy of an act of the Legislature, now on file in this office.

John Hatfield,
 James Drake, Merchant,
 Jacob Mott, Grocer,
 Samuel Torbert, Physician,
 Samuel Cowdrey, Attorney at Law,
 Joseph Bond,

appeared before the Mayor and Aldermen and took the oath as Freemen of the City of New York.

The corporation consists of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Assistants; they possess the power of making Freemen of the said corporation; and all persons exercising trades, or following occupations, in the city (except in the public fairs), without first purchasing their freedom, are liable to be fined five pounds. Aliens are forbidden to be made Freemen of the city, until after they have been naturalized or denizenized. But this part of the Charter has, of late years, been but little acted upon. Freemen are seldom created; and no prosecutions are brought against those who carry on business without taking out their freedom.

And that the thanks of this Board be presented to his brave Officers and Crew.

At a Common Council held the 7th. Day of December, 1812.

Robert Fulton Esq<sup>r</sup>., to whom the Common Council had by a former Resolution granted the Freedom of the City, attended, and took the oath prescribed by law.

At a Common Council held the 17th. Day of December, 1812.

The Hon. De Witt Clinton, Mayor, President. His Honor the Mayor informed the Board that an official account having been received of the capture of the British Frigate Macedonian, by the U. S. Frigate United States, and that the Commodore was expected daily to arrive in this port with his prizes, and presuming it would be the wish of the Common Council to express their own and the feelings of their fellow Citizens on this achievement so honorable to the naval character of our country, he had for that purpose summoned them together.

He then presented the following Resolutions for their consideration, which having been read were unanimously adopted :

In testimony of the high sense which the Common Council entertain of the gallantry, skill and patriotism of the Captain, Officers and crew of the Frigate United States in the capture of the British Frigate Macedonian, an event which has added new laurels to the triumphs of American heroism, and which is all important to the great commercial Interests of the Union in its practical illustration of the utility, and its enforcement of the necessity of a Navy,

Resolved, That the Freedom of the City in a Gold Box be presented to Commodore Decatur, and that his Portrait be procured and set up in the Gallery of portraits belonging to the City, and that the thanks of the Common Council be presented to his officers and crew, who were concerned in this brilliant achievement.

And as an additional testimony of respect to the naval officers who have on this as well as two other occasions vindicated the honor of our country, Resolved, That Aldermen Fish, Wendover and Mr. Lawrence be a Committee to make suitable arrangements in concurrence with our fellow citizens for a public Dinner to Commodore Decatur, Captains Hull and Jones.

Resolved, That on the arrival of the Frigate United States, and her prize in this port, the national Flag be displayed on the City Hall. That Brig. Gen. Morton be requested to cause a national salute to be fired by a detachment from his Brigade. That the Vessels in the Harbour hoist their colors Mast high, and that the Bells in the City be rung for one hour on the occasion.

Resolved, That this Board will, with the concurrence of Commodore Decatur, give the Warrant officers and crew of the Frigate United States a Dinner on board the Ship.

At a Common Council held the 28th. Day of December, 1812.

The Board assembled in the Mayor's Office. The Hon. DeWitt Clinton, Mayor, President.

Upon motion the Common Council adjourned to their Chamber, for the purpose of conferring upon Capt. Isaac Hull of the United States Frigate Constitution the Freedom of the City, agreeably to a former Resolution.

It being announced that Captain Hull was in waiting, a Committee, consisting of Alderman Fish, Mr. Lawrence and the Clerk of the Common Council, were deputed to introduce Captain Hull into the Common Council Chamber.

This was accordingly done, when his Honor addressed Captain Hull as follows :

Sir :

In behalf of the Common Council I have the Honor of presenting you with the Freedom of this City, and Communicating their high sense of the courage and skill displayed by yourself, your officers and crew in the capture of the British Frigate Guerriere.

Deeds of valor and achievements of glory are, at all times, cherished by patriotism and rewarded by true policy, but when we consider that our recent victories on the ocean have exhibited the American character in the most interesting light; have created a new character in the annals of naval warfare, and have been the principal means of establishing our navy on a respectable and permanent basis, it must be universally admitted that actors in these scenes of heroism are pre-eminently entitled to the gratitude of their Country. That Commerce is essential to our prosperity, that it cannot flourish without protection, and that it cannot be protected without a navy, are truths too evident to be denied, and too important not to be appreciated by the intelligence and public spirit of America.

We cannot withhold on this occasion our approbation of your generous and benevolent treatment of the vanquished; it demonstrates the natural alliance between courage and humanity, and in mitigating the calamities of war, it reflects honor on our national character.

The Freeman's oath, as prescribed by Law, was then administered to Captain Hull by the Mayor, and the certificate thereof enclosed in a superb Golden Box prepared with suitable Emblems were delivered to him.*

Captain Hull expressed the deep sense he felt at the honors thus conferred upon him. That Box and its highly valued contents, he pledged himself to preserve as an incentive to his zealous and most strenuous exertions in the cause of his country wherever future good fortune should afford him an opportunity. To have it believed, he said, by so highly respectable a body as the Corporation of the City of New York, that an action of his had contributed to so desirable an event as the establishment of a navy on a permanent Basis, was a source of pleasing reflection which would only cease with life.

After which Captain Hull retired.

At a Common Council held the 1st. Day of March, 1813.

In testimony of the high sense entertained by the Common Council of the gallantry and skill of Commodore William Bainbridge and his Officers and Crew on board the United States Frigate Constitution, in the late capture and destruction of his Britannic Majesty's Frigate, the Java, whereby new laurels have been acquired by our gallant navy; and a new instance afforded of the practical utility of that kind of defense, for the protection and encouragement of the important commercial interests of our country; therefore

Resolved, That the Freedom of the City in a Gold Box be presented to Commodore Bainbridge, and that his portrait be obtained and set in the Gallery of portraits belonging to this City; and that the thanks of the Common Council be presented to his Officers and crew who were engaged in this achievement so honorable to themselves and the nation.

At a Common Council held the 29th. Day of March, 1813.

Resolved, That his Honor, the Recorder, be requested to transmit to Commodore Bainbridge the resolution of the Board passed the 1st. instant, respecting the victory by him obtained, and the Officers and Crew of the United States Frigate Constitution.

Mr. Lawrence presented the following Resolutions, which were unanimously agreed to :

The Common Council of the City of New York being fully convinced that a Navy establishment is important to the protection of Commerce and to the defense of our Country ; and viewing the late capture of the British Sloop of War Peacock, by the American Sloop of War Hornet, as reflecting the highest honor on the intrepidity and skill of Captain Lawrence, his Officers and Crew ; and being solicitous at all times to offer the meed of applause to those of our gallant officers who thus eminently deserve it, they avail themselves of the present occasion to present the thanks of Citizens of New York to the officers and crew who achieved this splendid victory.

Resolved, That the Freedom of this City be presented to Captain James Lawrence, together with a piece of plate with appropriate devices and inscription thereon, and that His Honor the Recorder [Pierre C. Van Wyck] be requested to present the same with a copy of this Resolution.

Resolved, That in testimony of the high sense the Common Council entertain of the conduct of the crew of the U. S. Sloop of War Hornet, by the capture of H. R. M. Sloop of War Peacock, in the unexampled short period of fifteen minutes, that the Common Council will give a public dinner to the said gallant crew of the said Sloop of War Hornet.

At a Common Council held the 31st. Day of May,

The following Letters were laid before the Board, being answers to certain Letters written by the request of the Corporation to Captains Bainbridge and Lawrence.

Letter to Captain Bainbridge.

Commodore William Bainbridge.

Sir:

It is with the highest satisfaction I communicate the enclosed Resolution of the Common Council of this City; you will receive it as one of those evidences of attention and gratitude which our Country is proud to shew to those who have so eminently distinguished themselves by their gallantry and valor, with my congratulations for the past, and my best wishes for your future success.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Pierre C. Van Wyck.

Letter to Captain Lawrence.

Capt. James Lawrence.

Sir:

It is with great pleasure that I execute the very flattering duty imposed on me by the Common Council in communicating to you the enclosed Resolutions.

The brilliant victory obtained by yourself and those under your command has afforded to that Honorable body another opportunity of manifesting their readiness to distinguish merit, and bestow the highest compliment in their power upon one whom they consider so justly entitled to it.

Although it is unnecessary for me to add anything to the sentiments contained in their Resolutions, and fully conscious that to the feelings of brave men the applause of their country is the highest and most grateful of all rewards, yet I cannot but express a hope that a Harvest of Laurels will not be the only Book which the gratitude of a free nation bestows on its defenders.

The contemplation of American character, exalted and unrivalled Glory on the Ocean, ought no longer to be sullied by the reflection that those who have achieved it are treated with neglect, and that the proud impulses of Justice and Generosity are stifled by the calculations of political economists. With a tender of my sincere congratulations for your success and assurance of my perfect respect and esteem.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,
Pierre C. Van Wyck.

Answer of Captain Bainbridge.

U. S. Frigate Constitution.

Sir :

The Resolution of the Common Council of the City of New York, in favor of myself, the Officers and Crew of the Frigate Constitution, relative to our conduct in the Action with the British Frigate Java, has been through you gratefully received. Permit me, Sir, to convey through the same channel to that highly respectable body the Common Council, my warmest acknowledgements, for the Honor they have personally done me in presenting to me the Freedom of the City of New York, and in giving me a place in the Gallery of Portraits of that City—such distinguished favors from a City in which I spent many happy days of my juvenile years, could not fail to make a just penetration on my feelings, and to command My best wishes for the prosperity and happiness of its Inhabitants.

For the very friendly participation which you take in communicating the Resolution, I beg you to accept assurance of the sincere esteem and high respect with which I have the honor to be, etc.

Wm. Bainbridge.

To P. C. Van Wyck Esq<sup>r</sup>.

Answer of Captain Lawrence.

U. S. Ship Hornet.

April 13th., 1813.

Sir :

I have been honored with your polite letter of the 1st. Inst., enclosing the Resolution passed by the Common Council of the City of New York on the 29th. of March last, approbatory of the conduct of myself and the Officers and crew of the Hornet during the engagement with his B. M. Sloop of War Peacock. For these testimonials of public regard from such a respectable and honorable body, I cannot but feel the sincerest gratitude, and I assure you, Sir, I shall ever esteem the honors that have been so liberally awarded by the Common Council of the City of New York as amongst the highest and most valuable which my country can bestow. In these sentiments I am cordially reciprocated by the Officers and crew I have the honor to command, and they trust (with myself) to future opportunities to become more worthy of the distinguished honors which have been already conferred.

For your Individual good wishes and congratulations I beg you to accept my sincere thanks.

With sentiments of sincere respect and esteem, I have the honor to be, etc.,

James Lawrence.

To P. C. Van Wyck Esq<sup>r</sup>.

At a Common Council held the 4th. Day of October, 1813.

The Common Council have received with feelings of no ordinary interest intelligence of the recent achievements of Commodore Perry on Lake Erie, an achievement which, while it confirms the character for valor hitherto sustained by our brave Tars, evinces the nautical skill of our Naval Commanders. It would ill comport with the high sense which this brilliant deed has afforded to the Common Council of the City of New York were they to pass it over in silence.

In testimony, therefore, of the high sense which the Common Council entertain of the valor and skill displayed by Commodore Perry in his late discomfiture and capture of the whole of the British fleet on the waters of Lake Erie,

Resolved, That the Freedom of the City be presented to Commodore Perry in a Gold Box, and that he be requested to sit for his Portrait to be placed in the Gallery of Portraits of the Common Council.

Resolved, Also that thanks of the Common Council be presented to the gallant Officers and crew of the Fleet under his Command who achieved this Victory so honorable to the rising Navy of our Country.

Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Commodore Perry.

On motion of Alderman Wendover, Resolved, That Henry Street, in the Eighth Ward, be hereafter called Perry Street, in honor of Commodore Oliver H. Perry of U. S. Squadron on Lake Erie.

At a Common Council held the 8th. Day of December, 1813.

The Board assembled agreeably to adjournment, when, being informed that Commodore Bainbridge was in waiting, a committee consisting of Alderman Mesier and Alderman Buckmaster, were appointed to introduce Commodore Bainbridge into the Common Council Chamber. The Commodore having been introduced, the members rose to receive him.

The Mayor then addressed him as follows :

Sir—We avail ourselves of this opportunity to express to you in person those sentiments of respect and regard which we have already communicated to you in another form.

In rendering this tribute to merit we feel peculiar pleasure. While our local attachments are gratified with the distinguished conduct of a man whom we consider as a citizen of this place, our national feelings are elevated by that heroism and magnanimity with which you achieved a double victory; for when the Flag of your Enemy was yielded to the power of your arms, his prejudices and animosities were at the same time subdued by a generosity and humanity never surpassed.

The Mayor then administered to the Commodore the Freeman's Oath, and presented to him a Certificate of the Freedom of the City in an elegant Gold Box.*

The Commodore then made the following reply to the Mayor's address.

Sir—The distinguished honor which the Corporation of the City of New York have conferred on me, claims my grateful acknowledgements. The Freedom of one of our greatest commercial Cities, will ever be duly appreciated, and excite sensations which I feel, but cannot express. When my Country commands I shall always cheerfully obey, and this testimony of your good opinion will be a stimulus to further exertions.

* The box measured three inches in diameter and one inch in depth. On the inside of the lid the following inscription was engraved, "The Corporation of the City of New York to Commodore William Bainbridge, of the United States frigate Constitution, in Testimony of the high sense they entertain of his gallantry and skill in the capture of his Britannic Majesty's ship Java on the 29th. of December, 1812." An engraving of the box can be found in Lossing's Field-Book of the War of 1812, page 462.

The Commodore then withdrew. Upon leaving the Hall he was greeted with the acclamations of a large concourse of Citizens who had assembled to witness the public honors bestowed upon a gallant fellow Citizen.

The following letter from his Honor, the Mayor, to Commodore Perry, communicating the resolutions of the Common Council on the subject of the victory of Lake Erie, and the Commodore's reply, were read, and resolved that the same be entered at length on the minutes of the Common Council and published in the gazettes of this city.

New York, October 10th., 1813.

Sir :

It is with peculiar pleasure that I transmit to you the enclosed resolutions of the Common Council of this City, expressive of their high sense of the glorious triumphs of the American squadron under your command—an event without parallel in the annals of our country, which gives you distinguished rank among the celebrated men that reflect lustre on the American name, and which has dispensed the blessings of security and tranquillity to a most important and extensive portion of the United States.

I have the honor to be,

With great respect,

Your obedient humble servant,

De Witt Clinton.

To Commodore Perry, Newport.

Newport, November 29th., 1813.

Sir :

The distinguished honor conferred on me by the Common Council of the City of New York, in their approbation of my conduct on the 10th. of September, calls forth the warmest sentiments of gratitude; to perform, to the best of my ability, the duty I owe to my country, shall ever be my highest ambition. The request to sit for my portrait, "to be placed in the gallery of portraits of the Common Council," is too high an honor not to be readily complied with.

I beg, Sir, that you will accept my thanks for the very flattering manner in which you have communicated to me the resolutions of the Common Council of the City of New York.

Very Respectfully,

I have the honor to be,

Your obedient Servant,

O. H. Perry.

The Honorable De Witt Clinton.

At a Common Council held the 26th. Day of September, 1814.

Whereas, The Corporation of the City of New York feel, that no exploit of the present war has more claim to the fullness and warmth of National gratitude than the victory of Commodore Macdonough, over a superior force on Lake Champlain; either from pride in the achievement or benefit from its consequence.

They therefore tender to that officer their admiration and thanks, and as a memorial of the new lustre added by him to the brightness of our naval renown.

Resolved, That the Freedom of the City, in a Gold Box, be presented to Commodore Macdonough, and that his portrait be procured and be set up in the Gallery of paintings belonging to this City, and that the thanks of the Corporation of this City be presented to his brave officers and crews.

Which passed unanimously, and his Honor the Mayor was requested to forward a copy of the same to Commodore Macdonough.

At a Common Council held the 10th Day of October,

Whereas, The Corporation of this City entertain the most lively sense of the late brilliant achievements of General Jacob Brown on the Niagara frontier, considering them as proud evidences of the skill and intrepidity of the hero of Chippewa and his brave companions in arms, and as affording ample proof of superior valor of our hardy freemen over the veteran legions of the enemy.

Resolved, That as a tribute of respect to a gallant officer and his intrepid associates who have added such lustre to our arms, the Freedom of the City be presented in a Gold Box to General Jacob Brown, that his portrait be obtained and placed in the gallery of portraits belonging to this City; and the thanks of this Corporation be tendered to the officers and men under his command.

The Mayor was requested to transmit a copy of the same to General Brown.

At an Extra Meeting of the Common Council held the 14th. Day of October, 1814.

The Mayor announced to the Board that Commodore Perry was, by invitation, in waiting to receive the Freedom of the City voted to him by a Resolution of the Board. Whereupon Mr. Hardenbrook and Mr. Brown were appointed a committee to wait upon Commodore Perry, and introduce him to the Common Council—Accordingly the Commodore was introduced into the Common Council Chamber by the committee and received by the members standing.

His Honor the Mayor addressed Commodore Perry as follows :

Sir—The illustrious achievements of Individuals in science and in arms constitute the glory of Nations. Patriotism, therefore, unites with policy and justice in conferring those honors and rewards which are due to distinguished merit.

After we have signalized ourselves in conquering the Enemy of our Country, a task perhaps more difficult remains to attain, a victory over ourselves. He who, in the moment of triumph and in full career of glory, reposes himself with humility upon the Supreme Being, exercises the duties of humanity to the vanquished, and displays that modest deportment which is ever the companion of elevated minds, exhibits an example of virtue worthy of all imitation and honorable to human nature.

I shall not, Sir, on this occasion, from motives of delicacy, expatiate upon the important naval events which took place under your auspices upon the waters of Lake Erie, but I must be permitted to say that your subsequent conduct, and particularly your endeavors by more than filial attention to soothe the afflicted spirit, and to restore the wounded frame of your brave and magnanimous antagonist, have given you the strongest additional claims upon the regard and affections of your country.

I now proceed, Sir, to perform one of the most pleasing acts of my life in conferring upon you the highest honors in the power of this City to bestow.

To which the Commodore made the following reply :

The honor conferred on me by this respectable body would at all times call forth the loudest emotions of gratitude, but at the moment when the Citizens of this City have given such distinguished proofs of their patriotism, it adds much indeed to the gratification to have my name enrolled among them as a Freeman.

The usual oath was then administered to Commodore Perry, and the Freedom of the City in an elegant Gold Box, with appropriate design enamelled thereon, was presented to the Commodore.

The Commodore then retired.

At a Common Council held the 24th. Day of October, 1814.

His Honor the Mayor transmitted to the Board the letter, in pursuance of their request, he had addressed to Commodore Macdonough, together with his reply, which were directed to be inserted at length on the minutes.

Letter to Commodore Macdonough.

New York, 28th. September, 1814.

Sir :

Your recent naval victory on Lake Champlain must be considered as one of the most splendid and most important events of war, whether we take into view the superiority of the Enemy's Force, the skill and gallantry displayed, or the intimate connection of this great achievement with the effectual protection of the Northern frontiers of this State and Vermont against the incursions of the Enemy.

Amidst the numerous testimonies of the grateful feelings of your Countrymen, you will now receive the unanimous sense of the municipal authorities of this City, and I beg leave to assure you that I consider it one of the most pleasing acts of my life to communicate to you this evidence of gratitude and regard, and at the same time to express the sentiments of respect which I entertain for you and the gallant men who acted so gloriously under your auspices.

I have the honor to be, etc.,

De Witt Clinton.

Commodore Macdonough.

In this letter was enclosed the Resolutions of the Common Council of September 26th.

Commodore Macdonough's Answer.

U. S. Brig Eagle.

Plattsburgh Bay, October 13th., 1814.

Sir :

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th. ulto., conveying to me the Resolutions of the Honorable the Corporation of the City of New York. To meet the approbation of my country has always been my greatest ambition, and this distinguished honor conferred on me by your Honorable corporation is received with feelings of peculiar pride and gratification ; permit me to return you my earnest thanks for the friendly expressions contained in your letters, to subscribe myself.

Very respectfully Yours, etc.,
T. Macdonough.

Hon. De Witt Clinton, Mayor, etc.

At a Common Council held the 4th. Day of November, 1814.

The Hon. De Witt Clinton, Mayor, President.

His Honor the Mayor informed the Board that agreeably to the wishes of the generality of the members, he had summoned the Common Council for the purpose of conferring upon Commodore Stephen Decatur the municipal honors voted to him by a former Resolution of the Common Council.

The Common Council being informed that Commodore Decatur had arrived, and was in waiting in the Hall, a Committee, consisting of Alderman Mesier and Alderman Munson, were appointed to wait upon the Commodore and introduce him into the Common Council Chamber. Upon his entering the Members rose, and upon being presented by the Committee to the Mayor, His Honor addressed him as follows :

Sir, During the Revolutionary war, our contest with France and the Barbary powers, and in the present war with Great Britain, the gallantry and skill of our seamen have been constantly gaining upon the admiration of mankind. Wherever they have approached an Enemy, victory has almost invariably attended the American Flag. The great Lakes, the Mediterranean Sea, the British Channel, the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, bear witness to their illustrious exploits, and they have elevated America to the pinnacle of naval glory.

When a great event has occurred, we are anxious to see how the actor narrates his own achievements. When the Hero becomes the historian of his own exploits he stands in a situation peculiarly delicate. If he appears in a style of inflated bombast and presents himself to the public in an attitude of swelling arrogance, he offends equally the good taste and moral sense of his country, but if, on the contrary, his bravery is only surpassed by his modesty—if he describes his victory in the same spirit with which he achieved it—and if, in addition to this, he conducts himself to the vanquished with chivalric courtesy and humanity, his glory is then complete, and he ranks among the great men who reflect honor upon human nature.

This description will apply most emphatically to the naval Heroes who have distinguished themselves during the present war. Their skill and bravery in battle, and their modest and benevolent deportment after victory, evince that whether they are called upon to fight for their country, to record their own achievements, or to exercise the offices of humanity, they stand equally entitled to public approbation.

As one of the most distinguished of that illustrious band, you have been honored with the approving voice of your country. This City, which looks to you as one of her most efficient protectors in the hour of peril, now presents you with her municipal honors, and I feel more than gratified in saying that the sentiments which I have on this occasion expressed, accord with the unanimous voice of our fellow citizens.

The Mayor then administered to him the Freeman's oath, and presented to him the Certificate of Freedom and an elegant Gold Box. The Commodore then made the following reply :

Sir, The services which I have had the good fortune to render in the line of my profession, have been so greatly overrated by the honorable the Corporation of New York, that I am totally at a loss how to express my thanks, and therefore can only beg leave to assure them, that my utmost exertions shall be used to render myself worthy of the distinguished honor they have been pleased to confer on me, in presenting me the Freedom of this City, so conspicuous for its patriotism and pre-eminent for the liberality with which it cherishes and rewards every effort that has a tendency to exalt the character of the nation. I beg you, sir, to accept my warmest acknowledgements for the flattering terms in which you have been pleased to express yourself towards me on this occasion.

The Commodore then withdrew, and upon leaving the Hall he was saluted by the Citizens, who had assembled to witness the honors paid to their gallant countryman.

At a Common Council held the 21st. Day of November, 1814.

The Hon. De Witt Clinton, Mayor, President.

The following Resolution was presented by His Honor the Mayor, and unanimously agreed to :

In testimony of the high sense which the Common Council entertain of the important services rendered to the United States, and of the lustre reflected upon the American character by the successful operations of a small army under the command of General Macomb, acting in concert with a body of militia, hastily assembled from this State and Vermont against a powerful army commanded by the Governor General of Canada in person, whereby the Enemy was compelled to retreat into his own territory, and our important Northern frontier was protected from his devastations.

Therefore, Resolved, That the Freedom of this City in a Gold Box be presented to General Macomb, and that he be requested to sit for his portrait to be put up in the gallery of portraits belonging to the City, and that the thanks of the Common Council be presented to the officers and soldiers of the regular Troops and Militia who acted so worthily at that important crisis.

Resolved, That the Mayor be requested to communicate this Resolution to General Macomb, and that the Recorder, Alderman Mapes and Mr. Brown be a committee to carry it into execution.

His Honor the Mayor presented copy of a letter written by him to General Brown, together with the General's answer, which were directed to be published, and to be inserted on the minutes.

To General Brown.

New York, October 14th., 1814.

Sir, In communicating to you the unanimous vote of the Common Council of this city respecting yourself and the gallant army under your command, I am at a loss for adequate language to express the sentiments of satisfaction which I experience on this occasion.

Without intending to express any opinion on antecedent events, I can with confidence assert that the exploits of the army under your command on the Niagara frontier have exalted our military character, have inspired public confidence, and have exhibited skill, intrepidity, and enterprise which reflect honor on the soldier of any country.

I pray you, sir, to be assured of my undeviating regard, and of the highest respect with which

I am, &c.,

Answer from General Brown.

Head Quarters,
Sackets Harbour,
November 9th., 1814

Sir :

I have received your letter of the 14th. ultimo, enclosing the resolutions of the Corporation of the city of New York of the 10th., approving my conduct and that of the gallant army which it was my good fortune to command on the Niagara frontier.

The approbation of my country is the highest reward I covet. The praise so justly bestowed on my brave Troops is in the highest degree grateful to my feelings. It is to them, that I am indebted for the distinguished mark of honor conferred upon me, the value of which is not a little increased by the prompt and decisive manner in which it was awarded, and the very flattering terms in which you have been pleased to lay the subject before me.

Have the goodness, Sir, to express to the Corporation of the City of New York, the high sense which I shall always entertain of the honor conferred on myself and my gallant companions in arms, and receive the assurance of my unalterable respect and the high consideration with which I am,

Your most obedient servant,
Jacob Brown.

To Hon. De Witt Clinton.

At a Common Council held the 5th. Day of December, 1814.

His Honor, the Mayor, laid before the Board a copy of the letter written by him to General Macomb agreeably to the Resolution of the Board, and the answer of General Macomb, which were directed to be inserted on the minutes.

New York, November 23d., 1814.

Sir :

The enclosed resolutions of the Common Council of this city respecting the gallant exploits of the regular troops under your command, and of the militia associated with you in the defence of our Northern frontier, expresses fully my sentiments, and I have therefore only to add the assurance of the great respect with which

I have the honor to be,
Your most obedient servant,
De Witt Clinton.

To Major General Macomb.

Belleville, November 24th., 1814.

To the Hon. De Witt Clinton.

Sir :

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 23d., inclosing the resolutions of the Common Council of the city of New York, expressing their approbation of my conduct in defending Plattsburgh, and offering their thanks to the gallant officers and soldiers under my command in that affair. Also requesting me to sit for my portrait, and presenting me with Freedom of the city. These marks of distinction are received with the liveliest emotions and are peculiarly gratifying as proceeding from the constituted authorities of a city so renowned for its munificence and public spirit. I shall with pleasure comply with the intentions of the resolutions, and ever be mindful that richest reward of an American soldier is the approbation and good opinion of his fellow citizens. With these sentiments permit me to offer the assurances of the high consideration and respect with which

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
Alexander Macomb.

At a Common Council held the 8th. day of December, 1814.

The Honorable De Witt Clinton, Mayor, President.

His Honor, the Mayor, informed the Board that Major General Macomb had been ordered to the Frontiers, and was immediately to leave the city, he had therefore summoned them together for the purpose of conferring upon the General the civic honors voted to him by the Common Council.

The Board being informed that General Macomb was in waiting, a Committee consisting of Aldermen Lawrence and Douglas, were appointed to introduce the General.

Upon his entering the Common Council Chamber, he was received by the Common Council with due respect, and upon being presented by the Committee to the Mayor, His Honor addressed him as follows :

Sir, At the commencement of the present war, most of the soldiers of the Revolution were no more. The surviving few, bending under the weight of years, or still feeling the wounds they had received in their country's cause, were with some exceptions no longer able to appear in arms. A long peace had in a great degree banished military knowledge, but there was still one institution devoted to its cultivation. From this school, superintended by a Gentleman of great science and talents, has proceeded that knowledge which has essentially promoted the security of America. War is science as well as an art, and in order to constitute an able and accomplished soldier, there must be an union of valor, intelligence, and discipline. Considering our unprepared state, the absence of discipline and the low state of military knowledge, it is not to be wondered that the first stages of our contest should be marked by unfortunâte events. Adversity tries the character of nations as well as of individuals. It was not for America in the vigor of youth and in full possession of martial courage and physical power to succumb under a series of disastrous occurrences. She rose in the plenitude of her strength, like Sampson from his slumbers. She sent forth her gallant sons to the combat—they measure swords with long tried veteran armies, that had gathered laurels on the ensanguined plains of Europe. They repulsed the enemy in all directions with inferior force; they frequently conquered them; with equal force they never were vanquished. They have acquired immortal renown—have given confidence to the country, have elevated our character in the estimation of the civilized world; and posterity will look upon the actors in these illustrious scenes with the same veneration that we now contemplate the departed heroes of former times.

Fully sensible of the important services which you have rendered to America at a very critical period, and desirous of doing justice to a citizen of this State who deserves so well of his country, this city now confers upon you her civic honors.

The Mayor then administered to him the Freeman's oath, and presented him with a certificate of freedom, together with a gold box.

After which General Macomb made the following reply:

The honors conferred upon me by the unanimous voice of the Corporation are no less flattering to me than they will be gratifying to the troops I had the good fortune to command. They will receive the approbation of the constituted authorities of the city of New York, with a due sense of its value and importance. I am about to return to them and witness the enthusiasm with which they will hail the sentiments so honorably expressed on their conduct.

I leave, Sir, the city with an anxious wish for its prosperity and most fervent prayers for its safety. And thus I take a most affectionate leave of my fellow citizens and of you Gentlemen of the Corporation in particular.

The General then withdrew.

At a Common Council held the 6th. day of January,

The Honorable De Witt Clinton, Mayor, President.

His Honor the Mayor, stated that having received information that Commodore Macdonough had arrived in this city, but he was immediately to take his departure for Lake Champlain, he had presumed it would be agreeable to the Common Council to avail themselves of this opportunity of the Commodore's presence in the city to confer upon him those municipal honors which had been voted to him, and he had therefore summoned them together.

The Common Council having been informed that Commodore Macdonough was in waiting, a Committee consisting of Aldermen Mapes and Mr. Brown were appointed to introduce him to the Common Council. Upon the Commodore's being presented to the Mayor he addressed him as follows—

When our Northern frontier was invaded by a powerful army—When the heroes, who have immortalized themselves on the Niagara, were pressed by a superior force, when the capitol of the United States was over run by hostile bands—When the most important city of the South was attacked by the enemy, and when he threatened to lay waste our maritime towns with fire and sword—At a period so inauspicious and gloomy, when all but those who fully understand and duly appreciate the firmness and resources of the American character, began to despair of the Republic, you were the first who changed the fortune of our arms and who dispelled the dark cloud that hung over our country. With a force greatly inferior you met the enemy vaunting of his superior strength and confident of victory, you crushed his proud expectations—you conquered him; and the embattled hosts, which were ready to penetrate into the heart of our country, fled in dismay and confusion. In discharging the great duties, which you owed to America, you did not forget in that trying hour, the source of all power and all good: you appealed to that Being, in whose hands are the issues of life and the fate of nations, and you complete the glory of the patriot by exhibiting the Christian Hero.

As long as illustrious events shall be embodied in History, so long will the victory on Lake Champlain, obtained under your auspices, command the respect of mankind; and when you and all who hear me shall be numbered among the dead, those who succeed us to the most extended line of remote posterity will cherish with exaltation those great achievements which are indissolubly connected with the prosperity and glory of America.

The Mayor then administered to him the Freeman's oath, and presented the certificate of Freedom, elegantly ornamented with suitable devices and a golden box with an appropriate inscription engraven upon it.

The Commodore then replied as follows:

Sir, With mingled feelings of gratitude and pleasure, I received the honors you have been pleased to confer on me. The title of a Freeman of this City distinguished as much for its high national character as for its commercial eminence, will be borne with peculiar pride and satisfaction.

The Commodore then withdrew.

At a Common Council held the 28th Day of January, 1815.

The Honorable De Witt Clinton, Mayor, President.

His Honor the Mayor, informed the Board that, understanding that Major General Brown had arrived in the City and that he was to remain but a few days, he had summoned them together to confer upon him the municipal honors formerly voted to him.

General Brown having attended and having been presented to the Mayor—His Honor made the following address to him :

Sir, However disastrous and portentous the state of public affairs may appear at any particular period, there is almost invariably in every free country a redeeming spirit which produces faculties demanded by the crisis and elicits powers proportioned to the emergency.

The history of the United States furnishes many remarkable illustrations of this truth, and gives us strong reason to believe that however we may suffer for a time, yet that the hand of the Almighty has marked us out for a long career of prosperity and greatness. The war of the revolution astonished mankind by a sublime display of heroism and political wisdom ; and when at a subsequent period the elements of anarchy and confusion were let loose among us, our civil institutions were ameliorated and our national prosperity fortified and improved by the counsels and exertions of sages and patriots. We are now engaged in a War with one of the most powerful nations of the world, a nation which has had a principal agency in overthrowing the colossal power of France, which now controls the destinies of Europe, and which holds in its hands the trident of the ocean. This enemy so formidable has attacked by sea and by land, has approached us in all directions, and is now menacing our Northern, our Western, our Eastern and our Southern frontiers. Although distracted by intestine divisions, paralyzed by inefficient measures, environed with dangers and surrounded by difficulties, yet America has on most important occasions presented a countenance undismayed and magnanimous, and has produced heroes who have on the ocean and the land vindicated our national character, and have erected imperishable monuments of individual and national glory. The events which have occurred on the Western frontier of this State during the last campaign have baffled the proud expectations of the enemy and have taught him that by energy, wisdom, and union, we can set at defiance the combined efforts of the old world. At Chipewewa, and Bridgewater, and at Erie, our gallant army came in contact with the veteran soldiers of Great Britain, who had dyed the plains of Europe with the blood of the best troops of France, and the result has everywhere been successful and glorious. The heroic spirits which directed our physical force, and the brave soldiers that fought under such masterly guidance, are entitled to the gratitude of America. Wherever they go the good wishes and good offices of their country will attend them; history will record their services and their sufferings, their deeds of valor and of glory; and future generations as well as the present will look up to them as models for imitation and as examples of heroic greatness.

As long as the waters of the Great Lakes shall roll over the cataract of the Niagara, so long will those heroes command the gratitude and veneration of posterity; and the future traveller will with increased curiosity, and indescribable emotions, contemplate the magnificent scenery of a country equally celebrated for the illustrious achievements of man and the sublime operations of nature. To the leaders in these exploits the just and impartial voice of future times will apply the portrait of a great captain, drawn by the first orator of Antiquity.

Although delicacy will not permit me to state the agency which you have had in these distinguished scenes, yet I must be permitted to say that the promises which you gave of future and eminent usefulness (when by your vigor and skill you protected the most important place in the West against invasions of the enemy) have been fully realized on the borders of the Niagara, and that to such men as you and your gallant companions in arms, America must look for the palladium of her safety.

The Freeman's oath was then administered to him by the Mayor and the certificate of freedom and a gold box* with suitable inscriptions thereon being presented to him, the general made the following reply :

I intreat you to accept my most sincere acknowledgements for the very favorable view you have been pleased to take of my military conduct. The only claim which I can possibly have on the notice and regard of my country, is that of an honest zeal to promote her interest and her glory.

With unfeigned pleasure I avail myself of this opportunity to assure you that the events which have attracted your praise, are to be ascribed under God, to the distinguished merit of the officers with whom I have had the happiness to be associated with, and to the full reliance which I have ever placed on the unequalled qualities of the American Soldier. I have only given to the troops under my command an opportunity of evincing to their country that they are worthy of her confidence ; her approbation is their highest reward.

The flattering acknowledgment, by so distinguished a body as the Corporation of this great city of the merits of that heroic army, I shall ever cherish as among the most honorable events of my life. Animated by the most fervent zeal for the service of their country, these expressions of her esteem will only stimulate the army to increased exertions to secure her rights and to vindicate her fame.

The General then withdrew.

Certificate of Freedom.

To all to whom these presents shall come, De Witt Clinton, Esq., Mayor, and the Aldermen of the City of * The box is described as of fine gold, elliptical in form, three inches in length, two and a half in width, and three-fourths of an inch in depth. On the under side of the lid the following inscription was engraved : " The Corporation of the City of New York to Major General Jacob Brown, in testimony of the high sense they entertain of his valor and skill in defeating the British forces, superior in number, at the battles of Chippewa and Bridgewater, on the 5th and 25th of July, 1814." An engraving is given of it in Lossing's Field-Book of the War of 1812, page 841. The Certificate of Freedom was beautifully engrossed and illustrated.

New York, send greeting : At a meeting of the Common Council, held at the Common Council Chamber in the City Hall of the City of New York, the following resolutions were unanimously agreed to :

Whereas, The Corporation of this city entertains the most lively sense of the late brilliant achievements of General Jacob Brown on the Niagara frontier, considering them as proud evidences of the skill and intrepidity of the hero of Chippewa and his brave companions in arms, and affording ample proof of the superior valor of our hardy farmers over the veteran legions of the enemy.

Resolved, That as a tribute of respect to a gallant officer and his intrepid associates, who have added such lustre to our arms, the Freedom of the city of New York be presented to General Jacob Brown, that his portrait be obtained and placed in the gallery of portraits belonging to this city, and that the thanks of this Corporation be tendered to the officers and men under his command.

Know ye that Jacob Brown, Esquire, is admitted and allowed a Freeman and a Citizen of the said city, to have, to hold, to use, and enjoy the Freedom of the city, together with all the benefits, privileges, franchises, and immunities whatsoever granted or belonging to the said city.

By order of the Mayor and Aldermen.

In Testimony whereof the said Mayor and Aldermen have caused the seal of the said city to be hereunto affixed.

Witness: De Witt Clinton, Esquire, Mayor, the fourth day of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and of the Independence and Sovereignty of the United States, the 39th.

De Witt Clinton.

J. Morton, Clerk.

At a Common Council held the 8th. day of March, 1815.

The following Law was adopted.

No. 37. A Law to regulate the admission of Freemen in the City of New York.

Be it ordained by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York in Common Council convened. That each person hereafter to be admitted and made a Freeman of the said city (other than such as were born or have served a regular apprenticeship of seven years within the same) shall pay as follows, to wit: A merchant, trader or shopkeeper, the sum of twelve dollars and fifty cents, and a mechanic the sum of two dollars and fifty cents, for the corporation of the said city; and that every person on being admitted and made free, as aforesaid, shall pay the following fees, to wit: One dollar to the clerk, and twenty-five cents to the crier of the Mayor's Court.

And further, That each person hereafter to be admitted and made a Freeman of the said city shall take, before the Mayor and any four of the Aldermen, the following oath or affirmation, to wit:

I do swear, or affirm (as the case may be). That I as a Freeman of the City of New York, will maintain the lawful franchises and customs thereof; that I will keep the said city from harm as much as in me lieth, and that I will in all things do my duty as a good and faithful Freeman of the said city ought to do.*

* This was the last adoption of the law relating to the admission of Freemen, which had been re-enacted without change from 1801 to 1815. At a meeting of the Common Council held June 18, 1816, the Corporation Council was requested to revise and correct the Laws and Ordinances of the City, and make a speedy report on the same; his report was submitted December 2, 1816, and referred to a committee on laws, who after many sessions finally reported May 5, 1817, sixty-six ordinances, which were approved and ordered to be printed. The committee omitted the law relating to Freemen.

At a Common Council held the 3d. Day of April, 1815.

The Hon. John Ferguson, Mayor, President.

The Common Council having been informed that Capt. Jacob Jones had arrived in the city, it was Resolved that the Common Council will assemble on Thursday next at 12 o'clock, to confer upon him the Freedom of the City voted to him by a former Resolution of the Board.

At a Common Council held the 6th. Day of April,

At a Common Council held the 5th. day of June, 1815.

The following preamble and resolution was presented by Alderman Mesier, and agreed to unanimously.

The Corporation of the City of New York, in common with their fellow citizens, experience a most lively gratification in noticing another heroic achievement of our gallant Navy.

The late decisive victory obtained by Captain Charles Stewart, in the U. S. Frigate the Constitution is, for judgment and style in manœuvring, unrivalled; and when the superiority of the Enemy in weight, and the number of guns, together with the difficulty of contending with a divided and active force, is considered, it ought to be classed among the most brilliant feats recorded in naval history. The capturing, under the circumstances so disadvantageous as detailed in his modest official letter, two such vessels as the Cyane and Levant, in the short period of 40 minutes, evinces such a precision in gunnery and skill in seamanship, as raises the character of the American tar to proud elevation.

In testimony, therefore, of the high sense the Common Council entertain of the gallantry and martial skill displayed by Captain Charles Stewart, in the capture of His Britannic Majesty's two ships, Cyane and Levant.

Resolved, That the Freedom of the City be presented to him in a Gold Box, and that the thanks of the Corporation be presented to the officers and crew of the Constitution for the brave manner in which they engaged, fought and conquered on that occasion.

At a Common Council held the 25th. Day of July,

The Honorable Jacob Radcliff, Mayor, President.

His Honor, the Mayor, informed the Common Council that the Committee appointed to carry into effect the Resolution of the Board, respecting Captain Stewart, having received intelligence of his arrival in town, he had at their request summoned the Common Council for the purpose of conferring upon Captain Stewart the civic honors voted to him.

The Common Council being informed that Captain Stewart was in waiting, the Mayor appointed a Committee consisting of Aldermen Mapes and Smith, to introduce Captain Stewart into the Council Chamber, who performed that duty, and upon Captain Stewart's being presented to the Mayor, he addressed him as follows:

Sir, In behalf of this Corporation, I have the honor to present to you the Freedom of this City, as a testimony of the high opinion they entertain of the gallantry and skill displayed by you in the capture of two of His Britannic Majesty's Ships of war, the Cyane and Levant.

Our citizens have at all times felt a deep interest, and the highest gratification in the prosperity and glory of our infant navy. Having to contend on its recent trial, with a gigantic power on the ocean boasting of superior skill, and of triumphs over all other nations, it was natural, that in the commencement of the contest some doubts should be entertained of the immediate result; but the daring spirit and consummate ability displayed in its first efforts, accompanied with the most brilliant success, soon dispelled those doubts, and inspired a confidence which has been confirmed and increased in every stage of its subsequent career. Not only has the honor of the American Flag been maintained in every conflict, but the achievements of our navy have transcended the most sanguine expectations of its friends, and exalted the American name and character in every part of the world—It has given a pledge of inestimable value to the Country, and a proof to its enemies that the people of these States are as capable of vindicating their rights on the ocean, as they have manifested the power of maintaining them on the land.

To you, Sir, is justly ascribed the honor of having supported and elevated this character, and of confirming this pledge in one of the last conflicts of the war, in a difficult and trying situation, contending with a superior force, and under circumstances which entitle the victory you obtained to be classed amongst the most brilliant feats recorded in naval history.

Your countrymen are anxious to evince their gratitude for this event, and they feel a peculiar pride in bestowing their praise on the officers and crew of a favorite ship, which was the first in the late war to acquire distinguished honor to the American Flag, and after a course of unexampled success, among the last to extend and increase its lustre. I am accordingly instructed to request that you present the thanks of this Board to the officers and crew of the Frigate Constitution under your command, for the heroic manner in which they engaged, fought, and conquered, on the occasion now referred to.

The Freeman's Oath was then administered to Captain Stewart, and the certificate of the Freedom of the City together with a gold box were presented to him by the Mayor.

Captain Stewart then addressed the Mayor as follows :

Sir, I receive with a lively sensibility the honorable testimony which you have conferred on me, in behalf of the Corporation of the City of New York, and I must ever bear in grateful remembrance so distinguished a mark of their liberality.

In the late contest with our skilful and gigantic enemy it has pleased Divine Providence to enable our countrymen to sustain with unsullied lustre the honor of our flag.

To our fellow citizens, we owe our grateful acknowledgments for the strong interest they have taken in our infant navy, and for the liberality with which they have rewarded its exertions. Encouraged by their good opinion we have felt on all occasions that it ought not to be disappointed. If, Sir, I have been permitted through the confidence of our government and the valor of my officers and crew, to contribute any position of support to the honor of our Flag, and the elevation of our character on the ocean, I must ever consider it as one of the happiest events of my life. It will afford me, Sir, great pleasure to convey to the officers and crew I had the honor to command, the distinguished notice the Corporation of the City of New York have been pleased to bestow on their efforts—I beg leave to return my thanks to the Corporation for the honor they have conferred on me, and the very liberal manner they have noticed the victory obtained by the officers and crew of Frigate Constitution over his Britannic Majesty's late ships Cyane and Levant. I also beg you, Sir, to accept my thanks for the flattering manner in which it has pleased you to convey to me this instance of munificence of the Corporation.

After which Captain Stewart withdrew.

At a Special Meeting of the Common Council held the 19th. Day of February, 1819,

The Hon. Cadwallader D. Colden, Mayor, President.

His Honor, the Mayor, stated that having received information that Major General Jackson would arrive in this city on Saturday and as he understood it was the wish of the Common Council to render him certain marks of distinction on his visit to this place, he had, on the advice of some members, called this special meeting to take said subject into consideration.

Whereupon the Recorder presented certain Resolutions which, after some discussion, were agreed to in the words following :

Whereas, The Common Council of the City of New York entertain a deep and grateful sense of the public services of Major General Andrew Jackson ; as a testimony of which, and wishing to transmit to posterity the respect they bear for his military achievements, the splendor of which have been surpassed only by the great and lasting benefits they have secured to the United States :

Therefore, the Common Council, acting in behalf of the Citizens of New York, do resolve—

First. That the Freedom of the City, in a gold box, with a suitable inscription, be presented to Major General Andrew Jackson, at a Common Council to be specially convened for that purpose ; and that an appropriate address be made to him by His Honor the Mayor, in behalf of the Corporation.

Secondly. That he be respectfully requested to permit a full length portrait painting of him to be taken, under the direction of the Corporation; to be placed in the gallery of paintings in the City Hall.

Thirdly. That Mr. Recorder, Alderman Munson, Mr. Stephens, Mr. Allen, and Mr. Bolton, be a Committee to wait upon General Jackson upon his arrival in this City, and communicate to him, in behalf of the Corporation, the high satisfaction it will afford them to receive him in their Council Chamber; and the manner in which they are desirous of giving a public demonstration of the very distinguished interest they take in his character and fame.

Resolved, That the Committee appointed to receive General Jackson in behalf of this Board, be intrusted to offer to him and his suite a conveyance up the Hudson River to West Point and back to this City in a Steam Boat under direction of the corporation.

Resolved, That the Committee invite General Jackson and suite to be with the Corporation on Monday when his Honor the Mayor presents the Standard to the Governor's Guard.

Resolved, That the said Committee be directed to carry into effect the preceding Resolutions.

His Honor, the Mayor, was requested to procure the Gold Box * mentioned in the Resolution, and the

* This famous box is described as being about five inches in length and width in proportion, of solid gold beautifully chased, and its intrinsic value about three hundred dollars. This inscription was engraved on the lid: "Presented by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York to Major General Andrew Jackson, with the Freedom of the City, as a Testimonial of respect to his high military attainments."

General Jackson bequeathed the box, in trust to his adopted son, Andrew Jackson Jr., to be presented at the close of the next war, to the person adjudged to be the most valiant in defence of his country. At the close of the War with Mexico attention was called to the bequest, and the Board of Aldermen, April 16, 1849, appointed a committee to decide as to the person entitled to the honor. Many claims were made and much controversy ensued; the Corporation finally September 7th, 1857, designated Major Garret Dyckman as the recipient, and September 14th, as the day of presentation. Andrew Jackson Jr., who was present in the city, refused to deliver the box, in consequence of a protest from members of the First Regiment of New York Volunteers in favor of Col. Ward B.

following were appointed the Committee to carry the other Resolutions into effect, vizt., Alderman Munson, Messrs. Stevens, Allen, Bolton.

At a Common Council held the 22d Day of February, 1819.

Mr. Recorder, from the Committee of Arrangements, reported that agreeably to the directions of the Common Council they had waited upon Major General Jackson and had presented to him the Resolutions passed at the last meeting of the Board, that they had received a reply from General Jackson, which he read to the Board, and which was as follows:—

Richard Riker, Esqr.

Chairman of the Committee.

Sir:—The Resolutions of the Common Council of the City of New York with which you have this day presented me, have been read with that satisfaction which the generosity and hospitality of your honorable body is calculated to inspire.

It affords me singular gratification to be enabled to comply with the several requests contained in your Communication, and I accept with pleasure your polite invitation to witness the ceremony of presenting the Standard to the Governor's Guard.

Having but a few days to remain in this section of Country, I am compelled to deny myself the pleasure I had anticipated in visiting West Point, and therefore decline the acceptance of the transportation which has been so liberally offered for my conveyance to that place.

Burnett. On the evening of September 14th, a stormy meeting of the Common Council was held in which the action of Mr. Jackson was denounced and the Committee discharged from further consideration of the subject. On the 17th of August, 1859, the box was formally presented at Nashville to General Burnett by Dr. John M. Lawrence, who acted for his father-in-law, Mr. Jackson, and was received by Gideon H. Pillow as the representative of General Burnett, who at the time was on service at Nebraska City.

The report of the Joint Committee September 7th, 1857, printed in the Proceedings of the Board of Aldermen, vol. 67, page 269, gives an interesting history of the claims for the box.

For the honor conferred on me by your distinguished body permit me to present through you to the Common Council of the City of New York, the assurance of my high respect and gratitude.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,

Your Obt. Servt.

Andrew Jackson.

Whereupon it was ordered that the same be entered on the Minutes at length, and filed.

It was also resolved that the Board will assemble to-morrow at one o'clock in the Sessions Room for the purpose of conferring upon Major General Andrew Jackson the Freedom of the City agreeably to the Resolutions of the Common Council.

At a Common Council held the 23d Day of February, 1819.

Upon motion the Resolutions of the Board agreed to at the Special meeting on the 19th instant, and the reply of General Jackson thereto, which was reported on the 22d, were severally read.

Mr. Stevens, from the Committee of Arrangements, informed the Common Council that they had waited upon General Jackson and accompanied him to the Hall and that he was now in waiting in the Common Council Chamber.

The Committee were then requested to wait upon the General, inform him that the Common Council were assembled, prepared to receive him and introduce him to the Board.

The Committee accordingly retired and in a few minutes General Jackson entered. Upon his entrance the Common Council rose to receive him. After being seated a few moments two of the Committee led him to the centre of the space occupied by the Common Council and presented him to the Mayor, upon which his Honor the Mayor addressed him as follows:—

Address of the Mayor.

Major General Jackson,

No task could be more gratifying to me than that which I am now to perform. I am to congratulate you in behalf of the Common Council and of our fellow Citizens, on your arrival among us.

We are happy to avail ourselves of the first opportunity of testifying by every mark of respect the feelings, your high military services have inspired.

While the whole country was agitated by the threatened invasion of a powerful foe, we could not but learn with anxiety that he had directed a large armament to a point where it was known he could only be met by an inferior force chiefly of our undisciplined and inexperienced countrymen.

We knew that Britain at the end of a contest which had convulsed Europe for twenty years, had destined her veteran and victorious troops to make war upon us, but the sons of our soil, animated by your spirit and conducted by your wisdom, drove the invaders from our shores and achieved a victory, which, while it raised the character of our country to an elevation that attracted the admiration of the rest of the world, left to every American a debt of gratitude to you, and to our brave brethren who fought with you, which can never be cancelled.

With these sentiments allow me to present to you, this Certificate of your being admitted a Freeman of this City, and to thank you for your compliance with the Resolution of the Common Council requesting your portrait.

Permit me also to assure you that we shall feel great pride in being able to claim you as our fellow citizen and in placing the portrait of one who has deserved so well of his country in our Gallery, occupied by the resemblances of many who have similar, tho' no one superior claims to our grateful acknowledgment.

To which General Jackson made the following reply :

Sir, The distinguished honor which the Common Council of the City of New York has conferred by my admission as a Freeman of their City, is to me a source of the highest gratification and will ever be recollected with feelings of the warmest sensibility.

To be associated with those who have been distinguished for their patriotism and zealous attachment to the republican principles of our government is the most exalted station of an American citizen. The approbation you have been pleased to express of my humble efforts in the field, command my greatest acknowledgments. For those sentiments am I indebted to the bravery of the troops I had the honor to command.

What I have done was for my country. Had I erred in the discharge of my official duty, that error would have originated in the warmth of my devotion to her interest and a misapplication of the means best calculated to promote her happiness and prosperity : but to find that my conduct has been sanctioned by my government and approved by my fellow citizens is a source of happiness unequalled in the occurrences of my life, for the proudest honor which can grace the soldier and the richest reward which he can receive for the fatigues, perils and privations of his profession is the approbation of a grateful country.

The General was then handed by two of the Committee and seated on the right of the Mayor.

His Honor then administered to him the oath of a Freeman as prescribed by Law and delivered to him the Certificate of his being a Freeman. His Honor, the Mayor, then arose and announced General Jackson to have been admitted a Freeman of the City of New York, agreeably to the Charter and Laws of the same.

The General was then introduced by the Committee of Arrangements to the several members of the Common Council, after which he retired, accompanied by the Committee of Arrangements.

At a Common Council held the 26th. Day of July,

Alderman Allen presented the following Resolution, which was unanimously agreed to :

Resolved, That the Committee on Finance be instructed to enquire if the provisions of a Resolution passed the 13th. day of March, 1813, granting the Freedom of the City, with a piece of plate to the late Captain James Lawrence, have been complied with, and if not, whether it is now expedient and proper to carry into effect said Resolution so far as to present to the family of Captain Lawrence, the mementoes of his gallantry in the capture and destruction of the British Sloop of War, Peacock.

At a Common Council held the 9th. Day of August, 1819.

The same Committee who were instructed to inquire respecting a Resolution of the Board voting to the late Captain Lawrence of the United States Navy, a piece of plate, reported :—

“ That they have ascertained from Mrs. Lawrence, now a resident of the village of Greenwich, that the Certificate of Citizenship alluded to was presented her by his Honor, the Mayor, and is now in her possession, but that the piece of plate with which she would have been much gratified, has not been provided or presented agreeably to the resolution of the Corporation, a copy of which was furnished her shortly after its passage. Whatever may have been the causes for delay in carrying into effect this tribute of respect to a gallant officer, your Committee are of opinion that no censure ought to rest on the members of this Board who, your Committee are persuaded, entertain a high sense of the services rendered, and the intrepidity and skill displayed by the brave men who fought and bled in defence of the injured rights of our country, during the late war, and who therefore could not have refused this meed of approbation had they been apprised of its non-performance.

"The Committee have no doubt, therefore, that the Board will accord with them in opinion that it is both expedient and proper to fulfill as soon as practicable the pledge given by their predecessors, and they offer the following Resolution accordingly:—

"Resolved, That the Committee on Finance be instructed to present to the widow of the late Captain James Lawrence, a piece of plate with suitable devices and inscriptions indicative of the gallantry and skill of her late husband, in the capture of the British Sloop of war Peacock, by the American Sloop Hornet, under his command, agreeably to a Resolution of the Common Council passed the 29th. day of March, 1813."

Stephen Allen,
B. Crane,
J. Hammond,
J. Hone,

which was approved, a blank in the Resolution filled up with Finance Committee and the Resolution adopted.

At a Common Council held the 1st. Day of November, 1819.

Alderman Allen, from the Committee on that subject, reported that the piece of plate directed to be executed and presented to the family of the late Captain James Lawrence, was completed. Whereupon the Finance Committee were requested to take order for presenting the same in the name of this Corporation to Mrs. Lawrence, the Widow of the late Captain Lawrence.

At a Common Council held the 28th. Day of February, 1820.

A petition from Peter Charles L'Enfant, addressed to His Honor the Mayor, stating the services rendered by him in devising the plan and superintending the erection of the Old City Hall, for which he received no compensation, although a grant of ten acres of land in the Outward was on 9th. October, 1789, voted to him, and praying the Corporation to take his case into consideration, was read and referred to the Finance Committee.

At a Common Council held the 17th. Day of April, 1820.

The Finance Committee, on petition of P. Charles L'Enfant, reported :

That it appears Mr. L'Enfant, at the request of the Citizens, furnished plans for altering and improving the Old City Hall, so as to render it suitable for the reception of the Congress of the United States, and, at the same time performed the superintendence of the work until completed. The Committee have discovered nothing on the minutes of the Common Council relative to any stipulation for compensating Mr. L'Enfant for this undertaking, and they are led to infer that it was altogether voluntary on his part, and that his object was the honor of the performance, rather than pecuniary reward.

On the 12th. October, 1789, the Common Council after reciting the generous services of Mr. L'Enfant, resolved that the thanks of the Board, together with the Freedom of the City, be presented to him, and also that a lot of Common Lands, containing the quantity of ten acres, be conveyed to him in fee simple. The location of this land was decided by the Board on 30th. December, 1789, and on 6th. April, 1790, the Clerk presented a Survey and Map of said land, and on the 16th. he laid before the Board, the draft of a grant to P. C. L'Enfant. On the 30th. of April the Board was informed that Mr. L'Enfant declined accepting the proffer of the Corporation; whereupon it was ordered that the Clerk communicate to him this information, and in the meantime that execution of the grant be suspended. The Clerk reported on the 14th. May, 1790, that he had written to Mr. L'Enfant, and received an answer stating "that it was perfectly agreeable with his sentiments and disposition to refuse the gift."

On the 26th. January, 1801, a Memorial from P. Charles L'Enfant claiming compensation for his services, &c., was presented to the Common Council, and the Board determined to allow him $750 in full discharge of all further claims against the Corporation for, or on account of his said services, and on the 16th. of February following Elias Kane, in behalf of L'Enfant, communicated to the Board the unwillingness of him the said L'Enfant, to accept the $750, and requested the Common Council to reconsider the subject and to make him a greater allowance; whereupon it was determined not to reconsider the same.

The foregoing comprises a brief statement of all the facts that have come to the knowledge of your Committee on this subject, and they are such as plainly evince on the part of Mr. L'Enfant a disposition to value his services far above what they were deemed to be worth by the gentlemen composing the Common Council at the time they were rendered. The Committee do not pretend to judge of the value of these services, nor are they willing to decide as to the justice of Mr. L'Enfant's claim farther than what may be inferred from the entries in the Minutes of the Common Council, and from these it is concluded that, whatever his services were, they were rendered voluntarily, and without any stipulation for or expectation of a reward.

It is a question for the Board to decide, therefore, whether after the repeated rejection by Mr. L'Enfant of the liberal offers made him by the Common Council, he has still any claim on this Board.

The Committee think not, and they therefore offer the following resolution :

Resolved, That it is inexpedient to grant the request of P. C. L'Enfant.

S. Allen,
J. Hone,
J. Hammond,
B. Crane,
S. P. Brittain,

which was approved and the resolution adopted.

---

At a Common Council held the 18th. Day of August, 1824.

Resolved, That in testimony of the high respect which this Common Council entertain for George Washington De La Fayette, the Son of the Marquis De La Fayette, whose virtues they trust he bears with the Honored name of his father, be made a Freeman of the City of New York, and that the Certificate of Freedom, handsomely engrossed, be presented to him in a Golden Box.

---

At a meeting of the Common Council held the 23d.
Day of March, 1829.

Alderman Cebra presented the following Resolution in relation to presenting the Freedom of the City to the Honorable Martin Van Buren.

Whereas, The great and fundamental principle of the Compact forming the Union of these United States is, that the individual members thereof when called on, shall be ever ready to lend their utmost aid either in War, or in Council, in support of those sacred principles of civil liberty which we enjoy and hope and believe it is our high destiny in this happy land to continue to enjoy. Impressed with a due sense of this truth, the Common Council of the City of New York, while they deeply deplore the necessity which calls on the State to surrender to National Councils one of her brightest sons, cannot but view with pride and exultation the patriotism and Public Spirit which has actuated him in the acceptance of those arduous and responsible duties for the public good; and entertaining as we do the highest regard, not only for the pure republican principles which have uniformly marked the political course of their fellow citizen, the Honorable Martin Van Buren, they deem the present moment of their separation from him, a proper occasion for the expression of these sentiments of respect and attachment.

Therefore Resolved, That a copy hereof together with the Freedom of the City be presented to the Honorable Martin Van Buren as a testimony of the respect and esteem which the people of the City of New York entertain for his private worth and public services.

Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor, do carry the foregoing Resolution into effect.

On being read, Alderman Palmer moved that the same be laid on the table. The question being taken thereon, it passed in negative. The question was then taken on the Resolution and was carried in the affirmative.

At a Common Council held the 20th. Day of April,

The Hon. Walter Bowne, Mayor, President.

His Honor, the Mayor, laid before the Board a Letter from the Honorable Martin Van Buren, Secretary of State of the United States, expressing his thanks to the Common Council for their Resolution tendering the Freedom of the City to him, was read and directed to be filed.

The letter was as follows :

Washington, April 4, 1829.

Sir :

Your letter with the Resolution passed by the Common Council tendering to me the Freedom of the City, is received.

In communicating to that Honorable body my acceptance of this distinguished mark of their respect for my public services, and my grateful sense of the Honor they have conferred upon me, do me the favor to assure them of my hearty concurrence in the patriotic sentiments they have expressed, and which they have in so flattering a manner been pleased to attribute to me as the rule of my conduct.

In indulging a just pride in the present greatness, and a strong solicitude for the continued prosperity of a City, whose good fortune it is to have its affairs entrusted to persons so deserving of public confidence, as are your associates and yourself, I participate in feelings which are, I trust, as they certainly ought to be, common to every Citizen of our highly favored State.

Accept, with the assurance of my respects, my thanks for the kind manner in which you have discharged the duty imposed upon you by the Common Council, and be so good as to convey to its members individually my personal respect.

I have the honor to be Your Obt. Servant,
M. Van Buren.

The Hon. Walter Bowne.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 28th.
Day of May, 1832.

Resolved, That a Select Committee of three be appointed to confer with a Committee on the part of the Board of Assistant Aldermen, for the purpose of making arrangements to meet and receive the Hon. Martin Van Buren upon his return to his native State.

Resolved, That the said Committee make the necessary arrangements on the part of the Board for carrying into effect the resolution of the Common Council of 23d. March, 1829, ordering the Freedom of the City to be presented the Hon. Martin Van Buren, as a testimonial of the respect which they entertained for his private virtues and public services.* Adopted by the Assistants June 4. Approved by the Mayor June 8, 1832.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 27th.
Day of June, 1832.

Alderman Murray presented the following resolution, which was read, unanimously adopted, and directed to be sent to the Board of Assistant Aldermen for concurrence:

Whereas, The Common Council of the City of New York have been informed, that Commodore Daniel T. Paterson is now in this City, on his way to take command of the naval forces of the United States, in the Mediterranean, therefore

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to wait on Commodore Paterson, to convey to him the high sense entertained by this Common Council, of his public services and private virtues, and to present him with the Freedom of the City in a gold box, in token of his distinguished gallantry during the late war with Great Britain, and especially for the conspicuous part he bore in the glorious achievement at New Orleans.

The President appointed on that Committee Aldermen Murray, Whiting and Hall.

The Common Council convened yesterday, for the purpose of conferring on Commodore Patterson the mark of respect heretofore voted to him—the Freedom of the City and a gold box. After the two Boards had taken their seats, the Committee appointed conducted the Commodore into the room, accompanied by the following officers: Commodore Chauncey, Captain Stringham, Lieutenants McKenny, Chauncey, Byrne, Pettigrew, Auchmuty and Harwood; Sailing Master Bache; Dr. Baltzer, passed Midshipman Shuck, Midshipmen Potter, Barry, Auze, and McLane.

The Mayor addressed the Commodore in a neat speech, adverting to his past gallant services, particularly in the campaign in which New Orleans was defended. The long absence of the Commodore from his native State, had, he said, alone prevented a previous expression of the gratitude entertained by his fellow citizens here for his labors in defending the honor of his country. The Commodore in his reply, expressed himself peculiarly gratified that the tribute came from the city in which the days of his boyhood were passed; since which time, he had but little opportunity of intercourse with his fellow citizens of New York. He took the necessary oath “to defend the city, as far as in him lies,” and the Freedom was conferred upon him by delivering the proper official document.

It is to be noted, that if the battle of New Orleans could not have been advantageously lugged in, the Commodore might have, in all probability, won as many naval victories as all our Captains together, during the last war, without its being particularly remembered, at this juncture, by the Honorable the Corporation. The glorification was all for General Jackson, and a little for the Commodore. The fame of the one is to endure "as long as the waters of the Mississippi shall flow to the Atlantic," (the Gulf of Mexico meaning); but the other must be content, if his own lasts as long as Goose Creek shall flow to the Potomac. It was all, however, exceedingly proper; and such honors could not be conferred on a more gallant officer, or on a better man. N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, July 3d., 1832.

The frigate United States, weighs anchor this morning, from the Bay off the Battery, having on board Commodore Patterson, who proceeds to the Mediterranean as Commander of the squadron in that sea. Previous to the departure of Commodore Patterson, the Common Council invited him yesterday, to the Governor's Room in the City Hall, where the ceremony of presenting him with the Freedom of the City was performed by his Honor, the Mayor, [Walter Bowne]. The affair was conducted with great propriety, both on the part of the Corporation, and the gallant Commodore. The officers of the Navy present, were in full uniform. Commodore Patterson was heard to observe that a broadside from an enemy would have less effect on his feelings, than the compliment paid him; in the first case he should have felt at home; to the latter he was unused. The family of the Commodore accompany him. N. Y. Gazette and General Advertiser, July 3d., 1832.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 1st. Day of August, 1832.

A message was received from the Board of Assistant Aldermen, in favor of the payment of the expenses of the ceremony of presenting the Freedom of the City to Commodore Daniel T. Patterson, amounting to $341,83; which was read, concurred in and ordered to be sent to his Honor, the Mayor, for approval. Approved by the Mayor, August 11th., 1832.

The Freedom of the City.

The 20th. and 21st. sections of the Montgomerie Charter gave to the Mayor and four or more Aldermen, the power to make free citizens of the City, on payments of a fee not exceeding £5, to the use of the corporation. This was only a repetition of the power conferred by Governor Dongan's Charter.

The power contained in these two sections was formerly of momentous importance for the Charter, while it granted the power, at the same time prohibited all persons, other than such free citizens, to use any art, trade, mystery, or manual occupation, within the city, saving in the times of fairs; or to sell or expose to sale, any manner of merchandise or wares whatsoever, by retail when no fair was at the time kept in the city, under a penalty for each offence. It was further provided that no person should be made free as aforesaid, but native born, or naturalized, or denized subjects.

This chartered power has ceased to be of any importance, and is used only as a testimonial of respect or gratitude, on the part of the corporation, towards persons in high stations, or who may have entitled themselves to the honor by personal merit, or some distinguished service. There are instances in the annals of the corporation of this species of reward. But the admission to the freedom of the city, was, at the date of the charter, not only a token of honor, but a grant of substantial benefit. By making a person a freeman of the city, he became entitled to all its municipal privileges; and among others, to the right of voting for, and of being voted to corporate offices, and which right belonged only to corporate freemen and to freeholders, until the Charter was altered by statute, in 1804.

But although the exclusive privileges formerly conferred on the inhabitants of chartered towns and cities of pursuing commerce and exercising the mechanic arts, have fallen into discredit in Europe, among men of enlarged views and liberal policy as being impolitic monopolies, which restrain competition, damp the spirit of enterprise, check the free circulation of labor, and raise the price of commodities; and although such monopolies are utterly reprobated and abandoned in this country, yet they were originally introduced in Europe, and afterwards cherished during the disorder and violence of the middle ages, as invaluable barriers against the insecurity and oppression of the feudal system. They were ardently desired, and frequently granted by the benevolence or policy of princes, during the 12th and 13th centuries, who confirmed local usages and enabled the inhabitants of towns and cities to possess common property, and to have their feudal exactions either abolished or defined and limited, and to enjoy the inestimable privilege of being amenable only to their own municipal jurisdictions. Those incorporations conferred freedom on the feudal Serfs who escaped into them unless duly reclaimed. They were cities of refuge to the oppressed. This was the case in France and Germany, as well as in England. If a villain, says Glanville, b. 5, ch. 5, remained for a year and a day in any privileged town, which had franchises by prescription or charter, he became thenceforward a free member of the corporation. Manumission, said Lord Coke, (Co. Litt. 137, 6,) among other significations, meant "the incorporating of a man to be free of a company or body politic, as a freeman of a city, or burgh of a borough."

We are therefore not to be surprised that this ancient privilege (so tenacious is established usage) should continue to be cherished long after the occasion for it, and the reason of it had ceased: nor that it should have been inserted and continued by our ancestors in the early charters of New York. There has been, until recently, something dear and sacred attached to the very mention of chartered rights and privileges. We perceive ample proofs of this sentiment and feeling in all the early proceedings of our revolutionary patriots and statesmen. The Charter of the City of New York, with Notes by Chancellor Kent. 1836, page 152.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 12th Day of April, 1847.

Whereas, General Taylor and the gallant officers and brave men under his command, by their victory at Buena Vista on the 22d. and 23d. February last, and General Scott and the gallant officers and brave men under his command, by their brilliant achievement at Vera Cruz, have earned for themselves not only an ever enduring fame, but the approbation and thanks of their fellow-citizens; and therefore, be it

Resolved, That the thanks of the citizens of the City of New York are hereby given through us, their representatives, in Common Council convened, to General Taylor, the officers and men under his command, and to General Scott, the officers and men under his command, and to that portion of our navy who gallantly co-operated with them, for their unexampled victorious triumphs and exploits at Buena Vista and Vera Cruz.

Resolved, That in honor of the said great and glorious victories and conquests, a salute of one hundred guns be fired, under the direction of Major General Sanford, at noon of such day as the Mayor may designate, from the Battery and from Tompkins Square, and that the national flag be displayed from the public buildings and shipping in our harbor on such day, and that the City Hall be illuminated on the evening of that day, under the direction of the Committee of offices and Repairs. And

Whereas, The Common Council, whilst they rejoice and glory in the success of our arms, fully sympathise with the families and friends of the illustrious dead who lost their lives in defending the honor of our country and glory of its flag, on the field of Buena Vista and at Vera Cruz, and to testify their respect for their memories, therefore, be it

Resolved, That on the day succeeding that to be named for the purpose of the foregoing Resolution, the national flag be displayed at half-staff on all the public buildings and shipping in our harbor, and the bells of the several churches be tolled from noon to one o'clock of that day.

Resolved, That the Mayor transmit, through the War and Navy Departments of the United States, a certified copy of these Preambles and Resolutions, under the seal of the City, to General Scott, General Taylor, and the officers commanding the Navy in the attack on Vera Cruz, with a request that they will make the same known to the officers and men of their respective commands.

In commemoration of the victories of our arms at Buena Vista and Vera Cruz, in admiration of the skill and gallantry which has covered our nation with honor, and in gratitude for the signal benefits which have thus been secured to our country, the Common Council do resolve,

That the thanks of the City be presented to the armies under the command of General Taylor, and General Scott.

That the Freedom of the City be presented to Generals Taylor and Scott.

That swords be presented to General Scott and to General Worth, his second in command at Vera Cruz, and to General Taylor and General Wool, his second in command at Buena Vista.

That on the evening of [May 7th] instant, all the public buildings in the City be illuminated, and the citizens at large be requested at the same time to illuminate their dwellings.

That on the same day national salutes will be fired at the Battery, Park, Washington Parade Ground, Union Square, and Tompkins Square, and that a Committee be appointed to carry the above Resolutions into effect.

Resolved, That the Common Council of the City of New York highly approve the able and skillful manner in which this War has been conducted by the National Administration. Adopted by the Board of Assistants April 23d. Approved by the Mayor, April 24.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 24th. Day of July, 1848.

Whereas, The inhabitants of this City have at all times taken a lively interest in the welfare of the Navy of the United States, and whereas this right arm of our Nation's defence, has rendered the country gallant and efficient service in the late war with Mexico, both on the shores of the Pacific and the Atlantic coast, And

Whereas, The arrival in our harbor of the United States frigate Cumberland, bearing the broad pennant of Commodore Perry, offers an appropriate occasion to testify our appreciation of the gallantry and good conduct of our Navy generally, in the late war—therefore

Resolved, That the thanks of this Corporation, and of their constituents, be tendered to Commodore Matthew C. Perry and the officers and crew of his frigate, for their gallantry and good conduct in the late war with Mexico, and that the hospitalities of the City be tendered to them through a Committee, to consist of five from each Board.

Resolved, That the Freedom of the City of New York be presented to Commodore Matthew C. Perry, as a lasting testimonial of the gratitude and respect of its inhabitants, for his energy, gallantry, and good conduct while attached to, and in command of the Gulf Squadron during the late war with Mexico, and for his timely and efficient co-operation with the land forces of our country, whenever such co-operation could be rendered available. Adopted by the Board of Assistants, July 24. Approved by the Mayor, July 28.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held on the 18th. Day of September, 1848.

Whereas, It is a wise and prudent policy to notice with marks of approbation, any act of noble daring and heroic courage, whether accomplished upon the land or upon the sea, either by those high in authority, or in the humble walks of life, and to express our admiration of individuals who, regardless of themselves, and anxious only for the safety of their fellow men, hazard their own lives in an attempt to rescue and preserve those of others; and,

Whereas, In the recent calamity which occurred to the Ocean Monarch, upon her voyage from Liverpool to the United States, by which one hundred and seventy-eight persons were suddenly sacrificed, the disinterested courage and noble bravery of one of the crew of the American ship New World, was the means of rescuing from an awful death twelve helpless women and children, at the imminent hazard of his own life—and who also, upon the occasion of the stranding of the packet ship Henry Clay, at Barnegat, was instrumental in preserving property and lives, and who, in consideration of his late services and disinterested humanity, has received the congratulations of the Shipwreck and Humane Society of Great Britain, and distinguished marks of approbation from the Queen of England, the Prince de Joinville, and others, therefore

Resolved, That the Common Council of the City of New York, have heard with feelings of gratitude and deep interest of the noble daring, and gallant conduct of Frederick Jerome, a seaman on board of the American ship New World, who, at the imminent hazard of his own life, was the means of saving a number of persons from the wreck of the Ocean Monarch, upon the occasion of her recent destruction by fire, and for which he is entitled to, and we do hereby tender to him, the thanks of the inhabitants of the first Commercial City of the Western World, and commend him and his family to the care and attention of those whose duty it is to protect the interests of our gallant seamen.

Resolved, That the Freedom of the City be presented to the said Frederick Jerome, upon his arrival at this port, in a gold box, with suitable inscriptions, and that a Committee of three from each Board, be now appointed to carry the same into effect. Adopted by the Board of Assistants Sept. 25th. Approved by the Mayor Sept. 26th.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 4th. Day of January, 1850.

Whereas, The ship Caleb Grimshaw, belonging to the firm of Samuel Thompson & Nephew, of this city, was destroyed by fire, near the Azores, in the month of November last, while on her voyage from Liverpool to this port, with a valuable cargo, and a large number of passengers; and Whereas, five days after the discovery of the fire, all on board being in imminent peril, a sail was discovered, which proved to be the barque Sarah, of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, commanded by Captain David Cook, who, notwithstanding the sea was rough, the wind blowing a gale, immediately went to the rescue of those on board the Caleb Grimshaw, and after eight days perseverance and hard labor, succeeded in saving from a watery grave, nearly four hundred human beings; and Whereas, it is understood the barque Sarah, is soon to arrive at this port, therefore,

Resolved, That the said David Cook is eminently entitled to the gratitude of the civilized world, for the humanity and generosity evinced by him on the aforementioned melancholy occasion, and the thanks of the people of this city are hereby tendered to him, in consideration of his gallant and self-sacrificing conduct during the eight days he was striving to save the lives of the people of a New York ship.

Resolved, That the Freedom of the City be presented to the said David Cook in a gold box, as a feeble testimony of the high estimation in which he is held by the members of this Common Council, individually and collectively.

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and these resolutions be presented to Captain Cook, on his arrival in this city, or sent to him at Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, in case of his not entering this port.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 16th.
Day of January, 1854.

Whereas, It is a wise and prudent policy to notice with marks of approbation any act of noble daring and heroic courage, whether accomplished upon the land or upon the sea, and to express our admiration of individuals who, regardless of themselves and anxious only for the safety of their fellow men, hazard their own lives in an attempt to rescue and preserve those of others; and

Whereas, In the recent calamity which occurred to the ship San Francisco, upon her voyage from this port to San Francisco, by which the lives of upwards of one hundred and seventy persons were suddenly sacrificed, the disinterested courage and noble conduct of Captain Robert Creighton and crew of the British ship, Three Bells, from Glasgow, and bound to this port, was the means of rescuing from an awful death, two hundred and thirty persons, among whom were women and helpless children, and many officers and soldiers of our government—at the imminent hazard of their own lives, and who did so nobly stay by the unfortunate vessel for six days, during a severe gale of wind, and at a time when his ship was in a leaking condition, and heavily loaded with chloride of lime ; and

Whereas, Captain Low, of the bark Kilby, of Boston, did, at the same time, remain by the wreck of the above unfortunate vessel, and with his crew nobly aid and rescue the unfortunate passengers from the above named wreck, while at the same time his ship was in a leaky condition, short of provisions, and nearly destitute of sails, and

Whereas, Captain Stouffer, of the ship Antarctic, of New York, with his crew, did nobly aid, and, with heroic devotion endeavor to rescue the passengers from the above unfortunate vessel, and

Whereas, Captain C. B. Pendleton, of the American ship Lucy Thompson, of New York, did generously aid in bringing into this port a portion of the surviving passengers, therefore,

Resolved, That the Common Council of the city of New York have heard with feelings of gratitude and deep interest of the daring and gallant conduct of the officers and crews of the above-named vessels, who, at the imminent hazards of their lives, were the means of saving a large number of persons from the San Francisco, upon the occasion of her recent shipwreck, and for which they are entitled to, and we hereby tender to them the thanks of the inhabitants of this, the first commercial city of the Western World, and commend them and their families to the care and attention of those whose duty it is to protect the interest of our gallant seamen.

Resolved, That the Freedom of this city be tendered to Captain Robert Creighton, of the ship Three Bells, and to Captain Edwin J. Low, of the bark Kilby, and a copy of this resolution, and a committee of three be appointed to carry the same into effect. Adopted by the Board of Councilmen Jan. 19th. Approved by the Mayor Jan. 20th.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 22d. Day of April, 1861.

The following resolutions were adopted :

Resolved, That the thanks of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York, are hereby tendered to Major Robert Anderson, of the United States Army, for his gallant defense of Fort Sumter, against a vastly superior force of men, guns, and fortifications ; that as an evidence of the high appreciation of this municipality for the faithful manner in which he discharged the delicate and responsible duties which devolved upon the commandant of that fort, the Freedom of the City be and is hereby conferred upon Major Anderson, in token of which it is directed that a gold box be presented to him by his Honor, the Mayor, and that for this purpose the sum of     be appropriated. And be it further

Resolved, That the Governor's Rooms in the City Hall be, and they are hereby placed at the disposal of Major Anderson, for any day upon which it may be convenient for him to receive the congratulations of the inhabitants of this City.

Resolved, That a select committee of the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Councilmen, to consist of five members of each Board, be appointed to carry the foregoing resolutions into effect.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions be suitably engrossed, and transmitted to Major Anderson by the joint committee.

Resolved, That the sum of five hundred dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated for the purchase of a gold box, to be presented to Major Robert Anderson, of the United States Army, in token of the Freedom of the City, conferred upon him for gallant and distinguished services at Fort Sumter. Adopted by the Councilmen April 29. Approved by the Mayor, May 1, 1861.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 5th.
Day of June, 1862.

The following message was received from his Honor the Mayor, vetoing the resolution extending the hospitalities of this City to Thurlow Weed, Esq. :

Mayor's Office, June 5, 1862.

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen :

Gentlemen—I return without my approval the preamble and resolution tendering to Mr. Thurlow Weed, the Freedom of the City, and instructing the Committee on National Affairs “to take such steps as may be proper to extend to him the hospitalities of the city on his arrival here, and extend to him a public reception.”

The ceremonies and ovation contemplated by this resolution necessarily involve the expenditure of public money. All doubt on this point is removed by the rejection of an amendment to the resolution offered in the Board of Councilmen, providing that no expense shall be incurred thereby.

Such being the character of the resolution, the City Charter requires that it shall receive the votes of three-fourths of all the members elected to each branch of the Common Council. Section forty-two of that instrument is in these words: “No money shall be expended by the Corporation for any celebration, procession, or entertainment of any kind, or on any occasion, unless by the votes of three-fourths of all the members elected to each Board of the Common Council.”

On examination of the official proceedings of the Common Council, I find that this resolution failed to receive the vote required by this section, and is, therefore, clearly illegal.

Candor requires me to add, that if this insuperable objection to the resolution had not existed, there are others which would have constrained me to withhold my approval.

George Opdyke, Mayor.

Which was received, laid on the table, and directed to be printed at length in the minutes, and published in all the newspapers employed by the Corporation.

Among the passengers by the Persia yesterday was Mr. Thurlow Weed, of the Albany Evening Journal, who has been designated by some of our contemporaries on the other side of the water as the "Warwick," of the Northern States. How far this title may be applicable to the modest, retiring gentleman, who has for so many years filled so large a space in the annals of the history of our State, it is not for the reporter to say ; but that he bears his honors meekly, must be truly said and written. Mr. Weed, who went to Europe as a private citizen, returns to be crowned with municipal laurels, and honored with municipal attentions.

On the arrival of the Persia yesterday, Mr. Weed was met first by intimate personal friends, who had notice of his coming—Messrs. Dawson, James Davis, H. G. Hastings, J. E. Coulter, and others—whose greeting was as informal as it was hearty. Alderman Smith, chairman of the joint committee appointed by the Common Council to tender to him the hospitalities of the city and a public reception, was then introduced, much to Mr. Weed's surprise, but in answer to the prepared speech of the Alderman, he simply thanked them for the great courtesy extended to him, as unexpected as it was unusual, and asked time to consider what action he should take upon the occasion. The N. Y. Times, June 6, 1862.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 16th.
Day of June, 1862.

The veto message of the Mayor, of resolution extending the hospitalities of the city to Thurlow Weed, was taken from the table and the resolution passed, notwithstanding the objection of the Mayor by a division ; yeas 13, nays 3.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 7th.
Day of July, 1862.

The Committee on National Affairs, to whom were referred a preamble and resolution, tendering the hospitalities of the city to Thurlow Weed, Esq., having undertaken the performance of the pleasing duty assigned them, presented Mr. Weed, as a part of the proposed ceremonies incident to the occasion, a duly authenticated copy of the said preamble and resolution, properly engrossed,* to which the accompanying reply from Mr. Weed was received, declining the offer of such hospitalities, and which your Committee desire to present to the Common Council.

Albany, July 1. 1862.

Gentlemen :—I received, with a grateful sense of the honor they confer, the very flattering resolution adopted by the Common Council of our Commercial Metropolis. I accept them, frankly and proudly, as emanations rather of your own generous constructions than as merited by any service it may have been in my power to render our country.

If, during a temporary residence in Europe, I have been enabled, in some degree, to relieve the complication in which our affairs were involved ; to do something towards vindicating our Government from unjust aspersions ; or to aid in turning back the tide of popular sentiment, setting so strongly against our cause, it was owing to the prompt and generous confidence reposed in me by our distinguished representatives in England and France. In bearing testimony, as is both a duty and a pleasure, to the ability and fidelity of Mr. Adams and Mr. Dayton, I cannot forbear to add that, rising above considerations which might have disturbed Ministers less truly devoted to their country, they not only accepted unofficial co-operation, but disembarrassed my colleagues and myself, by cheerfully facilitating our efforts. It is a pleasure, also, to add that, on several occasions and in essential ways, I was efficiently aided by Mr. Sanford, our indefatigable Minister to Belgium. Nor could the Government, in a season of trial and difficulty, have made happier selections of Consuls in Paris and London. Messrs. Bigelow and Morse are discharging their responsible duties in a manner worthy of all praise.

* Mr. Weed returned to the United States in June. As he stepped off the steamer he was met by a committee of the Common Council delegated to inform him that in recognition of his services in Europe, he had been tendered, by a unanimous vote, the Freedom of the City of New York ; which would be presented in a costly gold box, at a public dinner given by the city in honor of the recipient, that custom having been established when this distinguished honor was conferred upon Washington and Lafayette. Memoir of Thurlow Weed, by Thurlow Weed Barnes, 1884, page 413.

Our government was by no means too prompt in inviting some of its citizens to visit Europe. It is to be regretted that two or three eminent gentlemen, to whom it is understood that invitation extended, were unable to accept it, for the field was large and the laborers few. In the designation of Archbishop Hughes, and Bishop McIlvaine, however, the Government was peculiarly fortunate. The services of these enlightened and eminent divines and devoted Union men, the former in Paris, and the latter all over England, were seasonable and effective. Their exalted positions, their high characters, and their fervid zeal, gave weight and authority to their statements and opinions.

Secession, while undermining for ultimate rebellion, was thoughtful of the importance of the favor of Europe. The South, with its long-cherished purpose, worked as diligently abroad as at home. The North, unconscious of the great crime meditated, slept. Active emissaries of secession, aided too often by sympathizing Ministers and Consuls, settled the public mind on the other side of the Atlantic against us. Public opinion was formed against the Union, before our side of the question was presented, or heard. By turning truth end for end, and reading history backwards, we were held by Europeans as the aggressors! The last three months of Mr. Buchanan's Administration were almost as injurious abroad as at home; for there, as here, loyal men only occupied the places of disloyal Cabinet and Foreign Ministers, too late to nip rebellion in the bud.

Unfortunately, there were causes, as well as pretexts, for the lack of sympathy which we encountered in Europe. The governments of the old world remember that, from the nature of our institutions, our own sympathies have generally run with those who have struggled to overthrow monarchies, and that we have shown alacrity in recognizing the independence of such as struggled successfully. With the nations most intimately connected with us the "Morrill Tariff" was regarded with great disfavor. In England it was believed that we not only cherished unfriendly feelings towards that country, but that we desired a disruption of friendly relations. The emissaries of rebellion seized upon these causes and pretexts, to turn the current of feeling in their favor. It was, too, plausibly urged, that the difference in climate, soil, habits, and "want of congeniality" between the North and South constituted such radical discordance, that our Union had become an impossibility. Indeed these fallacies were so successfully pressed, that Mr. Gladstone, in a recent speech at Manchester, stated that the Union was but a co-partnership, dissoluble whenever passion or caprice prompted, in any of the parties, a desire to withdraw. That eminent statesman—if, for a moment we adopt his theory—overlooked, or ignored the circumstance, that our secession copartners, in retiring, broke open the safe, and stole valuable securities, the common property of the firm—or, in other words, that, in separating, they seized the fortifications, the arms, the Custom-houses, the post-offices, and the public moneys—acts of treason in a public, or of robbery in a private sense, which would, perpetrated in England, have consigned them to the Tower or the penitentiary.

While England, France, Belgium, and Germany begin to experience serious inconvenience and embarrassment from their short supply of cotton, I do not apprehend immediately, that these Governments will interfere, though, with the two former, the subject has been considered. It is proper to say that France is even more impatient than England; not, however, from unfriendliness, but because the emperor assumes, in absence of employment, to supply his people with food.

But we have nothing to fear from Europe, if we are successful in the prosecution of the war. Fort Donelson, Nashville, Winchester, New Orleans, and Memphis are our strongest arguments against intervention, with Governments that determine all questions by military measurement.

There are, however, but too well-founded reasons for apprehending future embroilment with England. Nor can I doubt the propriety of dwelling briefly, but earnestly, upon a danger fraught with consequences so vital to the welfare of both nations. The Trent affair, though happily, because rightfully, settled, has left an arrow with poisoned barb festering in our flesh, and irritating our nerves. The impression that England, willing to take us at disadvantage, availed herself of the erring judgment or impulsive zeal of a naval commander, to wage war upon us, has obtained throughout our country. That England expected war, and intended war, making with unparalleled alacrity, and in gigantic proportions, preparations for war, is admitted to be true. But, with opportunities favorable to a correct understanding of the views of the English Government, and of the feelings that swayed the English mind, I am bound, in truth and fairness, to say, that that Government and people sincerely believed that we desired a rupture with them; that we sought occasion to taunt and snub them; and, egregiously unfounded as the supposition was, that the present Secretary of State was the representative of this hostile sentiment. In justification of these impressions, it was said that by "bullying" we obtained advantages in the settlement of the north-eastern and Vancouver boundary questions; that we abruptly dismissed their Minister, Mr. Crampton, and their consul, Mr. Barclay; that our sympathies, in their war with Russia, were with their enemy; that we had often threatened to wrest Canada from them; and, finally, that Secretary Seward had avowed hostile intentions towards England.

Some of these grounds of complaint were, as we know, well taken, and all were believed to be so.

We all felt that the recognition of the Southern Confederacy as a belligerent, by England and France, was an over-hasty and ungracious act. But, in submitting the proposition to the French emperor, the English crown lawyers enforced it by arguments which, from that standpoint, were forcible. Both Governments supposed that the insurgent States had, or could fit out vessels of war, and wished to relieve themselves from the responsibility of treating such vessels as pirates. In this they erred; for, without the impunity thus extended to them, not even the Nashville or Sumter would ever have ventured to sea.

But, notwithstanding these adverse influences, and the existence, in certain high quarters, of views not friendly to the success of our form of government, the Union has many ardent, well-wishing friends in England, and can have many more, if we act justly ourselves, and labor to correct grossly erroneous impressions. The paths of peace are the only paths of pleasantness for England and America. In view of dangers which I do not exaggerate—dangers growing out of mutual misapprehension of each other's real sentiments—it behooves the Government, the Press and the People of both countries, by enlightened counsels, large toleration, and wise forbearance, to soothe, rather than stimulate existing irritation. Nor in forming our estimate of the degree and value of English sympathy during our domestic troubles, is the fact, that her Queen and House of Commons modified harsh dispatches and resisted unfriendly legislation, without significance.

To have been deemed worthy, by the Boards of Aldermen and Councilmen of the city of New York, of the high municipal honors which their resolutions confer, is a distinction of which any man would be proud—to me it is a treasure more “precious than rubies” or “fine gold.” In again thanking you for this undeserved honor, I beg to assure you that, while I may be unable to justify this partiality, I shall at least do nothing that will induce the Common Council to regret its action.

Born upon the banks of the Hudson River, my advent in the city of New York, in the year 1807, was in the capacity of cabin-boy to the sloop Jefferson, Capt. Jacobus Bogardus, of Catskill; and my first entrance to the city, from Coenties slip up Broad street, with the trunk of a passenger on my shoulder, is a well-remembered incident. Subsequently, in 1816, '17 and '18, I wrought there as a journeyman printer. Having, therefore, obtained an early foothold in our great metropolis, and witnessed its wonderful growth, its unparalleled prosperity, and its unfolding material and intellectual glories, during a period which has augmented its population from less than one hundred thousand to more than a million, you will pardon the weakness which confesses its pride in being invested with the Freedom of a city destined to become what London is—a centre and depository of the wealth, power and wisdom of the world.

In declining the hospitalities which your resolutions contemplate, and your Committee tender—though your own generous sympathies need no prompting—permit me to suggest that the city's good cheer be reserved for and dispensed among the survivors of the gallant men who uphold the cause of the Union in sanguinary battles, with a steadiness and heroism which entitle them to our affection and gratitude.

Respectfully and truly

Your obedient servant,

Thurlow Weed.

Whereas, Rear-Admiral David Glasgow Farragut, the heroic chief of the Western Gulf Blockading Squadron, is now temporarily residing in this city; and

Whereas, The indomitable energy, unsurpassed skill, and heroic intrepidity that have characterized the career of Admiral Farragut, from the period of his entrance into the Navy of the United States, when a mere boy of nine years of age, until the present time, when he takes rank among the veterans of the naval service, a career that commenced as a midshipman on board the world-renowned Essex, Commodore David D. Porter, and was inaugurated in the terrific contest between that vessel and the British ships Phœbe and Cherub, in the harbor of Valparaiso, during the war of 1812, and which culminated in the passage of Forts

Jackson and St. Philip, and the Chalmete Batteries, mounting over two hundred and fifty guns, the dispersion, destruction, or capture of the enemy's flotilla of about twenty vessels, guarding the Mississippi, below New Orleans; the capture of that city; the passage and bombardment of the fortifications at Vicksburg, Grand Gulf, Warrenton, Baton Rouge, and Donaldsonville, achievements which, combined with the victories of the land forces of the United States, under General Grant at Vicksburg, and General Banks at Port Hudson, resulted in dividing in twain the so-called Confederate States; in paralyzing their resistance to the legitimate Government of the Union; in rendering nugatory the efforts of a most determined, unscrupulous and desperate domestic foe to accomplish the disruption of this, the most liberal government in the world, and which eventuates in opening to the commerce of the nation the inestimable blessings and advantages of the free navigation of the "Father of Waters," from its source to its embouchures—a career so unrivalled and brilliant, that it must challenge the admiration of the world, and particularly of every lover of this country and its free institutions; and

Whereas, The exhibition of such rare patriotism, devotion to and love of country in one who is a native of, and was domiciled in one of the disaffected States, at the time of the outbreak of the rebellion, and who so manfully resisted every overture made, and advantage proffered to assist in betraying his country, by those who had sworn to be its defenders, but adds, were such an addition possible, to the reputation of Rear-Admiral David G. Farragut, for honesty, integrity, and patriotic devotion to his country, at that time in the utmost need of the services of her children, particularly of those whom she had educated and fostered—thus presenting another among the many instances where citizens of Southern birth have proved themselves "faithful among the faithless," and whose adhesion to the cause of the Union and the Constitution, but tends to prove the hopelessness of their destruction, and the futility of the attempt of the traitors then and now in arms for their subversion ; and

Whereas, It is in an especial manner the duty, as it is the pride of this Common Council, the representatives of the great commercial centre of this hemisphere, to bear willing testimony to the appreciation by themselves and their constituents of the patriotic worth, heroic valor, and untiring energy displayed by Admiral Farragut in every position he has occupied during his long, eventful, and useful life, in which he has had an opportunity of exhibiting to an admiring country those great and manly qualities, so characteristic of the American Navy, and as it is equally the duty of this Common Council to add their feeble tribute of admiration and respect for one in so pre-eminent a degree deserving of such a mark of esteem, with a view of perpetuating to our remotest posterity, the bright record of the name and fame of Rear-Admiral David G. Farragut, and in the hope of inspiring to deeds of emulation the youth of the "Great Republic ;" be it therefore

Resolved, That the Freedom and hospitalities of this city be, and hereby are, respectfully tendered, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York on behalf of its inhabitants, to Rear-Admiral David Glasgow Farragut ; that he hereby is earnestly requested to visit the Governor's Room, in the City Hall, on any day most suitable to his convenience, to receive formally the congratulations of the municipal authorities, and of affording our citizens an opportunity of paying their respects, personally, to the "Hero of the Mississippi ;" and the Committee on National Affairs of both branches of the Common Council are hereby authorized to make the necessary arrangements for carrying into effect the provisions of this resolution ; and be it further and resolution be suitably engrossed, duly authenticated, and appropriately framed, and presented to Admiral Farragut.

*Adopted by the Board of Councilmen, August 14th.
Approved by the Mayor, August 17th.*

At a meeting of the Board of Councilmen held the 29th. Day of December, 1864.

Whereas, Intelligence has reached this Common Council that Vice-Admiral David Glasgow Farragut and Captain Percival Drayton, of the United States Navy, are at present staying in the city of New York; and

Whereas, It is appropriate and becoming that public notice should be taken of the arrival within our midst of two such distinguished representatives of American seamen, and that full opportunity be allowed our fellow-citizens to meet with and congratulate them on the glorious results of their achievements; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Freedom and hospitalities of the City of New York are hereby tendered to Vice-Admiral David Glasgow Farragut and Captain Percival Drayton by this Common Council, acting in behalf of their fellow-citizens, and that they are respectfully invited to visit the Governor's Room in the City Hall, on any day they may deem proper to designate, to receive the congratulations of the municipal authorities, and to afford an opportunity to the citizens in general of paying their respects to those intrepid and distinguished guests. Adopted by the Board of Aldermen Dec. 31st. Approved by the Mayor, Dec. 31st.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held the 27th. Day of August, 1866.

Whereas, His Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, will visit this city on Wednesday next, the 29th. instant, while en route for the city of Chicago ; and

Whereas, It is due, as well to the exalted position he occupies as the Chief Executive officer of the Republic as to the ability, patriotism, and devotion to the best interests of the nation that have characterized his administration of the duties incident to this great office, that the people of this metropolis should, in a manner befitting the occasion, and through their representatives in the Common Council, be afforded an opportunity of testifying their respect and regard for him, personally, and of demonstrating their admiration for the eminently wise, national, and conciliatory measures proposed and adopted by him in his untiring efforts to inaugurate and perpetuate a new era of kindness and fraternal regard between all the States and people comprising the American Union ; be it, therefore

Resolved, That a Special Committee of five members from each branch of the Common Council be appointed, to act conjointly with His Honor, the Mayor, to wait on His Excellency, Andrew Johnson, upon his arrival in this city, and tender to him the Freedom and hospitalities of the city of New York ; that the Governor's Room in the City Hall be placed at his disposal in which to receive the congratulations of our citizens ; and that the Committee be, and hereby is authorized and empowered to make such other and necessary arrangements as will afford the people of the city an opportunity of manifesting their affection for the President and of testifying their adherence and devotion to the principles entertained and advocated by him, of good-will, peace and reconciliation between all sections of our common country. Adopted by the Councilmen, August 27th. Approved by the Mayor, August 27th.

At a Common Council held August 3d. 1732.

Resolved that this Corporation do Address his Excellency the Governour on his Safe and happy Arrival to this his Government, and that Mr. Recorder, Alderman Cruger, Alderman Philipse, Alderman Rutgers and Mr. Chambers or any three of them be a Committee to prepare the said Address. That this Corporation do also present his Excellency with the Freedom thereof and that the Seal be inclosed in a Gold Box. That the same Committee do Enquire of his Excellency if he will do this Corporation the Honour to dine with them & when and what time will suit his Excellencys Conveniency. That the same Committee do give Necessary Orders for Making the said Gold Box and for preparing a Dinner Agreeable to the Occasion.

At a Common Council held August 8th. 1732.

The following Address to his Excellency William Cosby, Capt. General and Governour in Chief of this Province &c; was read and unanimously approved and signed by this Court; And Ordered this Court do wait upon his Excellency with the same to-morrow and also present his Excellency with the Freedom of this Corporation with the Seal thereof in a Gold Box, and that his Excellency be invited to do this Corporation the Honour to dine with them the same day.

To His Excellency WILLIAM COSBY, Esqr. Captain General & Governour in Chief of the Provinces of New York, New Jersey and Territories depending thereon in America and Vice Admiral of the same and Colonel in his Majestys Army.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of this his Majestys most Ancient City and Corporation of New York in the Colony of New York in America

May it please your Excellency,

The Corporation of this City of New York Attends you to Congratulate Your Excellency's, Your Lady's, and Your familys Safe and happy Arrival in Your Government where we hope Your Excellency's Administration will give you ease and Tranquility Equal to what it promises.

His Majesty has ever been so Exceedingly Gracious to this Province as in giving us a Governour to give us a Guardian of his People here and that most tender Care of his distant Subjects after our late much lamented loss he has Renewed to us in Your Excellency who have been pleased to give us Your Protection before we were in a Capacity to be Gratefull for it.

Sir, It is an unspeakable Comfort to us that while you have successfully Opposed the attacks of our too Ambitious friends the Sugar Colonies, you are still in a more Exalted Circumstance placed at the head of a Frontier People who upon any sudden or unexpected Rupture may have Occasion to Sue to your Excellency, that you would again Exert that Valour, Conduct and Experience which has so Eminently signalized your Excellency as a Soldier.

Sir, As Trade is the Support of this Colony and this City the Center of that Trade, we hope your Excellency will Countenance and Protect us in the Enjoyment of all our Rights and Priviledges: And as we are Gratefully Sensible of your Excellency's past favour we will Unanimously Endeavour to deserve the Continuance of them.

We are May it please your Excellency

Ordered that the Freedom Granted by this Corporation to Andrew Hamilton Esq. with the Report of the Committee for preparing A draught of the same and the Order of this Court thereon may be Printed.

City Records.

Round on the Lid of the Box, mentioned in the aforesaid Report and Order, there is engraved not only the Arms of the City of New York, but also this Motto in a Garter :

Demersæ Leges-Timefacta Libertas-Hæc Tandem Emergunt

On the inner side of the Lid of the Box, shewing itself at the same Time with the Certificate of the Freedom ; There is engraven in a flying Garter, these Words

Non Nummis,—Virtute Paratur.

Ita Cuique Eveniat, Ut De Republica Meruit.

Which Freedom and Box was presented in the Manner that had been directed, and gratefully accepted by the said Andrew Hamilton.

The following Lines, give the true Sense of the three Latin Motto's.

The Laws suppress'd and Freedom gasping lay,
But shot at length a more refulgent Ray.

Unmoved by filthy Lucre's golden store,
Instant he flew, at Virtue's awful Lore.

Thus may each patriot gain the high Applause,
Earn'd by each Patriot in his Country's Cause.

The original certificate of Freedom, written in large German text upon vellum, as well as the gold box which accompanied it, is in the possession of Septimus H. Palairret, Esq., of "The Grange," near Bradford, England, who married a great-great-grand-daughter of Mr.

Hamilton. The gold snuff-box is of oval form, three inches in length by two in breadth, and is three-fourths of an inch deep. Upon the box are the arms of the city. The box is very heavy, and of very yellow pure gold.

On Wednesday last in the Fore-noon a fire broke out in the Roof of the City Hall, at some distance from the Chimney, but by the immediate Attendance of the Magistrates, and the Assistance of the Inhabitants (who have always been remarkable for their Readiness and Dexterity on such Occasions) it was soon extinguished.

Three Persons were observed to be extraordinarily active and useful ; one was Francis Davison, a Carpenter, (being the same Person that was so Instrumental in extinguishing the Fire formerly in the Cupola of the new Dutch Church) who got out upon the Roof, with an Axe, and cut the Roof open where the Fire was, the Engines at the same time playing the Water upon him, and the Weather being intensely cold, by the time the Fire was out he was cloathed with Ice. The other two Persons Duncan Brown Mate, and John Ebbets Marriener, belonging to a Vessel in the Harbour. The next day the Corporation met, and sent for said Francis Davison, Duncan Brown and John Ebbets, when the Mayor returned them the Thanks of the Corporation for their good Services and ordered seven Pounds to be paid to the said Francis Davison, and four Pounds each to the said Duncan Brown and John Ebbets, by their Treasurer ; and also ordered each of them to be presented with the Freedom of the Corporation, as an Encouragement to others to behave with the same Spirit and diligence on such Occasions. It is not certainly known how the Fire began, but as it first took under the Shingles in a Room where two Criminals were Confined, and at a considerable Distance from the Chimney, it is generally believed the Fire was put there by those Criminals.

No. 71.

To His Excellency The Honourable George Clinton Governour in Chief etc.

The Humble Petition of Several of his Majesty's Loyal Subjects and Freemen of this flourishing City of New York under the Care and auspicious Government of Your Excellency

Most humbly Sheweth unto Your Excellency

That not only for and during these tumultuous and dangerous times, when his Majesty's Dominions at home and abroad are attempted and endangered by Subtil and unnatural ingraterfull Enemys, We his and Your most constant and zealous Subjects are invaded and attacked by illegal and circumventing malpractices, against the peace and Interests and priviledges of this City and its Denizens, by Sundry and numerous persons, not Freemen of this City, but Inhabitants of the Neighbouring provinces, and more especially of the Jerseys, who in Several numerous Companys Several times heretofore have and still do make a practice of coming into this City after the laying of our taxes yearly there to exercise their Several handicraft trades such as Carpenters, Bricklayers &c. undermining Us the ancient Freemen of the aforesaid City, by offering the Services of themselves, Journeymen and Servants, at Sundry places, and as many Sundry times at the Rate of 20 or 30 Pounds per Job or distinct article of Workmanship less than has been agreed for by us, and so proportionably to every Agreement or Undertaking, we Shall or can make They the said Invaders to Our Libertys and propertys and indeed Our Livelihood Our All, sometime before the collecting such Taxes yearly as aforesaid carrying away Such Moneys so Surreptitiously got here, with them into the Jerseys to pay for their Lands, and Livings there and to Support their own Government, not so much as buying a pair of Shoes in the City of New York but frequently bringing Nails and other Materials for Building &c. along with them from the Jerseys and other provinces. Now may it please Your Excellency (who are well known and beloved for Your most remarkable and tender Regard, towards persons in Distress even Strangers to You) That You would out of Your Paternal Care and Benevolence to Us Your Excellency's oppressed petitioners and people, exert Your Authority and goodly Offices towards Such and Such under You, in the said Government, and City, As in your most prudent Judgment, You shall think proper for the Remedy and prevention of this not growing but long practiced Evil and Grievance. That Your Excellency's aforesaid most humble Petitioners may be the better enabled to Love Our Said gracious Sovereign, and his most honorable Governor and his Country as we heretofore and hitherto chearfully have done. And also gain Relief for Our Selves and Familys which otherwise must inevitably Suffer or be compelled to leave this Our Country and these Our Settlements. But hope better things, and dont in the least distrust the Goodness and tender Regards of Your Excellency and for whose Welfare

Your Excellency's

Endorsed Copy Petition presented to The Govr. and read in Council 2d. April 1747. Referred to a Committee. Report upon it verbaly 10th. April 1747. Advised the Govr to give for Answer to the petitioners That they should pursue the ordinary and regular method prescribed by the Laws of the City.

May it please Your Excellency,

In pursuance of Your Excellency's Orders in Council of the 2d. day of April Instant we have proceeded to consider of the Petition of the persons Stileing themselves Freemen of the City of New York thereby referred to us. And the Council beg leave to report their Opinion thereon as followeth touching Bricklayers and Carpenters.

First, As to the Grievance complained of whenever any there be The City Charter has prescribed a Remedy which is when any Stranger comes into this City and exercises any Trade or Occupation upon application and complaint to the Mayor he is to order such person to appear at the next Mayor's Court and to take up his Freedom or in Default he is Subject to the penalty of 5 £. and so if he continue to exercise such Occupation 5 £. for every such Default after Notice.

Secondly, The Council observe there are about Ninety nine Names to this Petition. That the Bulk of the persons who may be supposed to have subscribed their Names are obscure people altogether unknown to us in person and name excepting very few of them. If they are Freemen and there be at this time any real cause for such complaint, they must be very ignorant and forgetful of the Obligations of the Oath of a Freeman of this City which is "The Franchise and Customs thereof to maintain and the City to keep harmless in that which in there is" and therefore the Council are of Opinion it becomes the Duty of every Freeman when the privileges of the Citizens are invaded (to use the words of the petition) and who is apprized thereof to warn the Mayor that the Remedy given by Charter may be applied.

This we humbly conceive to be the regular and ordinary Answer.

Endorsed. April 1747, Report upon Petition of Bricklayers & Carpenters to the Governor.

Reported Memorial. The Council advise to the Govr. to give for Answer. Let the petition pursue the Ordinary & regular methods prescribed by the Laws of the City.

This Board having Ordered a Draft of an Address To his Excellency the Governour to be prepared, a Draft was accordingly produced and read in the words following.

To His Excellency Sir DANVERS OSBORN, Baronet, Captain General and Governour in Chief of the Province of New York and the Territories thereon Depending in America and Vice Admiral of the same.

May it Please your Excellency,

We the Mayor Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York Beg Leave most heartily to Congratulate Your Excellency upon Your appointment to the Government of this Colony and Your Safe Arrival amongst us.

As the Course of your Education and Your abilities for Publick affairs abundantly qualify You for the high Station to which You are advanced and the Important Trust reposed in You by our head Sovereign ; so must Your affluent fortune Naturally Dispose You to Discharge Your Office with Integrity and Resolution.

While we Cannot on the one hand Expect the favourable Smiles of his Majesty (who has ever proved himself the father of his People) without the Chearful submission to his Prerogative, which is the Indispensible Duty of all his Loyal Subjects ; so are we on the other Hand, sufficiently assured, that Your Excellency will ever be Ready to Vindicate our Legal Rights and Priviledges, and be as averse from Countenancing as we from Brooking any Infringments of our Inestimable Liberties, Civil and Religious.

As Your Excellency's Arrival, must remove Every Pretence for those Animosities, which have, for some time Past, unfortunately subsisted Amongst us ; we flatter ourselves that they will be Buried in Oblivion, and Happily succeeded by a firm and uninterrupted Peace and Tranquility, and that Every one in a Publick Station will shew himself influenced by a Publick Spirit ; while we all agree it will scarcely be Possible to differ about the Means of Promoting the true Interest of the Community. This we hope and Believe is the sincere Design of the Good People of this City, and herein we are Confident of having the Honour of Your Excellency's hearty Concurrence.

To which His Excellency was Pleased to Return the following Answer.

Mr. Mayor ; and Gentlemen of the Corporation

I Return You my Hearty Thanks for Your kind Congratulations, and Benevolent Sentiments upon the Present Ocasion I shall always make it my Utmost Endeavour to Deserve Your Esteem by always Concurring in such measures as May Promote in Every Branch the True Interest Peace and Tranquility of this City and Community.

This Board Having ordered the Draft of an Address to his Excellency Jeffrey Amherst Esqr. Major Generall and Commander in Chief of all his Majesty's Forces in North America &c. To be prepared, a Draft was accordingly produced and Read in the words Following (Vizt.)

To his Excellency JEFFREY AMHERST, Esqr. Major Generall and Commander in Chief of all his Majesty's Forces in North America, &c. &c.

The Cordial Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the Antient City of New York in Common Councill Convened.

May it please your Excellency,

To the United Suffrages of the British world in favour of your Excellency's distinguished merit, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York, Beg leave to add their most graetful Tribute of Thanks for the invaluable Services wrought by your Superiour Wisdom and Valour in annexing the Extensive Country of Canada to his Majesty's Dominions in America, An Acquisition so inestimable in itself, so pregnant with the most important Consequences cannot fail to shine with a supreme Lustre amidst the most luminous Events, and give to its Author Rank Exalted in the Train of British Worthies, minutely to describe the Innumerable Advantages Resulting from so signal a Conquest would be a vain Attempt. Let Millions yet unborn mark the Distinguished Blessings as they Rise and while they Reap the happy Fruits of your martial Virtues they will not Cease to Bless the name of Amherst. Yet that we ourselves may not seem insensible of our Happiness permit us, Sir, to Turn our Eyes to the wide Extended Frontiers of our many fair Colonies, over which his sacred Majesty has so long swayed his Gracious sceptre, how strangely altered is the amazing scene!—There the savage Native and more savage Canadian was lately wont to seize the Defenceless and inoffending Peasant doomed with his Tender wife and helpless Children to the most excruciating Death or a more Dreadfull Captivity Hence an Universal Horror seized the Borderers, To this succeeded a Generall Dereliction; and the numerous settlements abandoned to the Relentless fury of an insatiate foe were soon Reduced to dismal and undistinguished Ruin, Husbandry Felt the Fatal Effects of such a Waste of Country; and this City famous for its extensive Commerce Beheld and wept the Diminution of its Staple; Thus Besides the keenest sympathy for our suffering Fellow Subjects we have acted our own sad parts in the Affecting Tragedy.—But Canada is no more—The Peasant may Return in Security to his Fields; Husbandry will soon Revive, the face of nature smile with the Blessings of peace; and this Flourishing City rejoice in the Plenty of its markets. This surprizing Change we attribute with the most humble Gratitude to the paternal Care of our most gracious Sovereign in appointing your Excellency to Conduct his Victorious Armies in America. Our Restless Enemies, possessed of the Two Great Rivers of St. Lawrence and Mississippi, long since formed the horrid scheme of Circumventing us with a Chain of Fortresses, this with unwearied Industry they at Length atchieved; and by this they gained the Dominion of the Lakes and their Connecting Streams—the passes thus secured, as well into Canada as our own Country, necessarily Procured them the assistance of numerous Tribes of Indians, and, not to say worse shook the Fidelity of the few who had so long Valued themselves on our protection, nothing then seemed wanting but a little Patience till they had introduced a sufficient number of Regulars from France, but in this they Failed, their Sanguine Expectations broke down the Restraints of Policy and they Began to Execute the deep-laid purpose Before they had Strength Sufficient to ensure Success, and yet thus advantageously Situated they Compelled us in a Defensive war to Toil through several Campaigns ; most of which ended in the Loss of Some Fort or Tract of Country, so True it is, that the inferiority of their numbers was in a great measure Compensated for, by the possession of those important posts ; which had they not Been wrested from them by your unexampled Conduct seconded by the matchless Heroism of the much lamented Wolfe and the Vigorous Efforts of his Brave Successor in Command, would in the hands of so vigilant designing and indefatigable an Enemy, most probably have ended in the Reduction of the whole British North America. This Sir, is a hasty Portraiture of the mighty Evils from which by your Triumphs we have Been delivered ; Evils to which we shall never again be exposed ; unless our late Restless neighbours should by a Restitution be Enabled to Renew the execrable attempt. Yet what will more Effectually perpetuate your name Sir with universal applause to the latest posterity are those ennumerable Benefits arising from an exclusive possession of this Vast Continent these Benefits, the purchase of your Labours, will unfold themselves in every Revolving year Till Great Britain shall Become the Emperial mistress of nations. Indeed to View her in her present Glorious State must Swell the Breast of her every worthy son, Her Royal fleets seem already to give Law to her Neighbours, as often as they spread Canvas even the insulting Gaul beholds with Trembling Expectation ; while to her Victorious Armies it is the same thing to march and to Conquer but the vast Variety of Soils and Climates in America capable of Producing every Necessary and Conveniency of Life joined to the Fishery on its Coast must infallibly prove to our mother Country an inexhaustible Source of Wealth thus enabling her as well by the power of her arms withholding or Bestowing the Blessings both of art and nature, to humble the United

Arrogance of the most presumptuous opposers ; and Support the Tottering Fortunes of depended States. Such, Sir, Will be the wonderfull Effects of the Conquest gained by those Armies which you have Comanded with so much Honour to yourself and the nation A Conquest too immensely valuable ever to be ceded to an Enemy whose principal Characteristic is a Perfidious abuse of Favours, But, Sir, while so Remarkable an Event will never Fail to Furnish the most ample Testimonials of your military Accomplishments, the ingenuous mind must at the same Time receive a peculiar Satisfaction from the Contemplation of an other part of your uncommon Character ; we mean your Humane and Generous Use of Victory the picture of a Conqueror drawn from the Greatest Examples Recorded in the Faithfull pages of History tho' it strikes the soul with a mixture of Admiration and Terror is seldom expressive of the Benevolent Effections of the Heart even when the Conquered are Rather objects of Commiseration than Revenge, hence it is that your Compassionate Treatment of the Vanquished Canadians must appear most Singularly amiable To Require of a disarmed yet Implacable Foe whose Inhumanities have deserved the severest strokes of Vindictive Justice, nothing more than a quiet Submission to the Gentle Dictates of British Rule is indeed a Disinterested Virtue and must Convince the attentive World that Britons never Conquer to enslave. To Conclude ; Sir, that the God of Armies may Continue to Furnish your head with Wisdom, your Breast with Fortitude and your Arm with Strength that he may Cover you as with a Shield and make you Terrible to your Enemies in the day of Battle ; that you may Long live to Enjoy the gracious Smiles of your Royall Master, the Greatfull acclamations of the British Nation and the peaceful Eulogiums of an approving Conscience that your name may Be Remembered With Thankfulness by the Latest Posterity ; and that your unwearied Labours for the publick Welfare may meet with their due Rewards here ; and an unfading Crown of Glory hereafter, are the Earnest Wishes and Desires of your Excellency's most obedient humble servants, The Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York.

Which was agreed To ; and order'd to be En-grossed.

The Draft of a Freedom to Be Presented to his Excellency, was Also Read and is in the Words Following (Vizt.)

City of }

JOHN CRUGER Esqr., Mayor, the Recorder Aldermen and Assistants of the City of New York in Common Council Convened : To all To whom these presents shall come, send Greeting. Whereas the late Glorious Success of the British Arms in the Compleat Reduction of the extensive country of Canada to the Obedience of his Majesty, are under God to be attributed to the Singular Wisdom and Valour of his Excellency Jeffery Amherst Esqr.  No. 87.

At a Common Council held November 14th. 1765.

Mr Recorder [Simon Johnson] produced to this Board the Draft of an Address to his Excellency Sir

Henry Moore, Baronet, Captain-Generall, and Governour in Chief, in and over the Colony of New York and Territories thereon depending in America, Vice-Admiral and Chancellor of the Same, Which was Read and is in the Words following.

To his Excellency Sir HENRY MOORE, Baronet, Captain General and Governour in Chief, in and over the Colony of New York. and the Territories thereon Depending in America, Vice Admiral & Chancellor of the Same.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of his Majesty's Ancient Corporation of the City of New York, in Common Council Convened. May it Please your Excellency,

With Hearts Elate and full of Joy, we Beg Leave to Congratulate your Excellency on Your Appointment to the Chief Command of this Colony and the safe Arrival of Yourself and Family Amongst us.

While we Look Back upon the Administration of Your immediate Predecessor, General Monckton, Who Governed this Colony with a Spirit of Dignity Justice and Tenderness never to Be Forgotten By the people of this Country, we Esteem it a fresh proof of his Majesty's paternal Care over us that he was pleased, Instantly upon his Removal To Berwick, to make provision for our Loss By delivering the Charge of the Colony to a Gentleman whose fame Promises us so happy a Succession.

It is indeed Unfortunate to Your Excellency that the Colonies in General are now Groaning under the Burthen of Great Grievances and filled with fearfull Apprehensions of the Loss of Some of their most Inestimable Priviledges: But it is no Small Alleviation of our Grief that we Can Assure your Excellency we feel No Abatement of that Gracious Protection which has so Gloriously distinguished the Princes of his Majesty's Illustrious house, and as we do with all undissembled sincerity Profess the utmost Devotion and Loyalty to our Royal Sovereign, so it Affords us no Small Pleasure that By Your Accession to the Government We Again have the Prospect that the True State and fidelity of his Subjects in this Colony will Be faithfully Represented to the Throne.

Impressed with the most favourable Sentiments of Your Excellency (whose Arrival at this Critical Juncture was most ardently wished for) we Rejoice in the Confident Expectation, of the preservation and Establishment of the Publick Peace and Felicity; And shall Always Be Ready on our Parts, not only to Contribute to the maintainance of Good order in this City, But to the Comfort and Ease of yourself and family.

Signed By order of the Common-Council.

Augustus Van Cortlandt Clk.

City of New York, November 21st. 1765.

Ordered by this Board, that Alderman Brewerton and Mr. Mesier, be a Committee to Cause a Gold Box to be prepared against Saturday next, of the Value of twenty pistoles, for Enclosing the City Seal, to be annexed to the Freedom of his said Excellency William Tryon, and that the said Committee apply to John Ling, to prepare the same Accordingly.

It is agreed to by this Board, and Ordered, that John Myer illuminate the City Hall, New Goal, Work House, and the Ferry House at Nassau Island, at the Expence of this Corporation, as a Compliment to his Excellency Governour Tryon.

At a Common Council held July 15th. 1771.

M<sup>r</sup> Recorder, Pursuant to an order of the last Common Council, produced to this Board, the draft of an Address to his Excellency William Tryon Esqr., Captain General and Governour in Chief, in and over the province of New York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor & Vice Admiral of the same, which being Read, is in the words following.

To his Excellency William Tryon, (as above)

The humble address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York.

May it please your Excellency,

We, his majestys most dutifull and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen & Commonalty of this antient Corporation, beg leave to present your Excellency, our warmest Congratulations on your arrival with your family in this Colony; and your appointment to Succeed our late worthy Governor the Earl of Dunmore, on whom, from a just Estimation of his Services, his majesty hath been Graciously pleased to Confer the Government of his Dominion of Virginia.

With the most lively Gratitude we receive this mark of his majestys paternal Goodness in appointing to preside over this his loyal and faithful Colony, a Gentleman whose abilities eminently distinguish and qualify him for the discharge of this important trust, and whose Irreproachable Conduct in the Government he lately so honourably filled, is the Strongest presage of our own publick felicity.

The ardour with which your Excellency as Supreme magistrate in the Colony, which you lately presided over, undertook that hazardous though necessary Service, in Supporting the Laws of the Country, and the Quelling a daring Insurrection justly alarming to the Community, and which if not happily Suppressed, might have been Attended with Very Dangerous Consequences, we think reflects great honour upon your Excellency.

We Cannot leave your Excellency, without entreating your favourable Countenance and protection of this Corporation in the full enjoyment of all its franchises and priviledges Granted by his Majesty's Royal predecessors, nor without Offering our most ardent wishes, that you may long enjoy the inward and Solid Satisfaction, resulting from an easy, mild, and equitable administration, which we shall ever Studiously endeavour to promote, Confident from the tendency of your Amiable disposition, that it will prove a Blessing to the people.

And the same being approved of by this Board, was ordered to be Engrossed, and at the same time the draft of a Freedom of this Corporation, to be preferred.

to his said Excellency was also Read, and agreed to by this board, and is the words following,

The Engrossed Address to his Excellency William Tryon Esqr., Captain General and Governour in Chief, in and over the Province of New York and the Territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the same, was Read and agreed to, and ordered that the same be Signed by the Mayor, and the same was Signed Accordingly. This Board did thereupon wait on his said Excellency, with the said Address, and the same was presented to him by the Recorder, Who returned the following Answer (vizt.)

To the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York,

Gentlemen,

I receive with Real pleasure your Congratulations on my Arrival with my Family in this Colony, and esteem myself happy in being appointed to Succeed your late worthy Governour in the Command of this most Respectable province.

I conceived it an indispensable duty in me, to Carry into Execution those active Measures, I was Called upon to pursue, in Vindication of the Violated Civil Rights of a province I had then the honour to pre- side over. But to receive such honourable Testi- monies of the necessity of that Service, from the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of this antient Corporation, affords as much Inward satisfaction to my mind, as it does me publick honor.

Imprest with a proper Sense of my duty, and your favourable Opinion of my Inclinations, I shall faith- fully endeavour to promote the publick felicity, of this Country.

The Corporation of the City of New York, may be Confident, of every possible Countenance and pro- tection from me, in all its franchises and priviledges.

granted by his Majesty's Royal predecessors, and that their Studious endeavours to promote the Success of my administration will meet, with all Suitable returns of Respect and Gratitude.

And then this Board presented his said Excellency with the Freedom of the Corporation.

At a Common Council held February 21st. 1774.

M<sup>r</sup> Mayor produced the draft of an address to his Excellency Governor Tryon, which being read is in the Words following,

To his Excellency William Tryon Esqr., Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over the Colony of New York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the same.

The Humble address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York.

May it please your Excellency,

While we Testify our Gratitude to God for the Gracious interposition of his Almighty arm in preserving your Excellency, and so many Branches of your family, in the late Conflagrations of the Buildings in the fort; it is with a mixture of undissembled Grief, that we find ourselves Called to the melancholy Office of Condolence on account of your Great Losses in the wasting destruction of that memorable and Perilous hour.

But Pungent as our Sorrow is, for this Calamity to your Excellency, it might be Alleviated by the Generous Sympathy of a province, that has a Just Sense of the merits of its Ruler, if the approaching minutes of your departure did not darken the prospect, we had of a more lasting felicity under your Command.

It becomes us as the Loyal Subjects of a most Gracious Sovereign, to Submit to an act of his pleasure, Expressly founded upon the Royal approbation of its Expediency for the publick Utility; and more Especially, as you have inspired us with the firmest Confidence in your Zealous Attention whether present or Absent to the best of Interests of the Colony.

It is Nevertheless with regret, that we are Obligated to look forward to the parting moment; for if Integrity and Generosity, Impartiality and Condescension, prudence and activity, Vigilance and Independency, in the Chief majestrate of a Colony, are Sure pledges of the people, of the Common felicity, we have to deprecate your departure, as an Event unfortunate to the province.

In Testimony of the Affectionate Esteem of a Grateful City, We beg Sir, your acceptance of this Box, enclosing an Exemplification of that Instrument destroyed in the late fire, by which we formerly Gave you a Title to its freedom and privileges, and which you once did us the honour to Receive.

And the same being approved of by this board, was ordered to be Engrossed.

At a Common Council held February 22d. 1774.

The Engrossed address to his Excellency William Tryon Esq<sup>r</sup>. Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over the province of New York, and the Territories depending thereon in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral of the same, was Read this day and agreed to, and Ordered, that the same be Signed by M<sup>r</sup> Mayor in behalf of this Corporation, and the same was Signed accordingly. This Board did thereupon Wait on his said Excellency, with the said Address, and the same was presented to him by M<sup>r</sup> Recorder—who Returned the following answer, (to witt,)

Gentlemen,

I take Very Kindly this Publick Testimony of your Congratulations on the providential Deliverance of my family from the Calamitous and Perilous Situation to which we were Subjected by the late fire; and Return you my Cordial thanks for your warm and feeling Expressions, of Condolence on the Heavy Losses I Sustained in that Consuming and destructive hour. The Generous Sympathy of a province may Alleviate the Burden of my pecuniary Injuries, but the loss of useful papers, and a Collection of everything, that I have been able to make, thr'o a Series of Years devoted to Business, must be Irreparable lasting.

The favorable Sentiments this City Entertains of the Impartiality and Integrity of my publick Conduct, Gives me Great Satisfaction.

I Gratefully accept from the Mayor, Aldermen & Commonalty of the City of New York, this Early repossession of a Golden Box, and Exemplification of that Instrument which upon my Arrival in this Government; Gave me a Right to the Freedom and privileges of a Citizen; This Honorable mark of Distinction was pleasing to me at the first presenting of it, but the uniform Civility and Attention of its Inhabitants has Enhanced the Value of the Testimonial, and my warmest Wishes, whither present or absent, will ever attend this flourishing Commercial American City.

Wm. Tryon.

Ordered the Mayor Issue his Warrant to the Treasurer of this City to pay to Otto Parisien, or order, the sum of £32:18:6, for a Golden Box, by him made, by order of this Board.

No. 96.

At a Common Council held November 14th. 1765.

The Draft of a Freedom to Be Preferred to his Excellency the honourable Thomas Gage, Major General and Commander in Chief, of all his Majesty's forces in North America, was Likewise Read and Agreed to By this Board and is in the words following (viz<sup>t</sup>.)

City of }
New York } ss.

JOHN CRUGER Esqr. Mayor, and the Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York. To all To Whom these Presents shall Come Send Greeting. know Yee that wee, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York Aforesaid, Assembled in Common Council, Being willing to demonstrate the Great Value and Esteem we have for the Person of his Excellency the honourable Thomas Gage, Major General and Commander in Chief of all his Majesty's forces in North America &c : and Being Truly sensible of the Great honour it will Be to this Corporation to have so Worthy a Person a Member Thereof, Ordered That he Be Presented with the Freedom of this Corporation, with the seal thereto, Enclosed in a Gold Box with the City Arms Engraved on the Lid Thereof ; These are Therefore to Certify and Declare that his said Excellency The Honourable Thomas Gage, is hereby Admitted Received and Allowed a Freeman and Citizen of the said City ; To have hold Enjoy and Partake of all the Benefitts, Liberties, Priviledges, franchises, freedoms and Immunities Whatsoever Granted or Belonging to the same City. In Testimony Whereof the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty have Caused the seal of the said City to Be hereunto Affixed the Fourteenth Day of November in the Sixth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, By the Grace of God of Great Britain France & Ireland King, Defender of the faith and so forth, and in the Year of our Lord one Thousand Seven hundred and Sixty five.

By order of the Common Council
Augustus Van Cortlandt Clk.

Its Ordered By this Board, that the same Be handsomly Engrossed on Parchment, and the seal of this Corporation Affixed thereto, to be Enclosed in a Gold Box, with the City Arms Engraved thereon.

At a Common Council May 20th. 1773.

The Mayor communicated to this Board that General Gage, intends shortly to leave this province for Europe, and that as his conduct had been Generally approved of by the Inhabitants of this City, therefore proposed that this Board should address him and at the same time, prefer him with the Freedom of this Corporation, the Seal whereof to be Enclosed in a Gold Box.

This Board therefore Agreeing in Sentiment with Mr. Mayor, Ordered that an Address and Freedom be prepared Accordingly.

At a Common Council held June 4th. 1773.

Mr Mayor Produced to this Board, the draft of an address to his Excellency the Honourable Thomas Gage, Lieutenant General in his Majestys army & Commander in Chief of all his forces in North America, on his Departure from this Province to Europe, which was Read, and is in the words following.

To his Excellency the Honourable THOMAS GAGE,
Lieutenant General in his Majestys Army & Commander in Chief of his Majestys Forces in North America.

The Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, & Commonalty of the City of New York.

We should do Violence to the Grateful Feelings of the Citizens of New York, of every Rank, if we omitted in taking Leave of your Excellency, to Express their Grief at the Departure of an Inhabitant, whose Residence here has done Honour to our City. and of whose Politeness and Benevolence we have had Abundant Experience.

It would be painful to you, Sir, and on some joyful Occasion, it will be more Agreeable to us, to recount the most Signal Instances of your Favour to this Community; permit us nevertheless to remark that your's was the Arduous Task to command an Army, in that critical Hour, when the several Branches of the Empire, rent by unnatural Discords, seemed to be upon the point of Dissolving the Union to which they owe their Safety their Glory and their happiness; and your's was the Honour to direct in that Storm, not only with Wisdom and Firmness, but with that Magnanimity and Prudence, so happily suited to the Exigencies of the Times, and with that Affectionate Tenderness to the true Interest of the Publick which never fails to Add more Lustre to the character of a General, than can be derived from all the splendid Exploits of Arms.

In the Name of a City, that has a high and just Sense of your distinguished Merit, and as a Memorial of the Gratitude, and Affection of its Inhabitants, we beg your Acceptance of this Box, and a Title to all the Rights of a Citizen of New York; and we most Ardently beseech the sovereign disposer of human Affairs, ever to follow you and your family, with the Smiles of a most indulgent Providence,

And the same being approved of by this board, was ordered to be Engrossed—and at the same time the draft of a Freedom to be preferred to his said Excellency was also Read and agreed to by this Board, Ordered by this Board that the same be handsomly Engrossed on parchment, and the Seal of this Corporation Affixed thereto, to be Enclosed in a Gold Box with the City arms Engraved thereon.

At a Common Council held June 7th. 1773.

The Engrossed address to his Excellency the Honourable Thomas Gage, Lieutenant General in his Majestys Army and Commander in Chief of all his Majestys forces in North America, was Read and agreed to,

Ordered that the same be Signed by Mr. Mayor, and the same being Signed accordingly this Board, did thereupon Wait on his said Excellency with the said address, as also with the Freedom of this Corporation, the Seal of the said Corporation being Enclosed in a Gold Box and annexed thereto, which they presented to his said Excellency, and thereupon his said Excellency made the following answer (Vizt.)

To the Worshipful the Mayor, Aldermen, & Commonalty of the City of New York,

Gentlemen,

Your very kind Address, at this Time of my Departure, gives me uncommon pleasure, and merits my warmest Acknowledgements.

It has ever been my Ambition, as my Study. equally to promote the Interest of my King, and the welfare of his Subjects. I cannot therefore fail of being highly sensible of the honourable Testimony you are pleased to Give me of your Approbation of my Conduct.

I esteem myself highly honoured, by your enrolling my Name in the List of your Citizens and I accept your present with gratitude, as a Memorial of your Affections, and as such i shall ever carefully preserve it.

It is my Ardent Wish, that your City may increase & prosper & that its Inhabitants may continue a flourishing & happy people, to the End of Time.

Ordered the Mayor Issue his Warrant to the Treasurer of this City to pay to Otto Parisien, or order, the Sum of £30 : 16, for a Gold Box made by order of this Board, for Enclosing the City Seal, annexed to the Freedom, which the Corporation presented to General Gage this day.

June 17th. 1773. A Warrant issued to Robert Hull for the sum of Sixty one pounds, ten Shillings and Six pence, in full of his account, for the Expence of Entertaining General Gage.

ADDENDUM TO FREEMAN, 1854.

At half past ten yesterday morning, Aldermen Blunt, Hoffmeyer and Lord, and Councilmen Wild, Seeley and Hodgekinson, the Joint Committee of the Common Council appointed to tender to Capt. Robert Creighton, of the British ship Three Bells, the Freedom of the City, in accordance with the joint resolutions of the two Boards to this effect met at the Astor House, where they were received by Capt. Creighton.

In the presence of a small company assembled, Alderman Blunt, Chairman of the Committee, presented Capt. Creighton with the Freedom of the City in a gold box, and accompanied the presentation by the following address :

Capt. Robert Creighton—Sir : I am authorized by the Corporation of the City of New York to extend to you the Freedom of the City, together with a gold box as a testimonial of their regard for you.

I might linger on the thrilling incidents connected with your fidelity to suffering humanity, from the moment you discovered the San Francisco until you had rescued from a watery grave, more than two hundred distracted beings. I might touchingly allude to your tears, from day to day, (as witnessed by your sailors,) because you could not sooner relieve the unfortunate. I might speak of the fearful responsibility you assumed in violating the insurance of your ship and valuable cargo, by deviating from your specific course—of your personal perils amid the howling tempest—of the four-inch stream of water pouring in upon you, which caused both pumps to be constantly wrought before you discovered the wreck—of the disadvantage of four hundred tons of iron and large quantities of merchandise, in a ship of only seven hundred tons burthen, of the loss of every sail, before you saw the wreck, save your foresail and mainsail. I might dwell on these historical truths and on your affectionate regard for the rescued; but I forbear. All this, and even more, is on every tongue and uttered around every fireside, and cannot be glorified by me.

The contemplation of the good you have affected, will ever be a delightful solace to you, and your humanity will be a precious inheritance to your consanguinity. The wives and children of those whose lives you have preserved, will ever love you, and transmit your name to their farthest posterity. The mariners of every ocean will strive to imitate your meritorious example. The noble youth of our country will read of your heroic deeds, and resolve to cultivate your manly virtues. Little children already lisp your name in terms of praise. Tears of gratitude are freely shed for you by either sex; and fervent prayers go up to Heaven from the habitations of all this land, that your valuable life may be long preserved, and that health, happiness and prosperity, may ever be your lot.

And your name will be revered by coming generations, when every being who beholds the sun of this day shall be a tenant of the tomb.

To this address Capt. Creighton responded as follows: Gentlemen: I thank you sincerely for the testimonial of approbation you have given me in behalf of the Corporation of the City of New York, and I accept it with pleasurable emotions. I would I were worthier of the honor which you now bestow, and the other honors which have been forced upon me during my stay in your city. In the humble position which I occupied with respect to the survivors of the unfortunate San Francisco, in whatever I have done I have performed nothing more than a humanitarian duty—a duty which I feel that any man, animated by the common sympathies of human nature, would gladly have done under similar circumstances. Gentlemen, I renew my thanks to you for the high honor you have conferred, and I feel that I would be wanting in gratitude did I not fully reciprocate the kindly wishes towards the city and citizens of New York, which they have so generously expressed in my behalf.

The box presented was a massive gold one, of about three and a half inches in length, two and a half in breadth at the centre, and an inch and a quarter in height. It was richly ornamented with chaste work. Inside the cover of the box was engraved the following words :

“ Presented to Capt. ROBERT CREIGHTON, by the Common Council of the City of New York, with the Freedom of the City, for his noble conduct in rescuing the lives of the passengers and crew of the steamship San Francisco, which was shipwrecked in the Gulf Stream, while bound from New York to San Francisco, California, January, 1854.”

After the presentation, Capt. Creighton, accompanied by the Committee, entered a carriage, and was conveyed to the Governor's room at the City Hall, where large numbers of our citizens had assembled for the purpose of seeing and congratulating the man who had risked so much for humanity's sake in saving the survivors of the San Francisco. On the arrival of the carriage Capt. Creighton was greeted with three cheers. He proceeded at once to the Governor's room, and within the space of an hour and a half over three thousand of our citizens, including many ladies, shook the gallant captain warmly by the hand. He was frequently cheered during the time. At half past twelve o'clock he returned, in company with the Committee, to the Astor House.

At five o'clock a select company of gentlemen, mostly members of the Common Council, met at the Astor House to partake of a dinner tendered to Capt. Creighton. Councilman Wild presided. After the cloth had been removed, Capt. Creighton, Capt. James P. Watkins, and others were toasted and cheered. Among those who spoke were Councilmen Wild, Clancy, and Conover, Aldermen Herrick and Drake, Mr. F. McDonald, the consignee of the Three Bells, Mr. Andrews, and others. In the evening in accordance with an invitation extended by Mr. E. A. Marshall, manager of the Broadway Theatre, Capt. Creighton, accompanied by the Committee of the Common Council, attended the performance at that popular place of amusement, where a private box had been fitted up for their reception.

New York Daily Times, Jan. 27, 1854.

Captain Creighton, the gallant commander, left the port at twelve o'clock yesterday, with the ship Three Bells, for Glasgow. As the ship passed down the bay, she was saluted by a discharge of artillery from Fort Columbus, at Governor's island.
